EXCELEBRATION

Centurion
Volume XXVIII
La Salle High School
3880 E. Sierra Madre Blvd.
Pasadena, CA 91107

La Salle opened its doors in September, 1956 with Principal Celestine Cormier, FSC, and 60 students. During the 30 ensuing years, over 3,000 young men have graduated, joining the ranks of Christian Brother boys and girls world-wide.

This year was designated as 'Excelebration' by Principal Robert Mizia, FSC, commemorating the excellence that is the hallmark of the school's 30 years, not only in academics; but also in athletics and spiritual development as well.

In addition to all the activities for current Lancers, two major celebrations were held for alumni, parents, and friends — The Octoberfest to kick off the Excelebration year and the Excelebration banquet, March 28, 1987, at which Brother Celestine was presented the La Sallian Ambassadors' Br. Miguel Award.

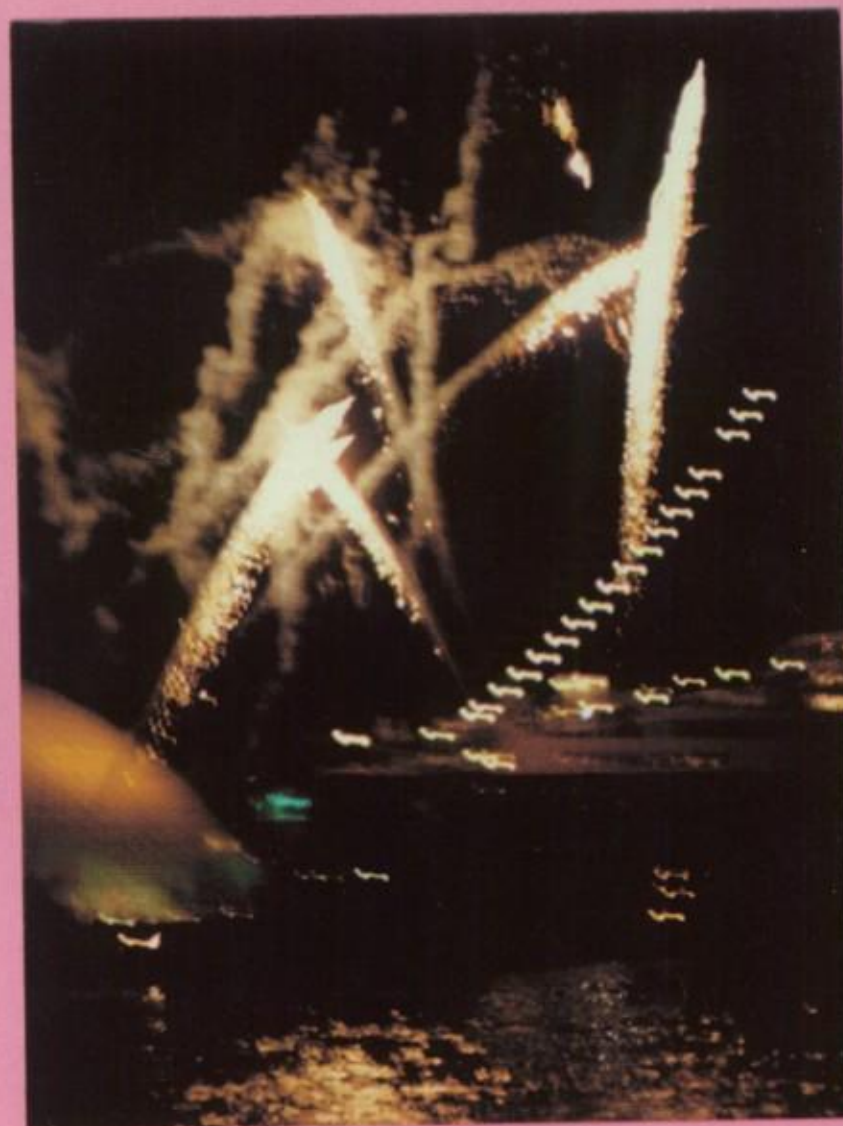

Life is a celebration as the many activities of the La Sallians indicate and this book is dedicated to that theme. Therefore, as we celebrate La Salle's past, present, and future, may we all strive to witness to the world that we are true La Sallians who love and respect the Father of us all, our brothers and sisters, and the beauty of our created world. Proud of our heritage, we willingly and gratefully salute thee La Salle.

CELEBRATE LIFE

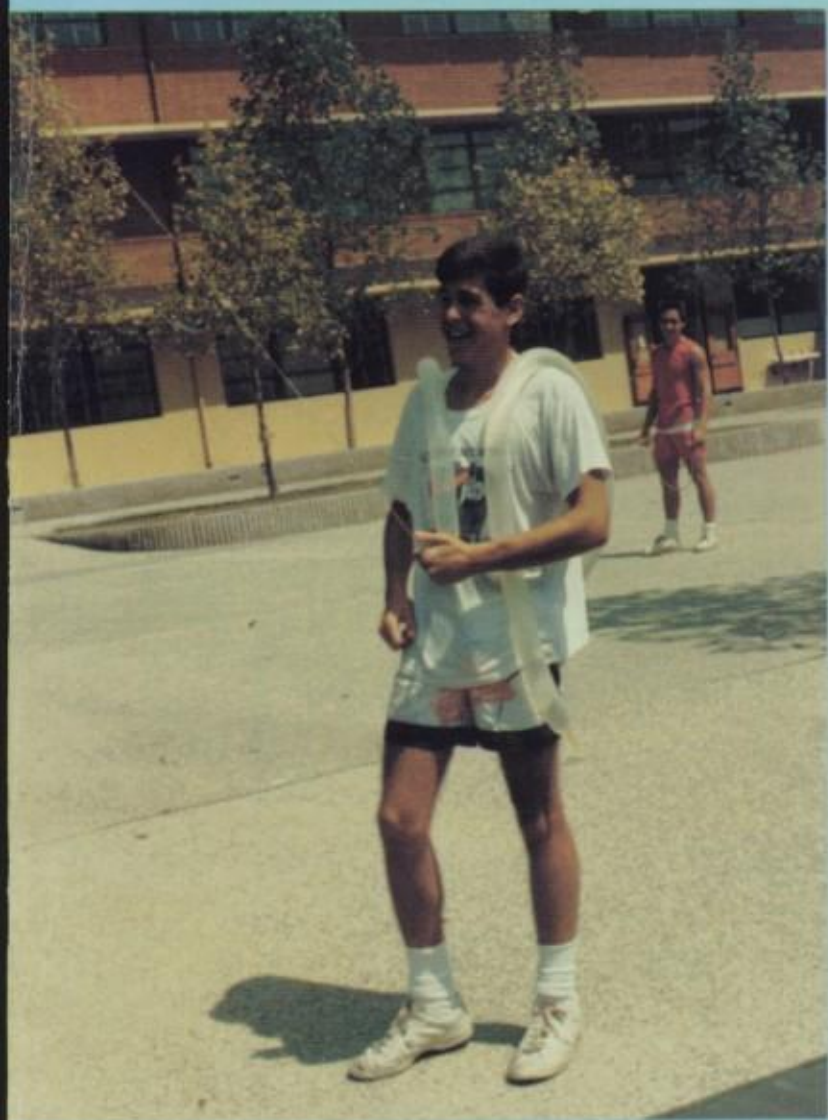

CELEBRATE SUMMER

CELEBRATE LA SALLE

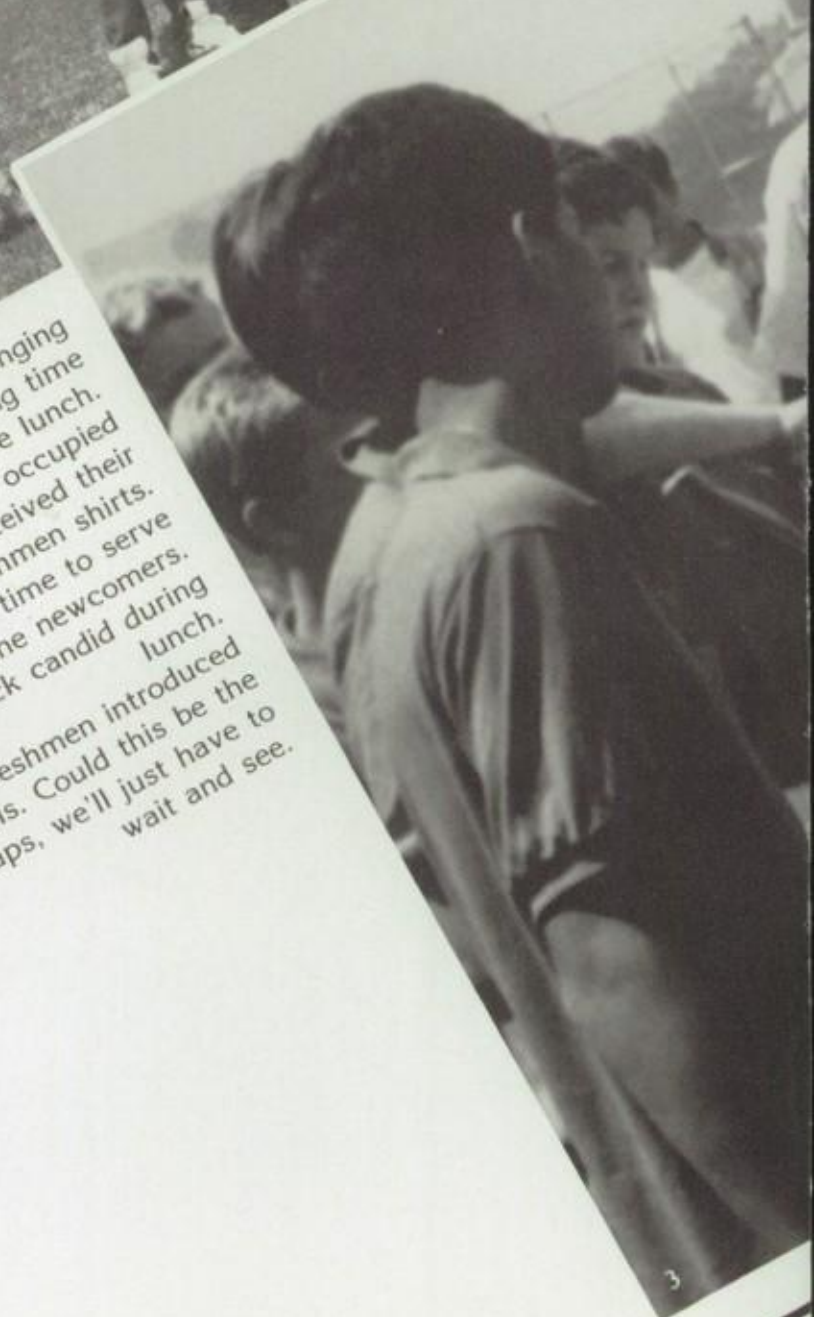

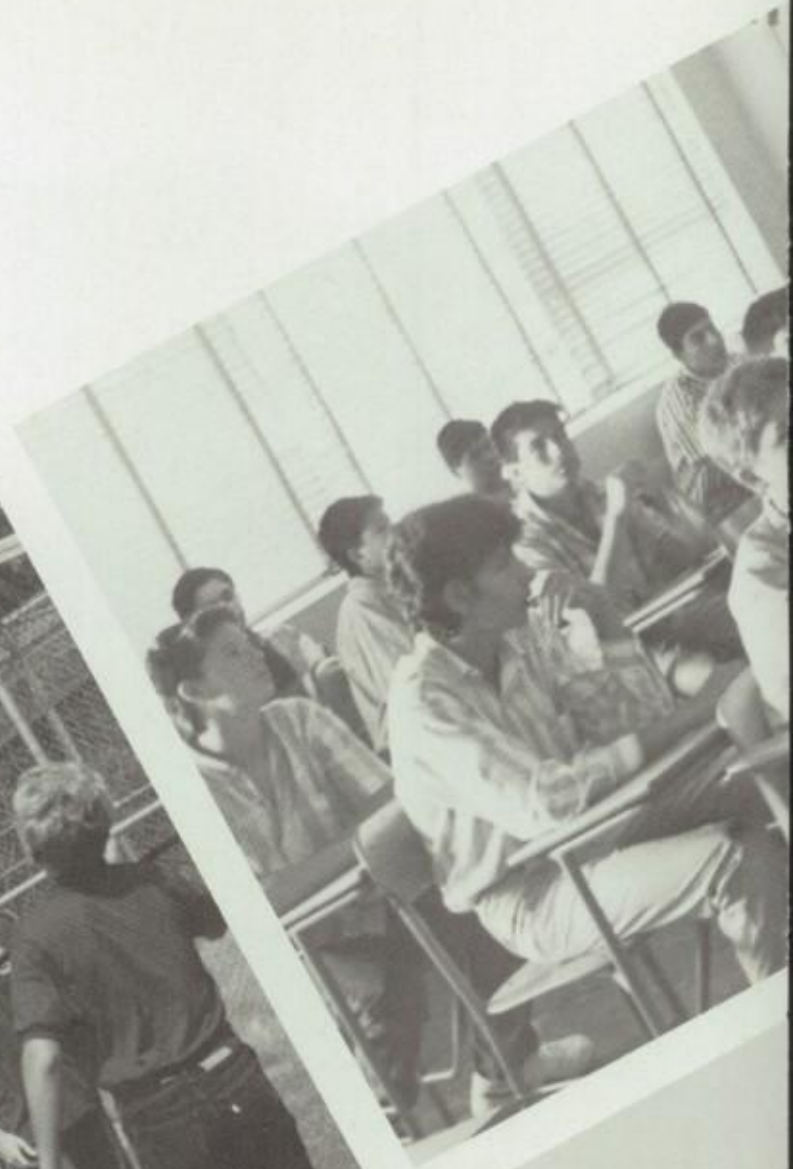

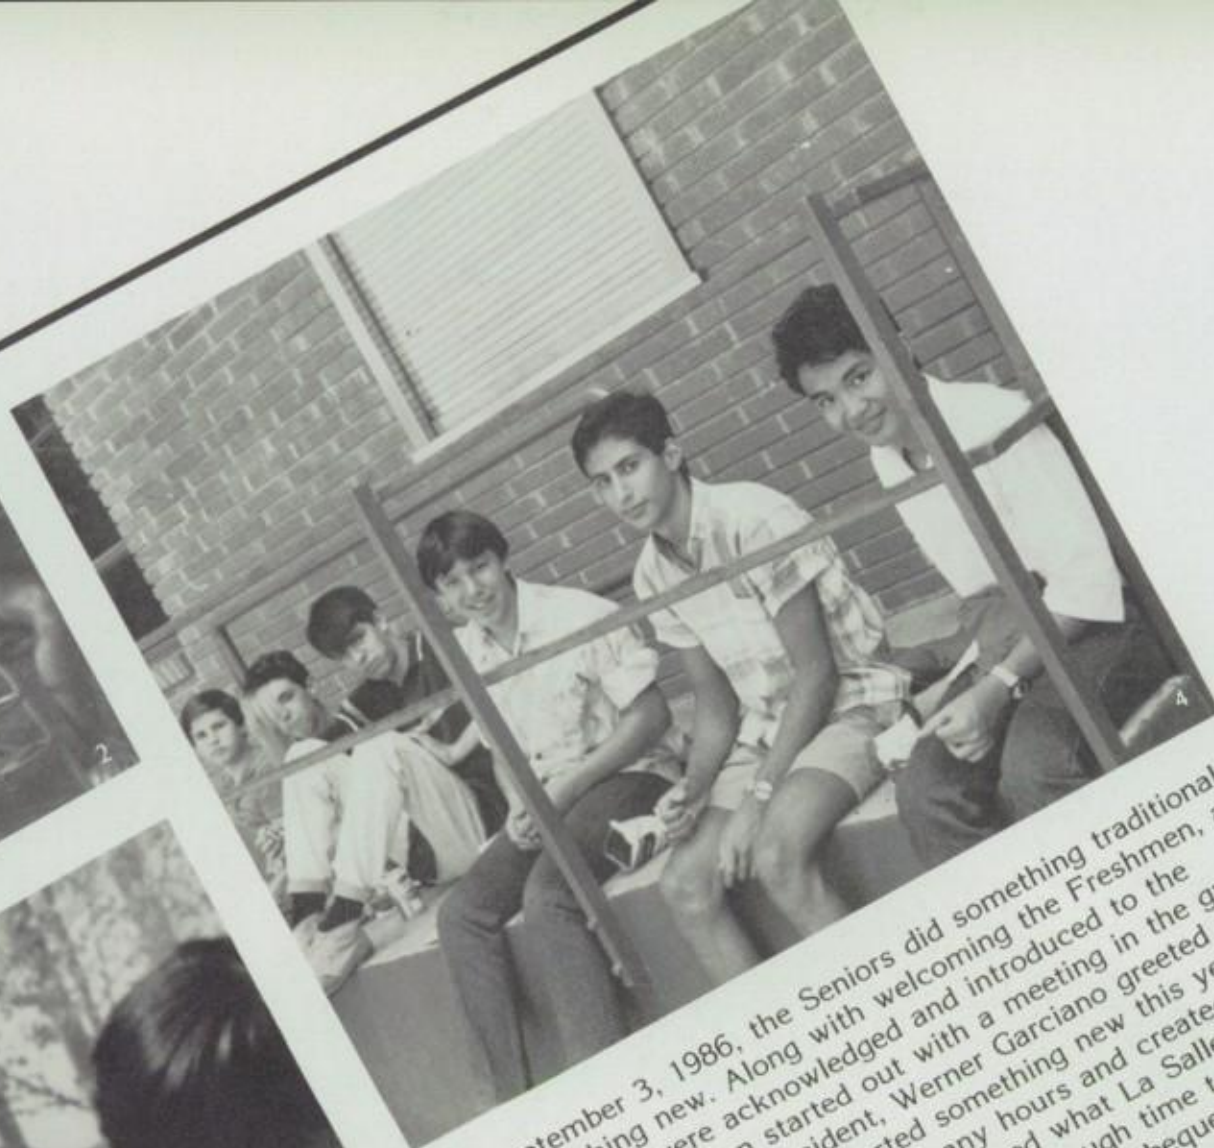

Activities

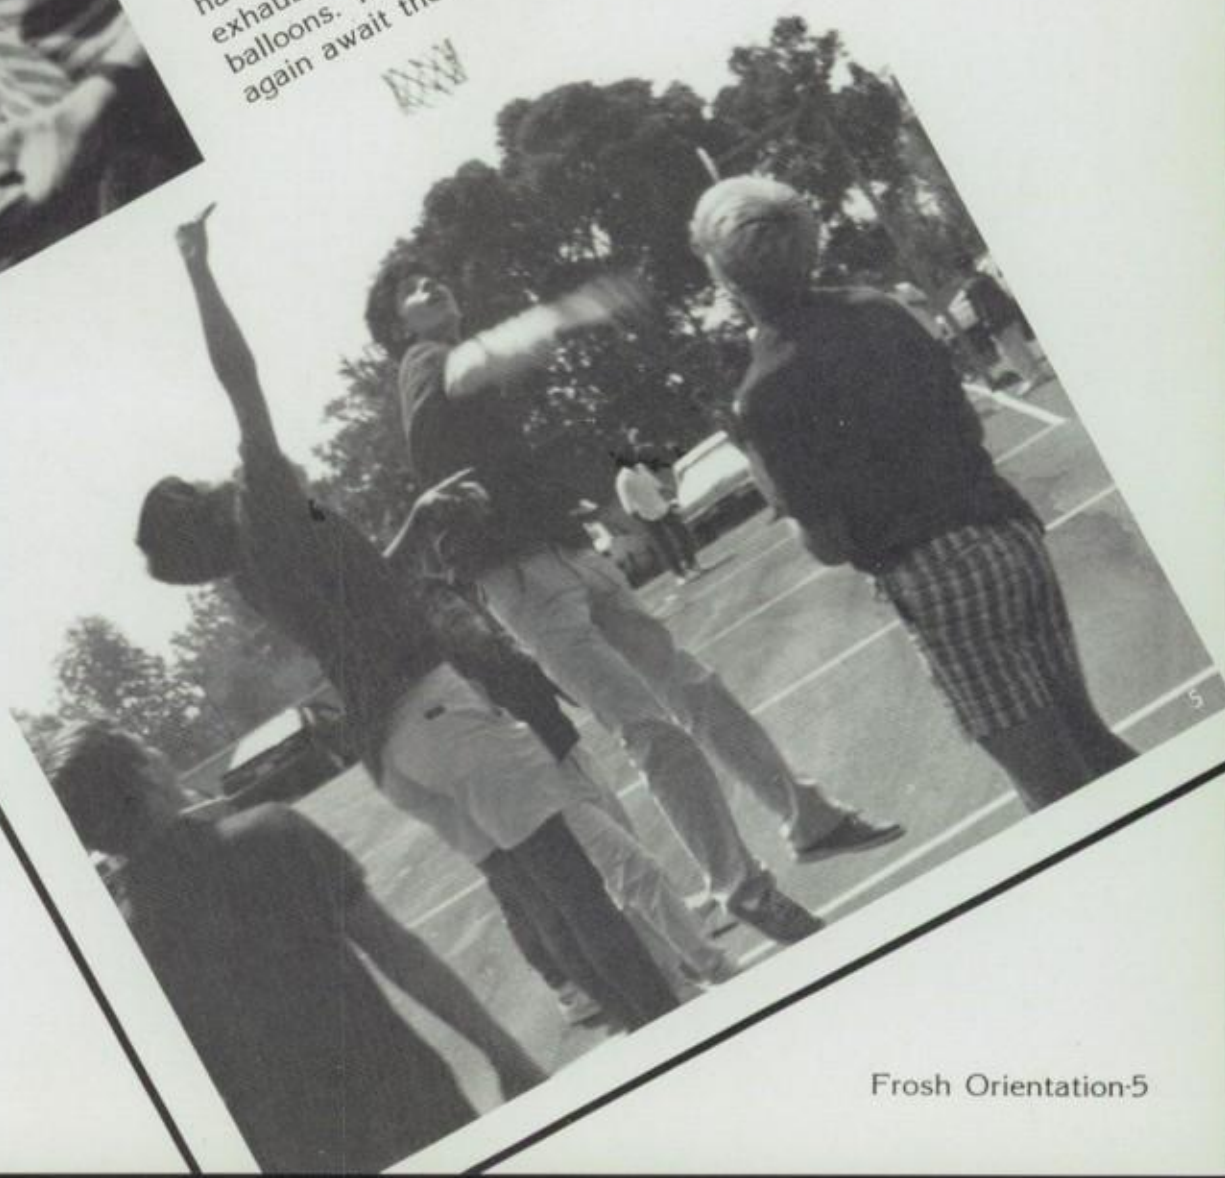

FRESHMAN PARTY

1. Some freshmen chose a challenging game of volleyball while passing time before lunch.
2. Early in the day, freshmen occupied their homerooms where they received their traditional freshmen shirts.
3. Seniors donate their time to serve "food" (?) to the newcomers.
4. Freshmen pose for a quick candid during lunch.
5. Like volleyball, the freshmen introduced their basketball skills. Could this be the future varsity? Perhaps, we'll just have to wait and see.

On September 3, 1986, the Seniors did something traditional and something new. Along with welcoming the Freshmen, all new students were acknowledged and introduced to the school. The tradition started out with a meeting in the gym, where Senior Class President, Werner Garciano greeted the new group. The Seniors started something new this year. Weeks earlier, Seniors put in many hours and created the video "Follow That Frosh". It showed what La Salle life is all about. It ran about 20 minutes, just enough time to let the Seniors set up the volleyball courts and barbeques. The freshmen, after being entertained with the infamous video, played sports like basketball and volleyball, as they avoided soaring water balloons. Unknown to the freshmen class, Seniors spent most of the morning filling hundreds of water balloons, waiting for that moment when they could start their balloon raid. It was quickly stopped by teachers, but not soon enough because Freshmen got a hold of some too. They even hit some Seniors. Then came the food. It was the traditional hamburger meal, but no one cared because they were all exhausted from playing sports and running from the water balloons. The day then ended. Everyone left for home, to once again await the first day of classes.

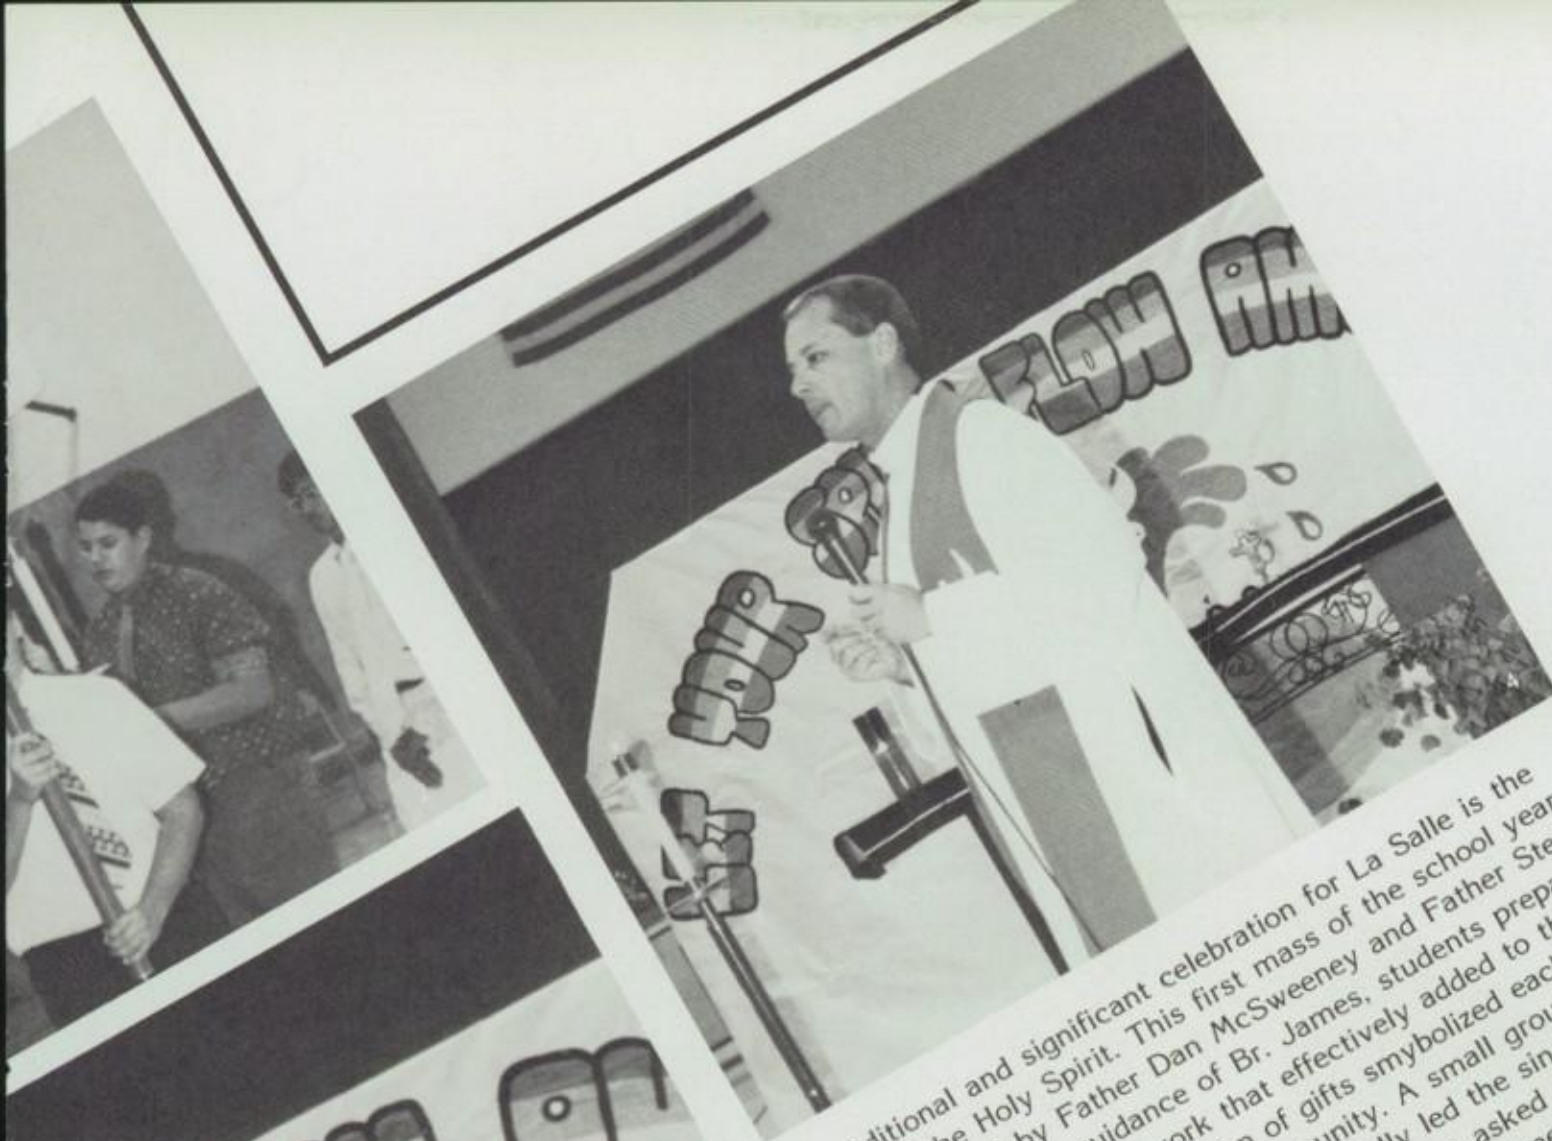

CELEBRATING THE HOLY SPIRIT

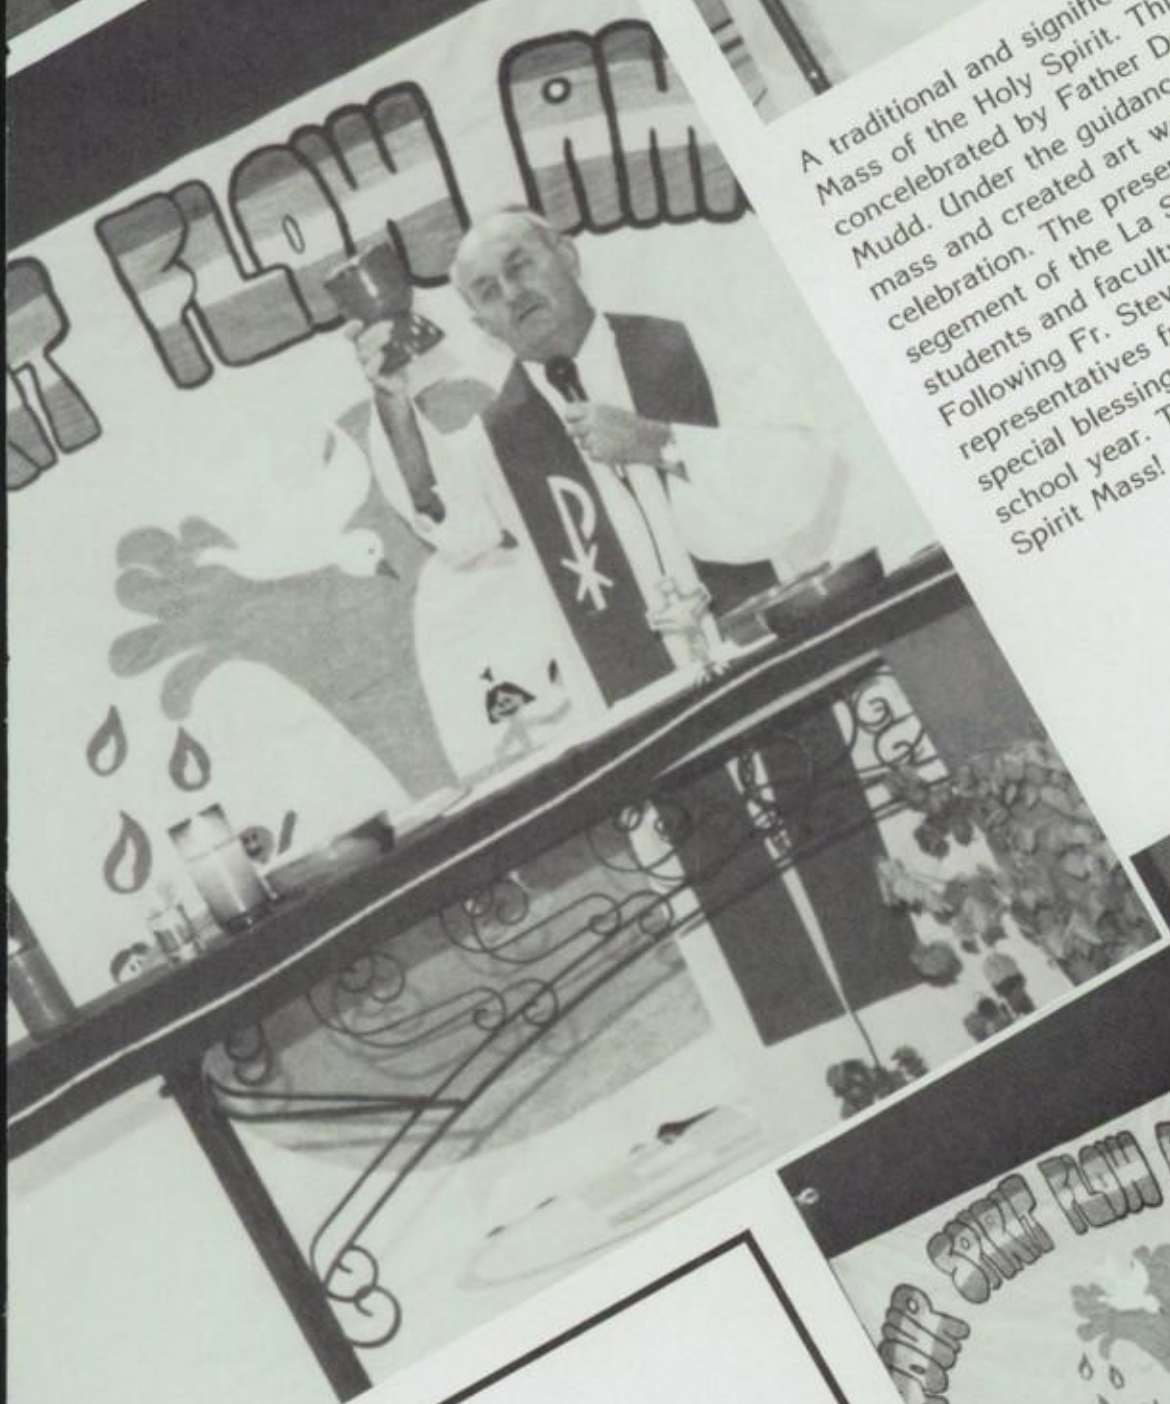

1. An important part of every mass, Br. James leads the pack of singing students and faculty. They add a special interest to the service.
2. Here, the mass participants prepare the entrance procession. Music and singing, as usual, accompanies the liturgy of the Holy Eucharist.
3. Fr. Dan makes meaningful the student body with the homily.
4. Fr. Steve, addresses a prayer, as Fr. Dan prepares for the Eucharist.
5. Mrs. Roman offers a prayer, as Fr. Dan prepares for the Eucharist.

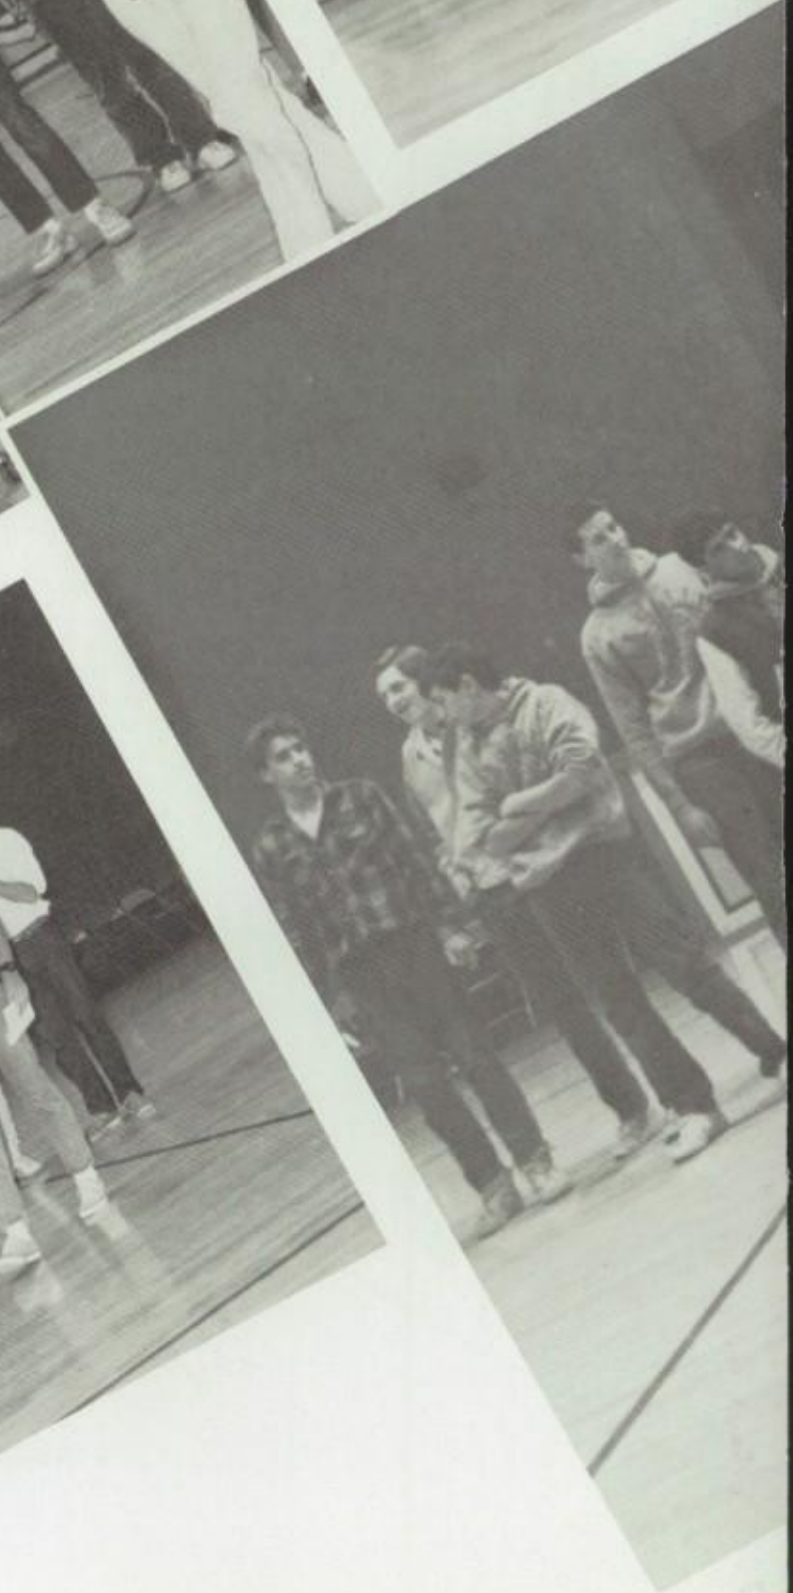

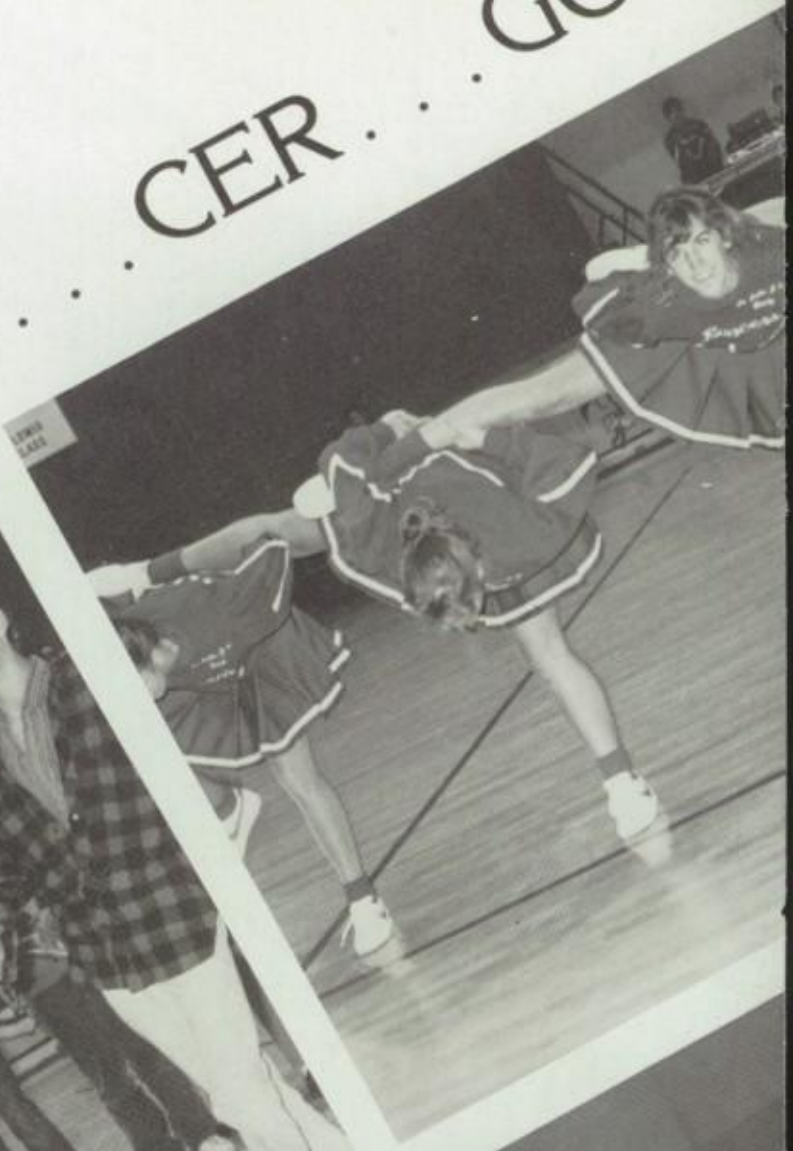

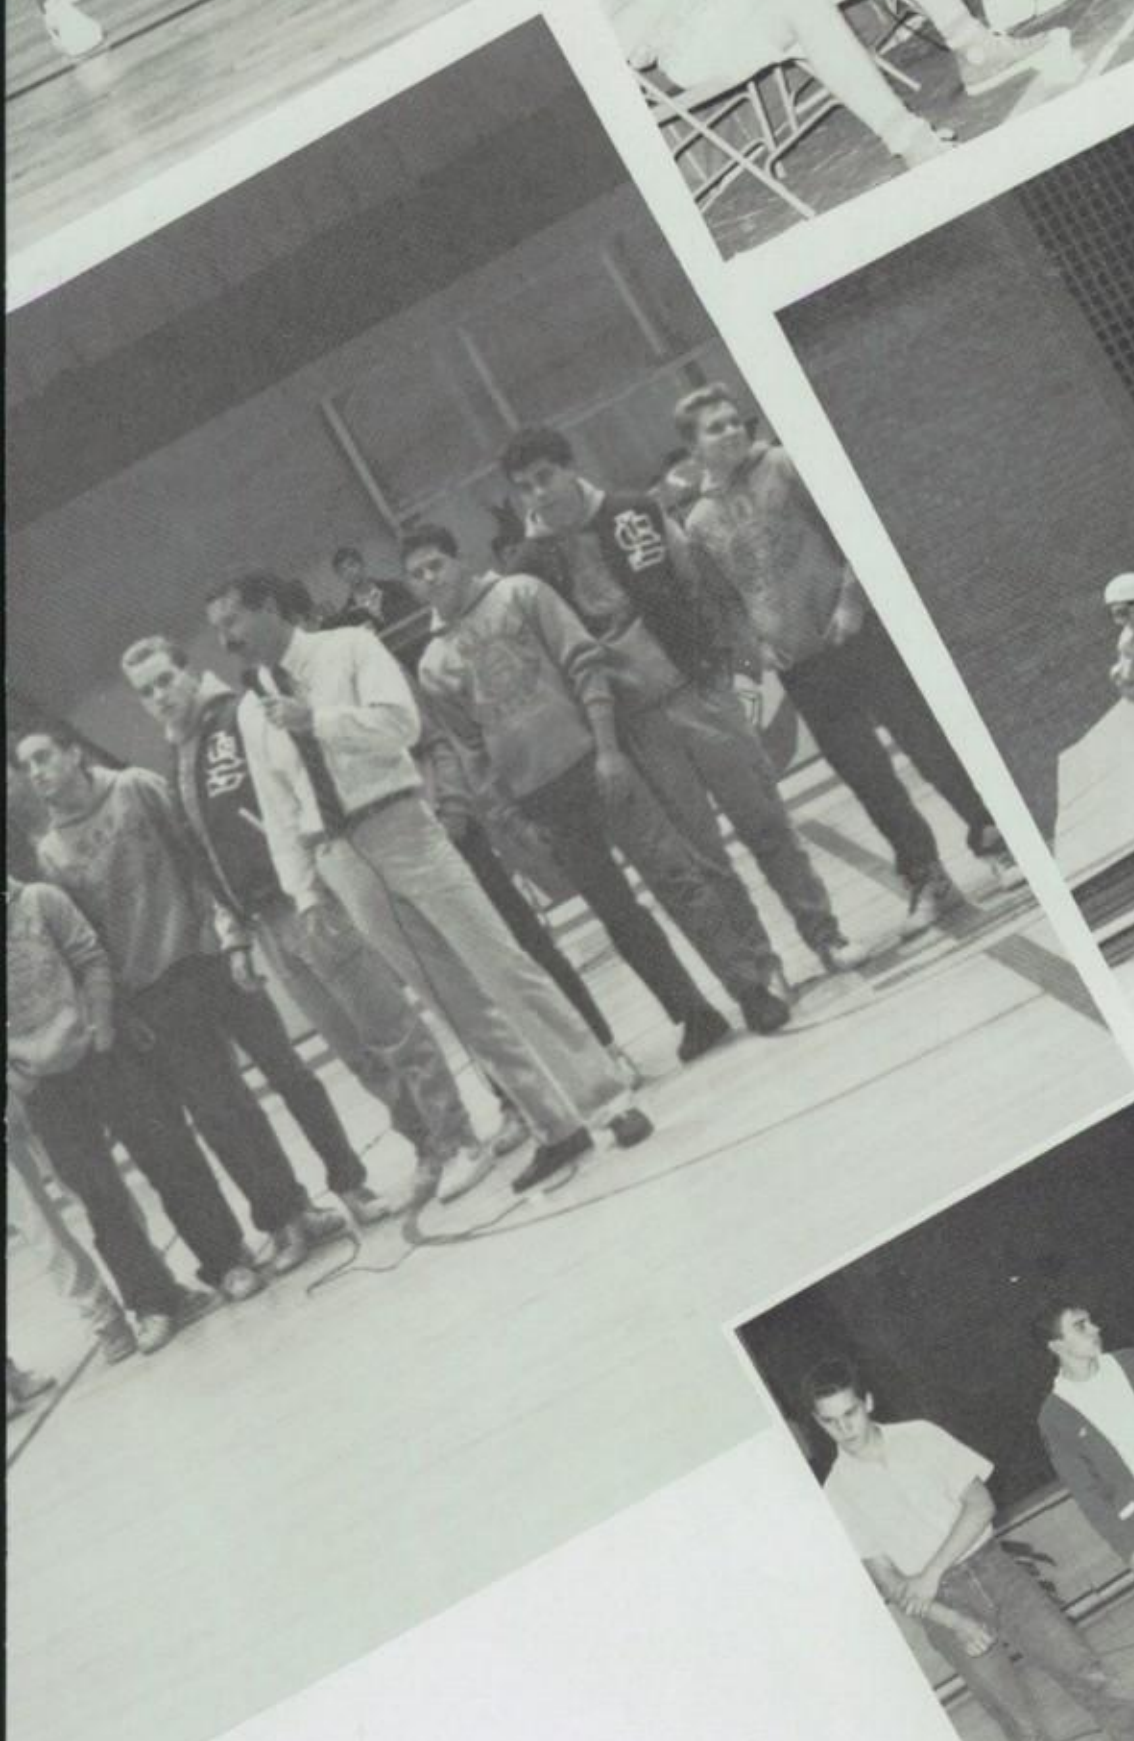

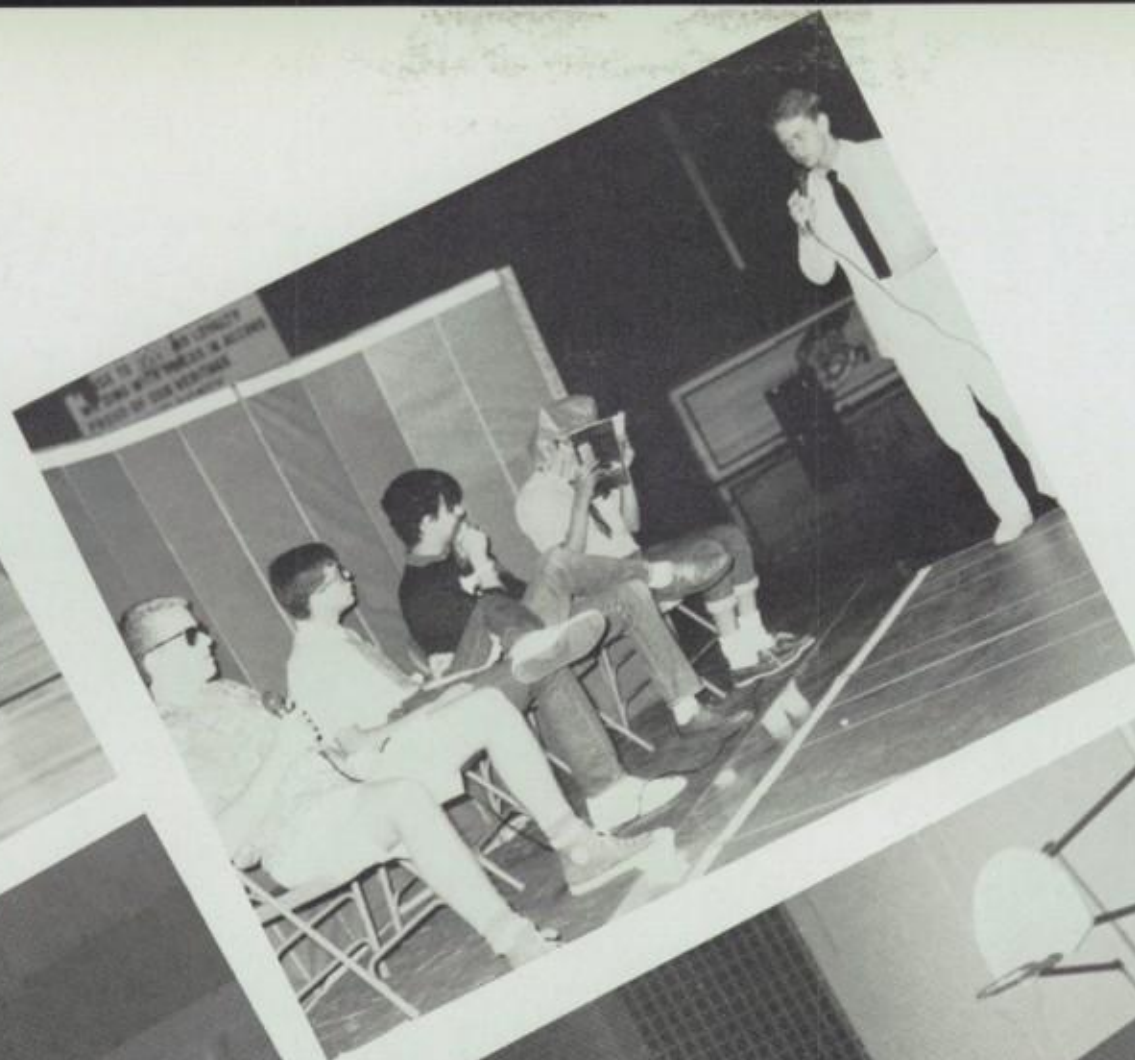

A traditional and significant celebration for La Salle is the Mass of the Holy Spirit. This first mass of the school year was concelebrated by Father Dan McSweeney and Father Steven Mudd. Under the guidance of Br. James, students added to the mass and created art work that effectively added to the celebration. The presentation of gifts symbolized each segment of the La Salle Community. A small group of students and faculty members joyfully led the singing. Following Fr. Steve's homily, Father Dan asked representatives from each organization to come forward for a special blessing to ask for God's guidance in the ensuing school year. Truly, we celebrate God's gift to life in this Holy Spirit Mass!

PARENTS ATTEND LA SALLE, TOO

Each class sponsored a potluck dinner at the beginning of the year to offer parents the chance to meet other parents and to learn about the many opportunities to become actively involved in their sons' education at La Salle.

A good way for parents to get acquainted with the teachers and to understand the types of courses and requirements their sons have to meet, is the Fall Back-to-School Night. Following a welcome by the principal, parents follow their sons' schedules and attend 10-minute classes. Informal conversations are held over refreshments in the cafeteria following the program.

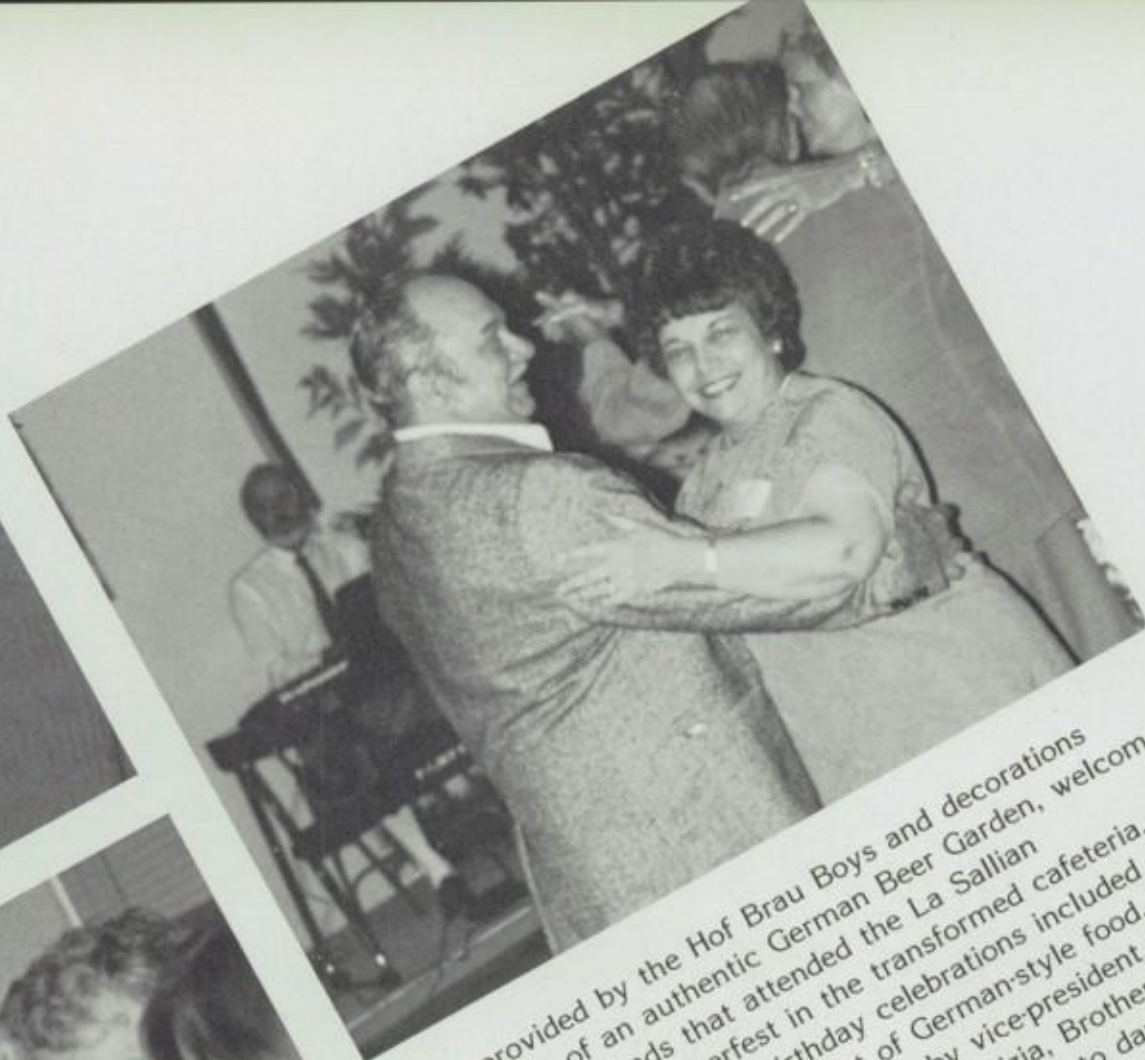

FUNDRAISING FESTIVITIES

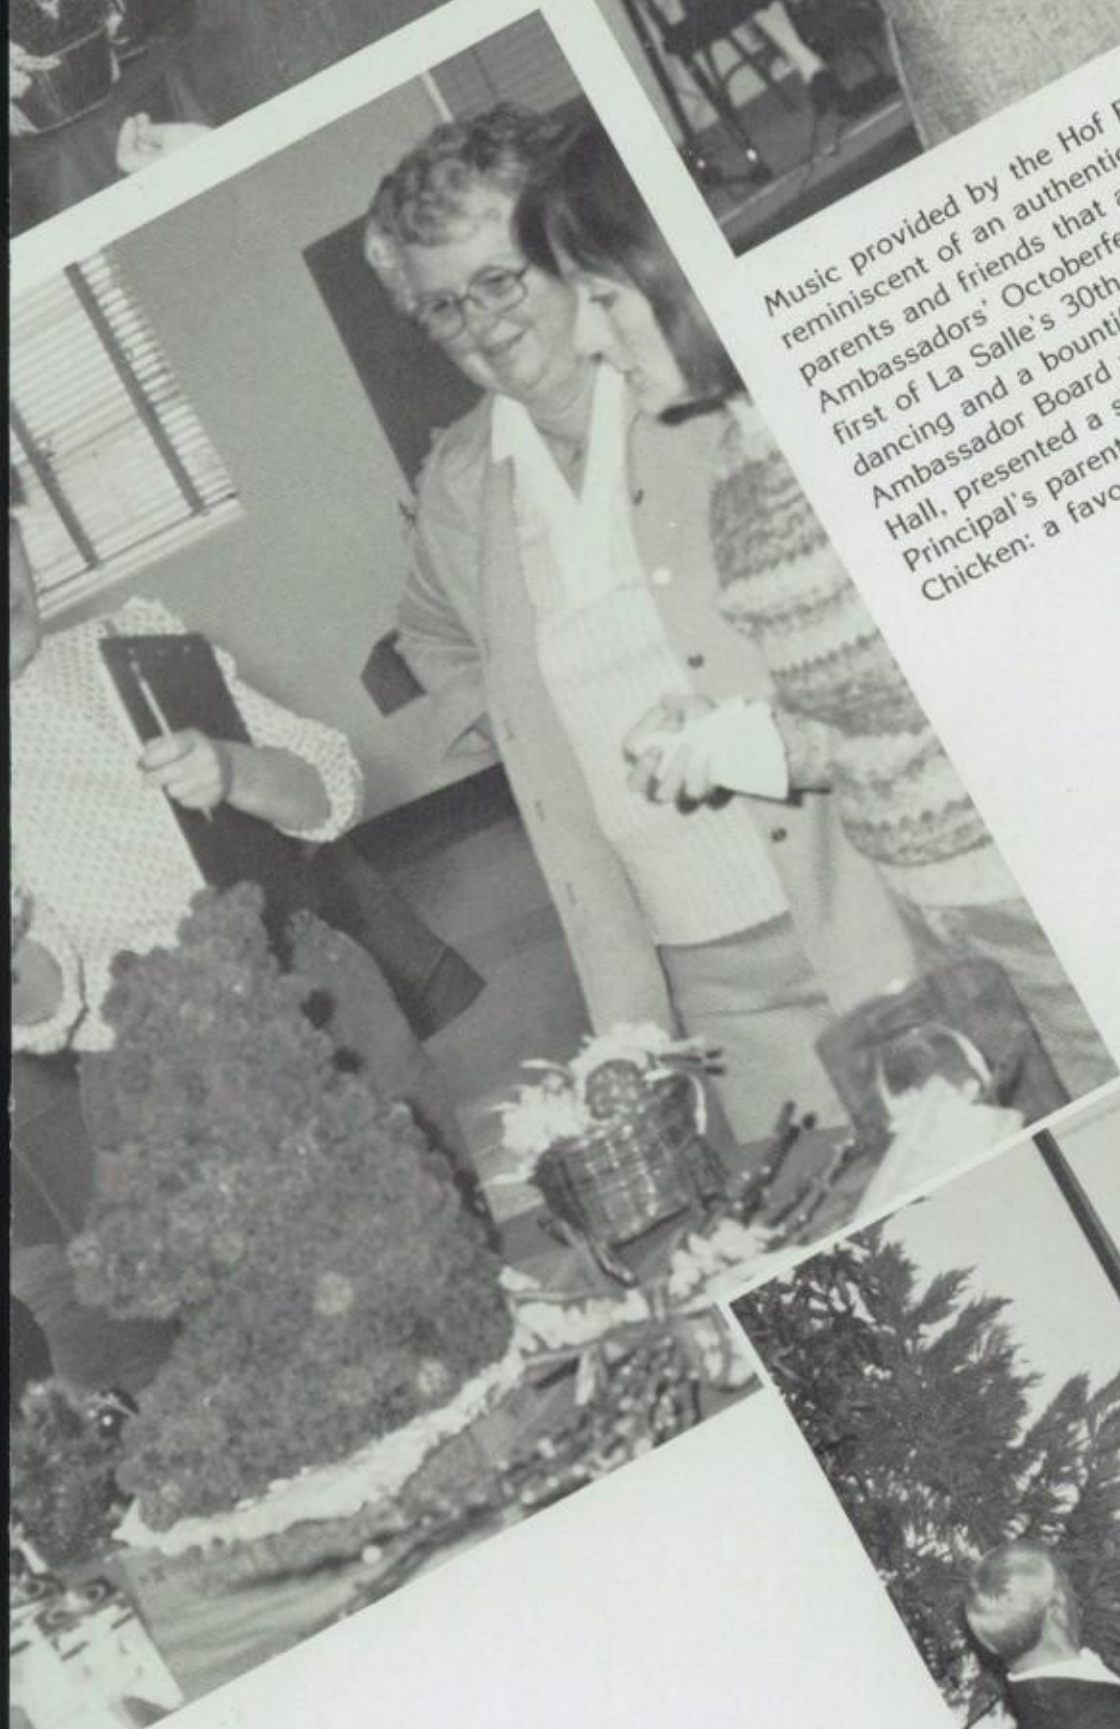

The Christmas Boutique, sponsored by the Parents Association, provides a great avenue to accomplish 2 goals: 1) to complete last-minute Christmas shopping and 2) to help raise money for tuition assistance at La Salle. Hundreds of items are donated to be sold. Mrs. Judy Ray, this year's chairperson, organized crafting parties and recruited many parents to assist in this successful event. The table which featured over 150 baked goods was popular with the shoppers.

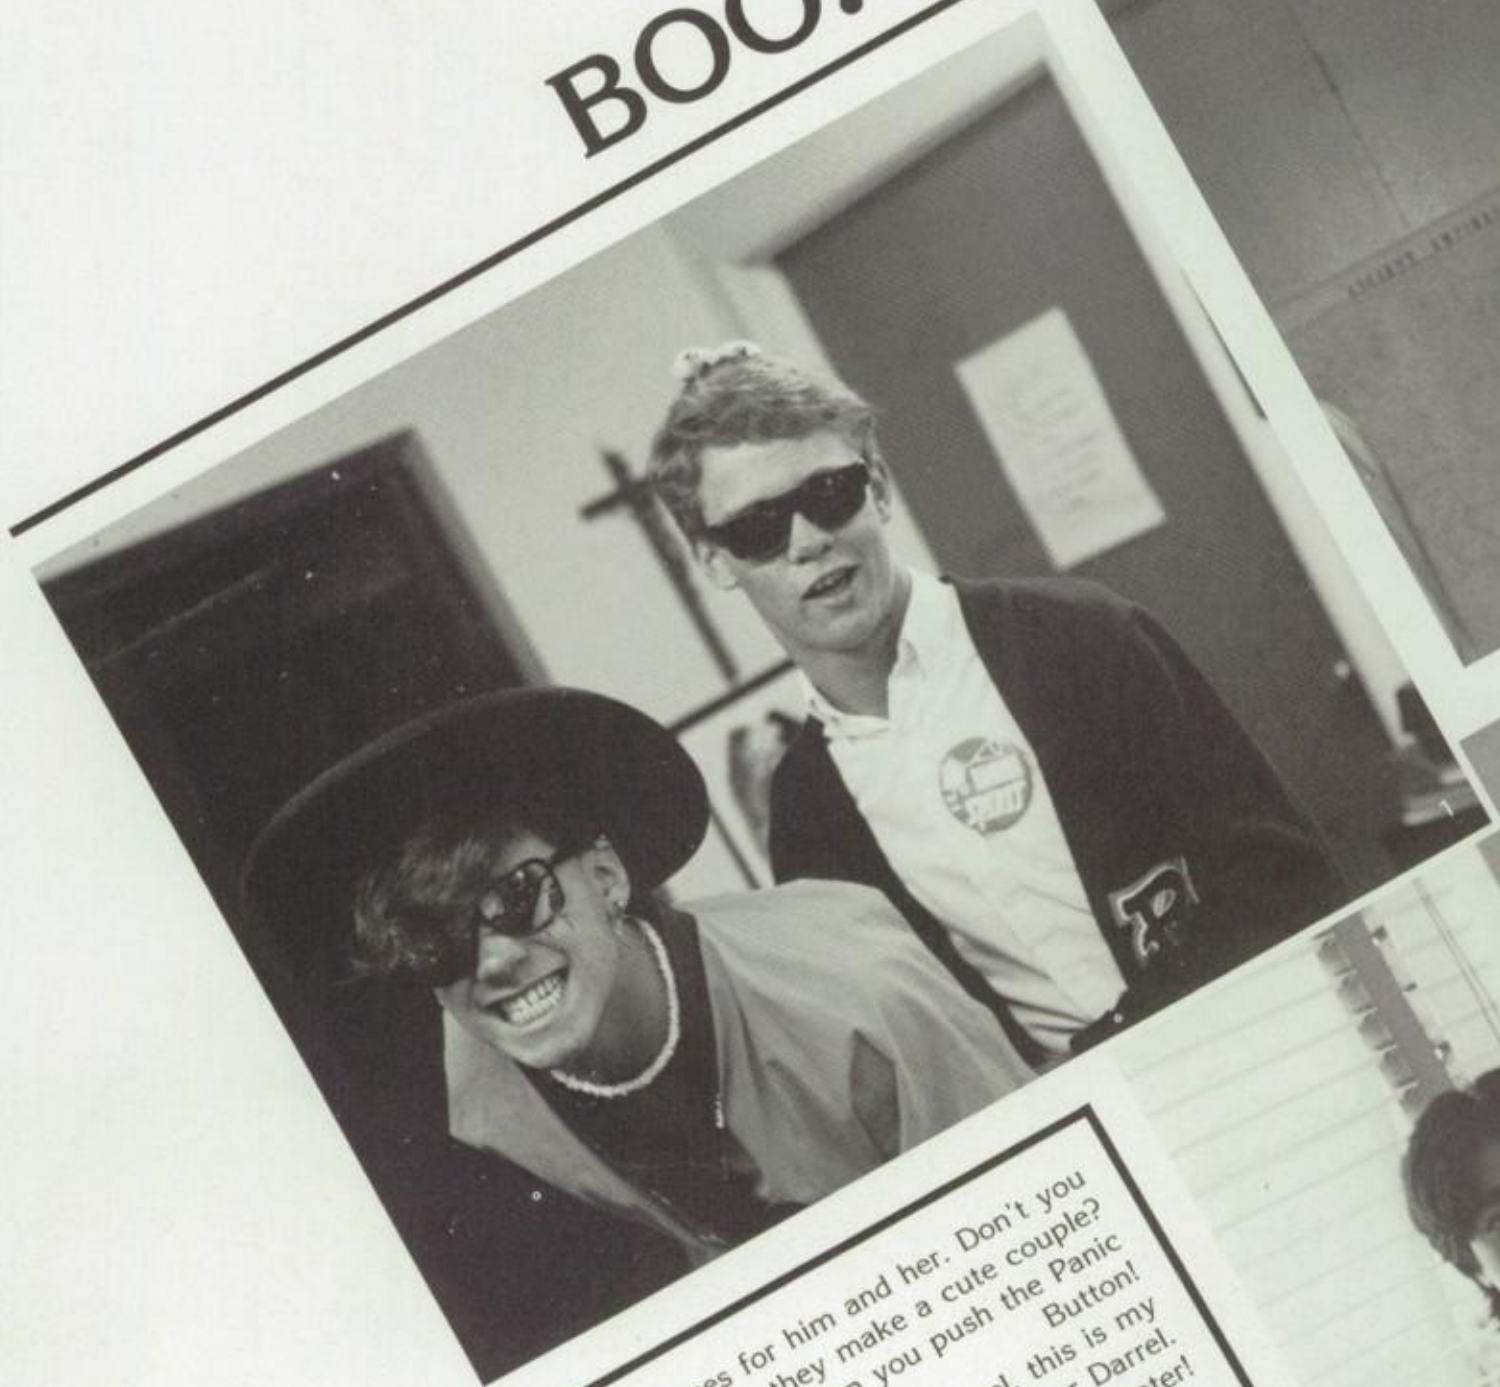

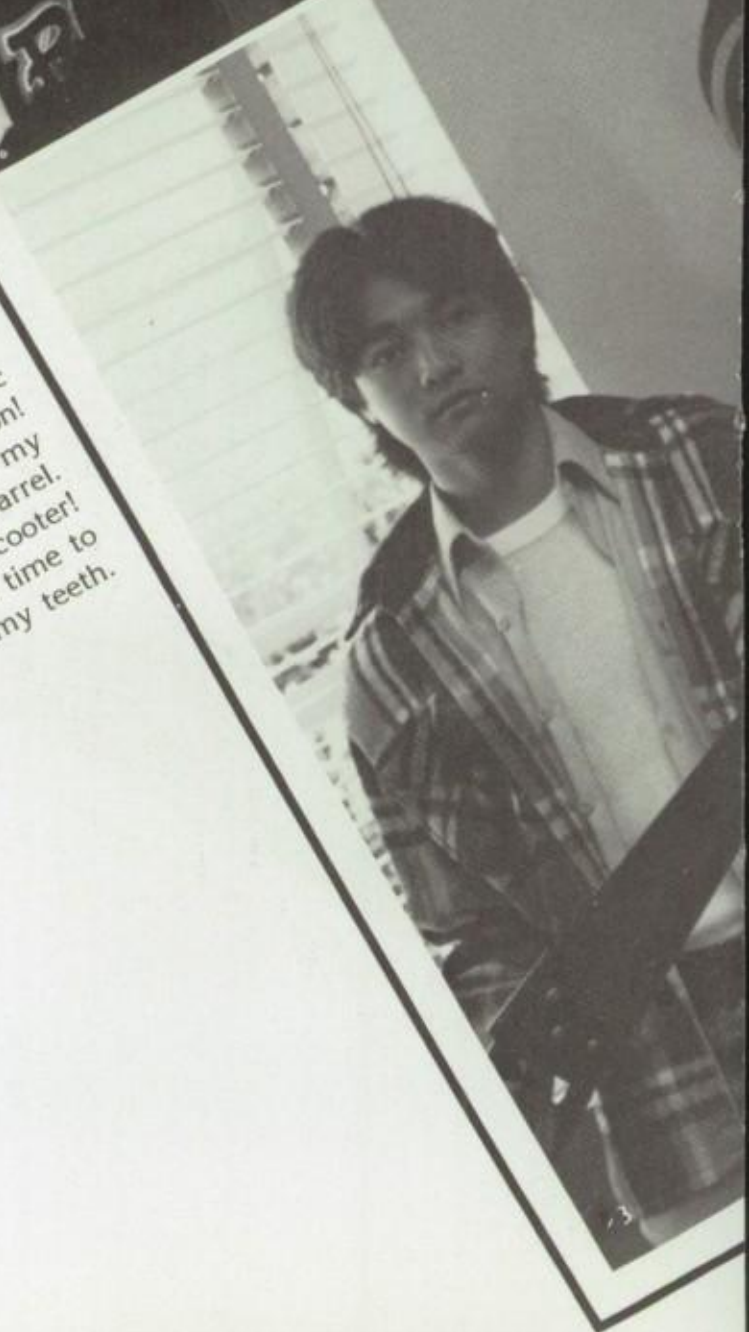

Music provided by the Hof Brau Boys and decorations reminiscent of an authentic German Beer Garden, welcomed parents and friends that attended the La Sallian Ambassadors' Octoberfest in the transformed cafeteria. The first of La Salle's 30th Birthday celebrations included dancing and a bountiful buffet of German-style food. Ambassador Board members, led by vice-president, Dick Hall, presented a skit. Mr. and Mrs. Mizia, Brother Principal's parents, taught the party goers to dance "The Chicken: a favorite of those in attendance.

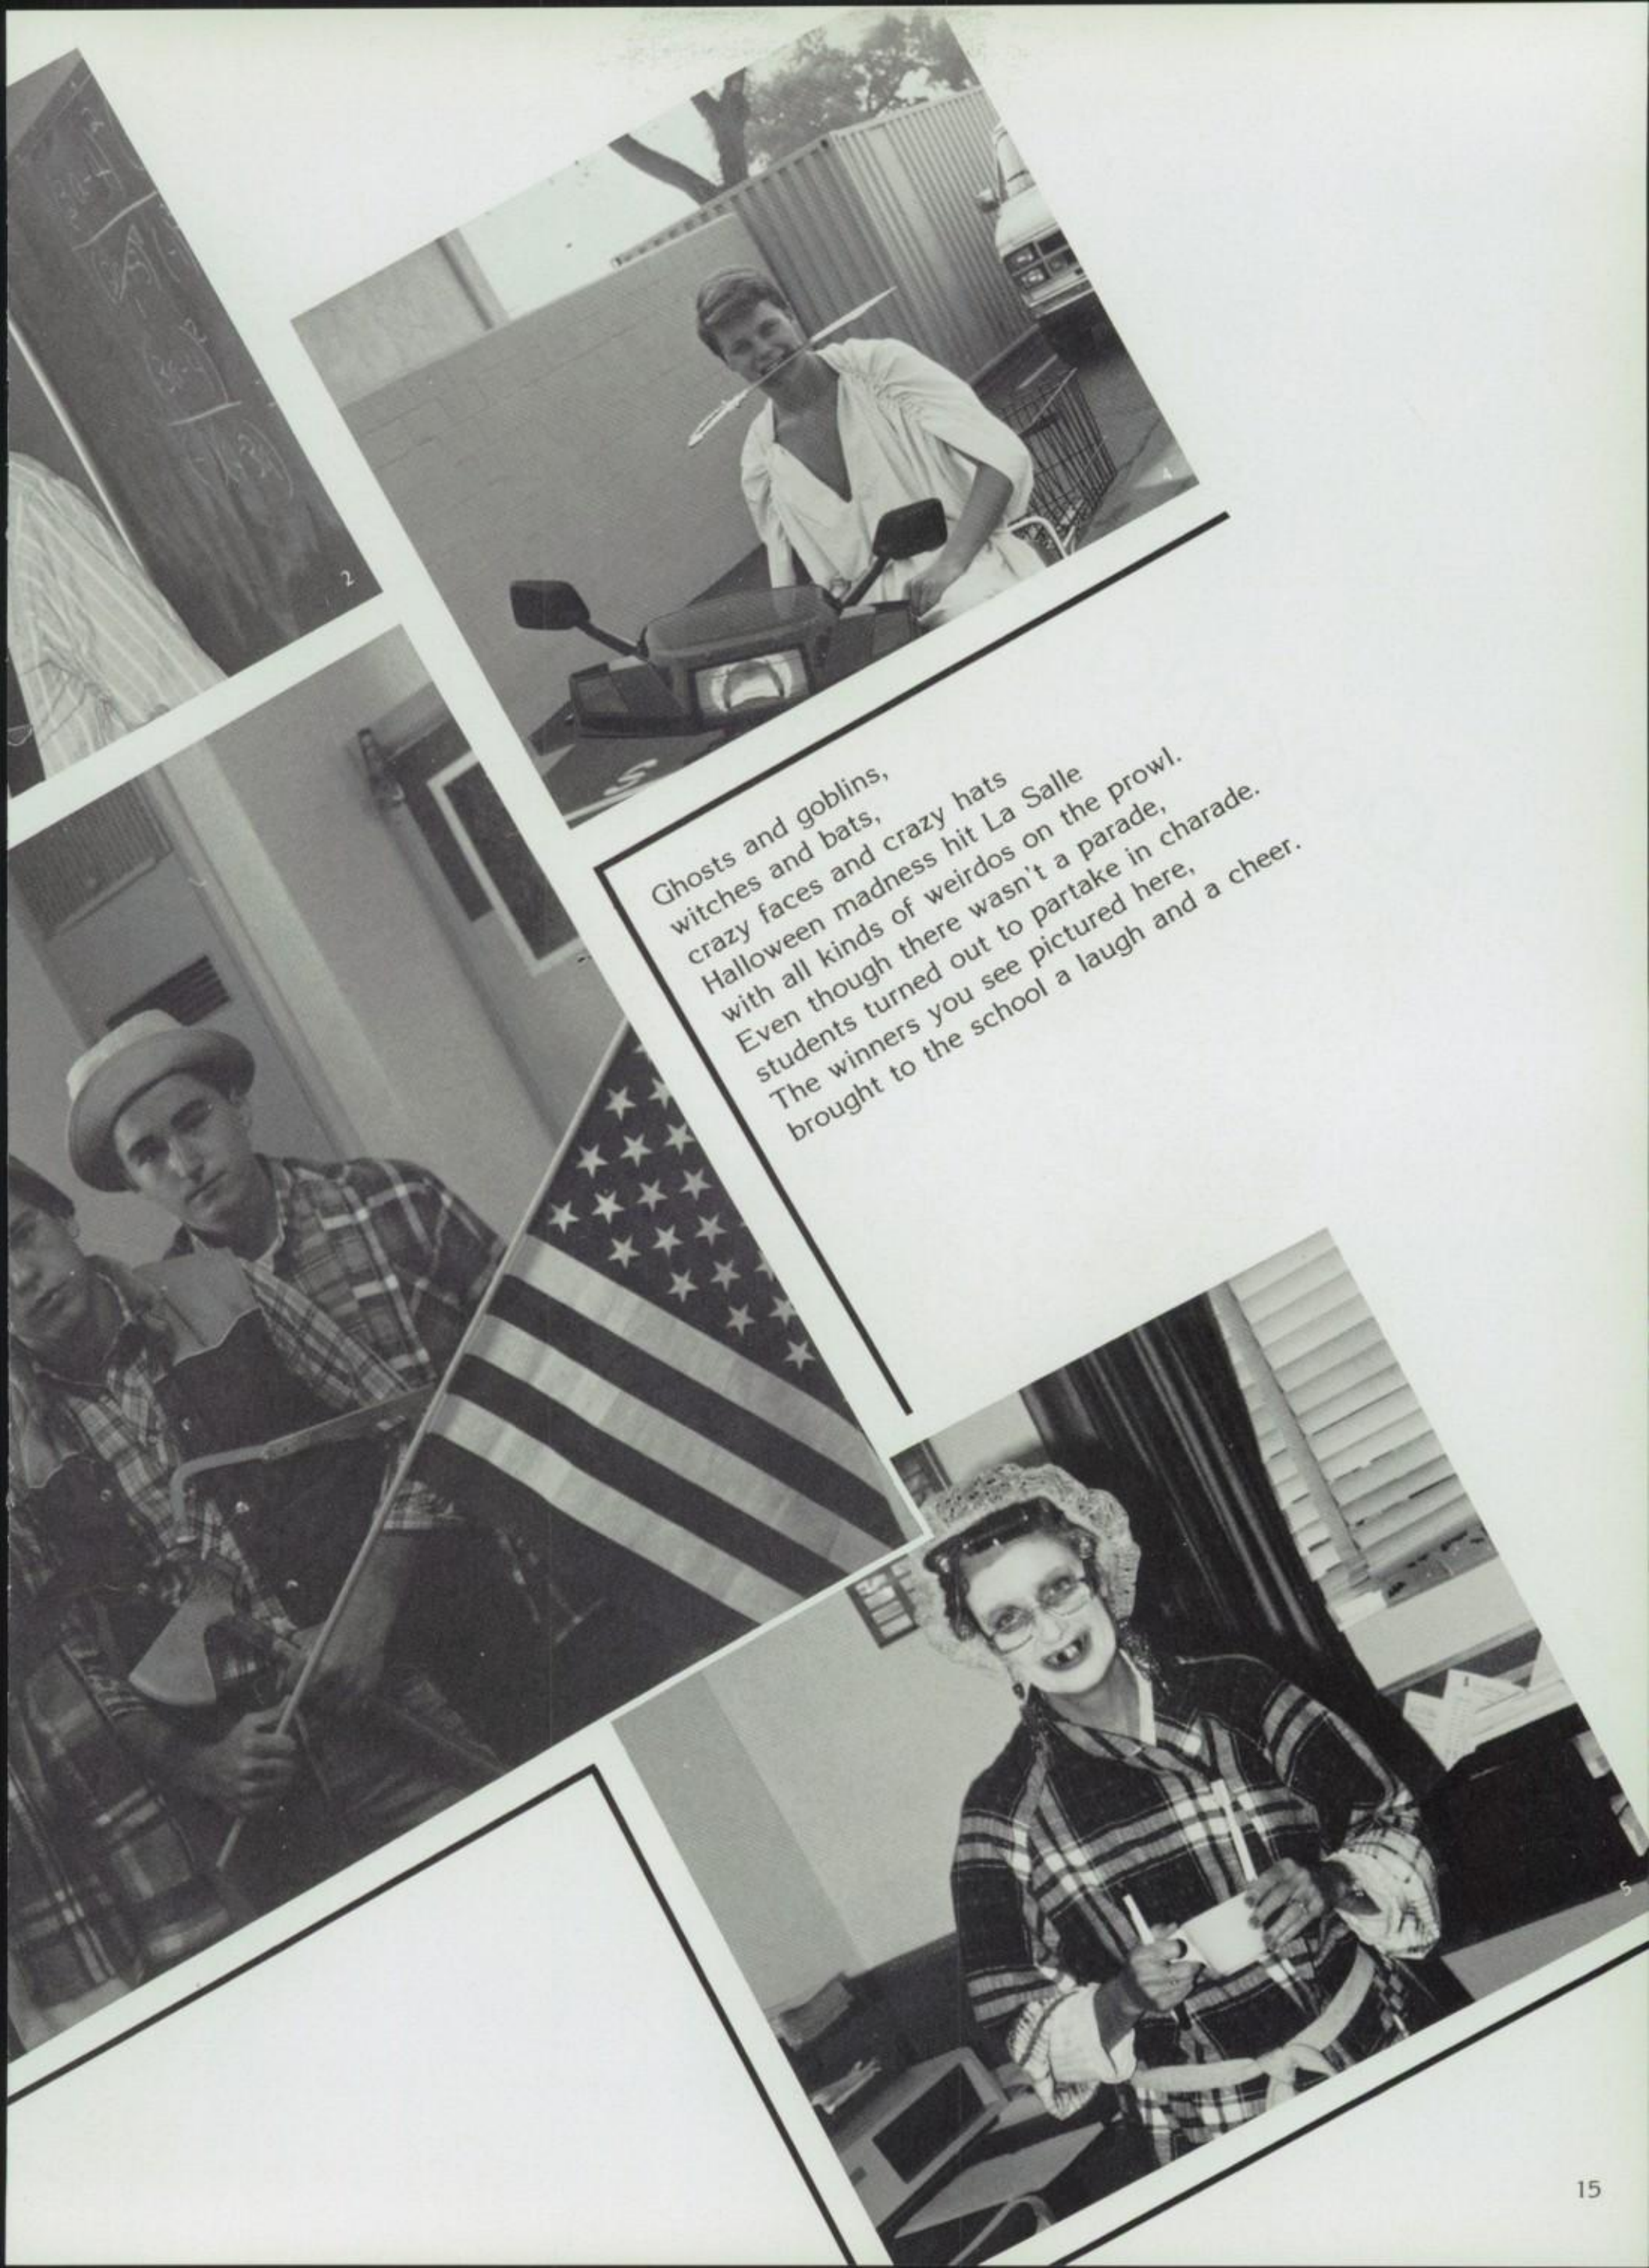

BOO!

1. Custom sunglasses for him and her. Don't you think they make a cute couple?
2. This is what happens when you push the Panic Button!
3. Hi, I'm Larry; this is my brother Darrel, this is my other brother Darrel.
4. Ancient tuber on famous scooter!
5. Sorry, I just woke up. I didn't even have time to brush my teeth.

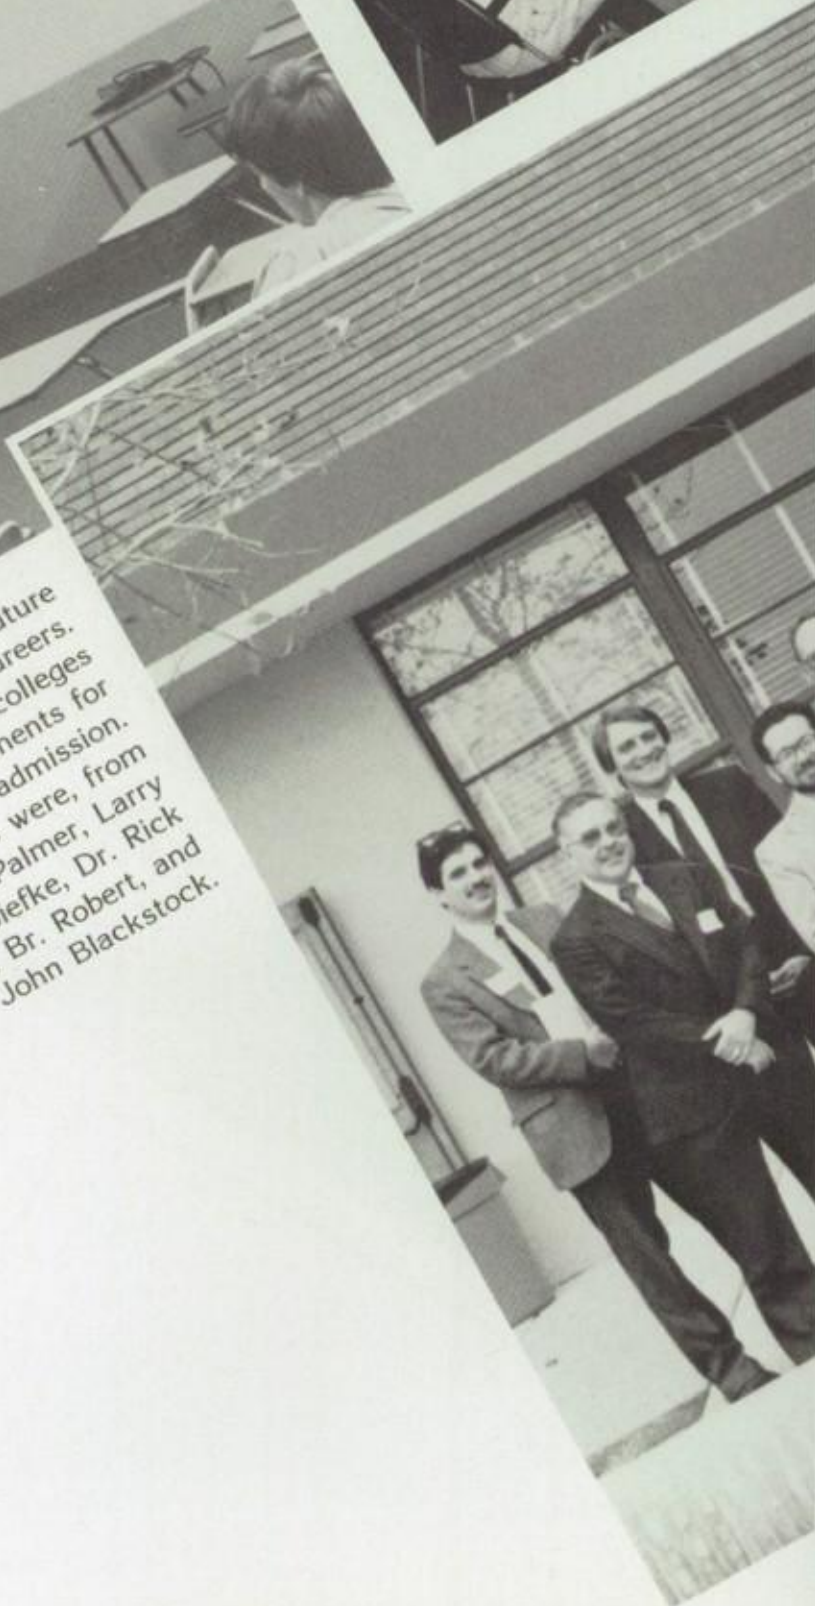

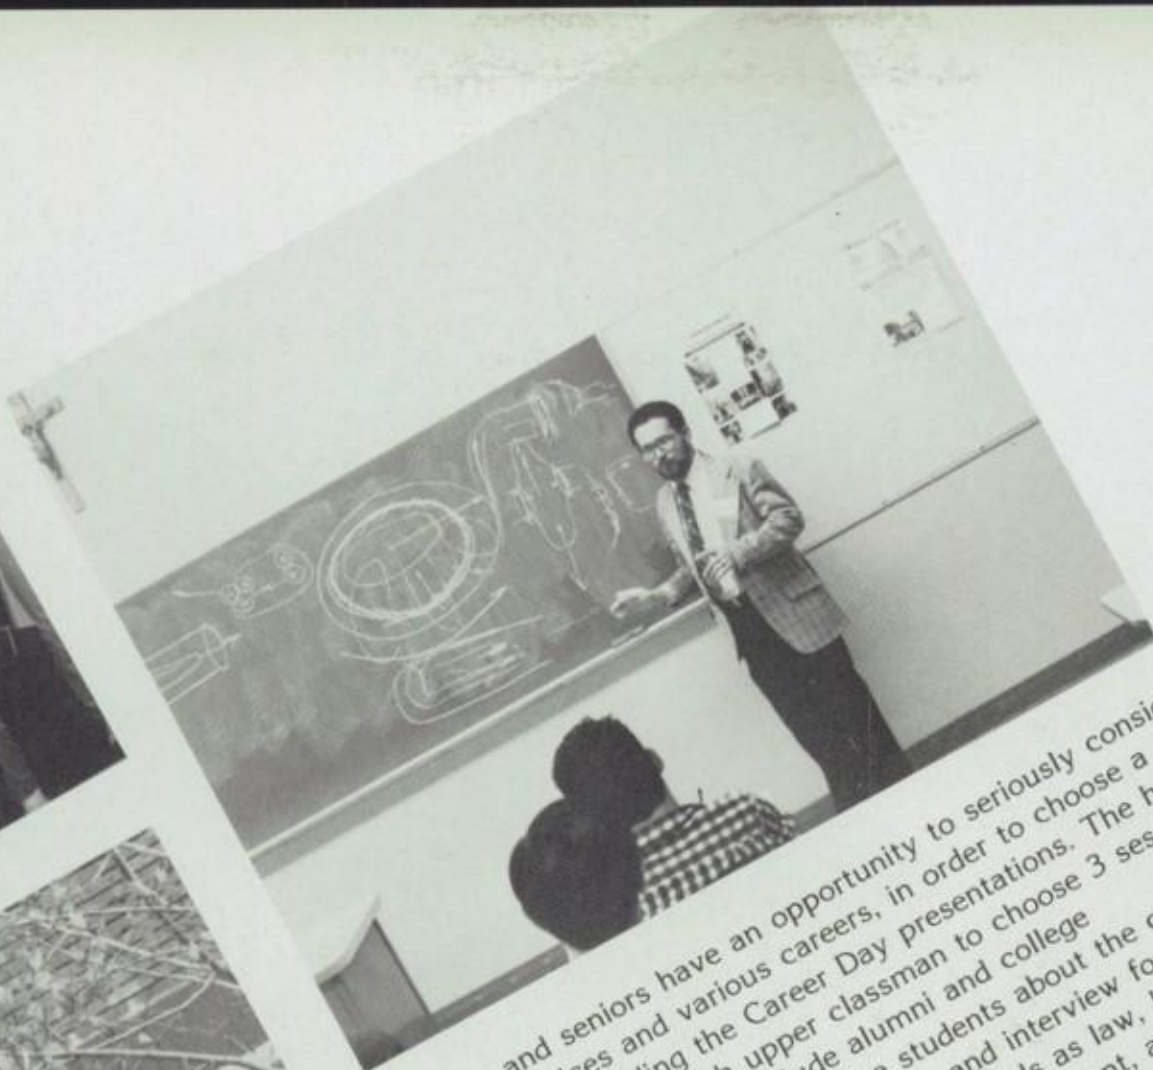

Ghosts and goblins,
witches and bats,
crazy faces and crazy hats
Halloween madness hit La Salle with all kinds of weirdos on the prowl.
Even though there wasn't a parade,
students turned out to partake in charade.
The winners you see pictured here, brought to the school a laugh and a cheer.

LOOKING FORWARD

- 1) Dr. Greg Palmer informs students on their future careers.
- 2) Santa Clara and UCLA were among the colleges represented. Students learned the requirements for admission.
- 3) Among the many Career Day speakers were, from left to right: Dave Curran, Dr. Greg Palmer, Larry Schult, Steve Salen, Steve Boggs, Bill Siefke, Dr. Rick Huntley, Walter Goody, Frank Griffith, Br. Robert, and John Blackstock.

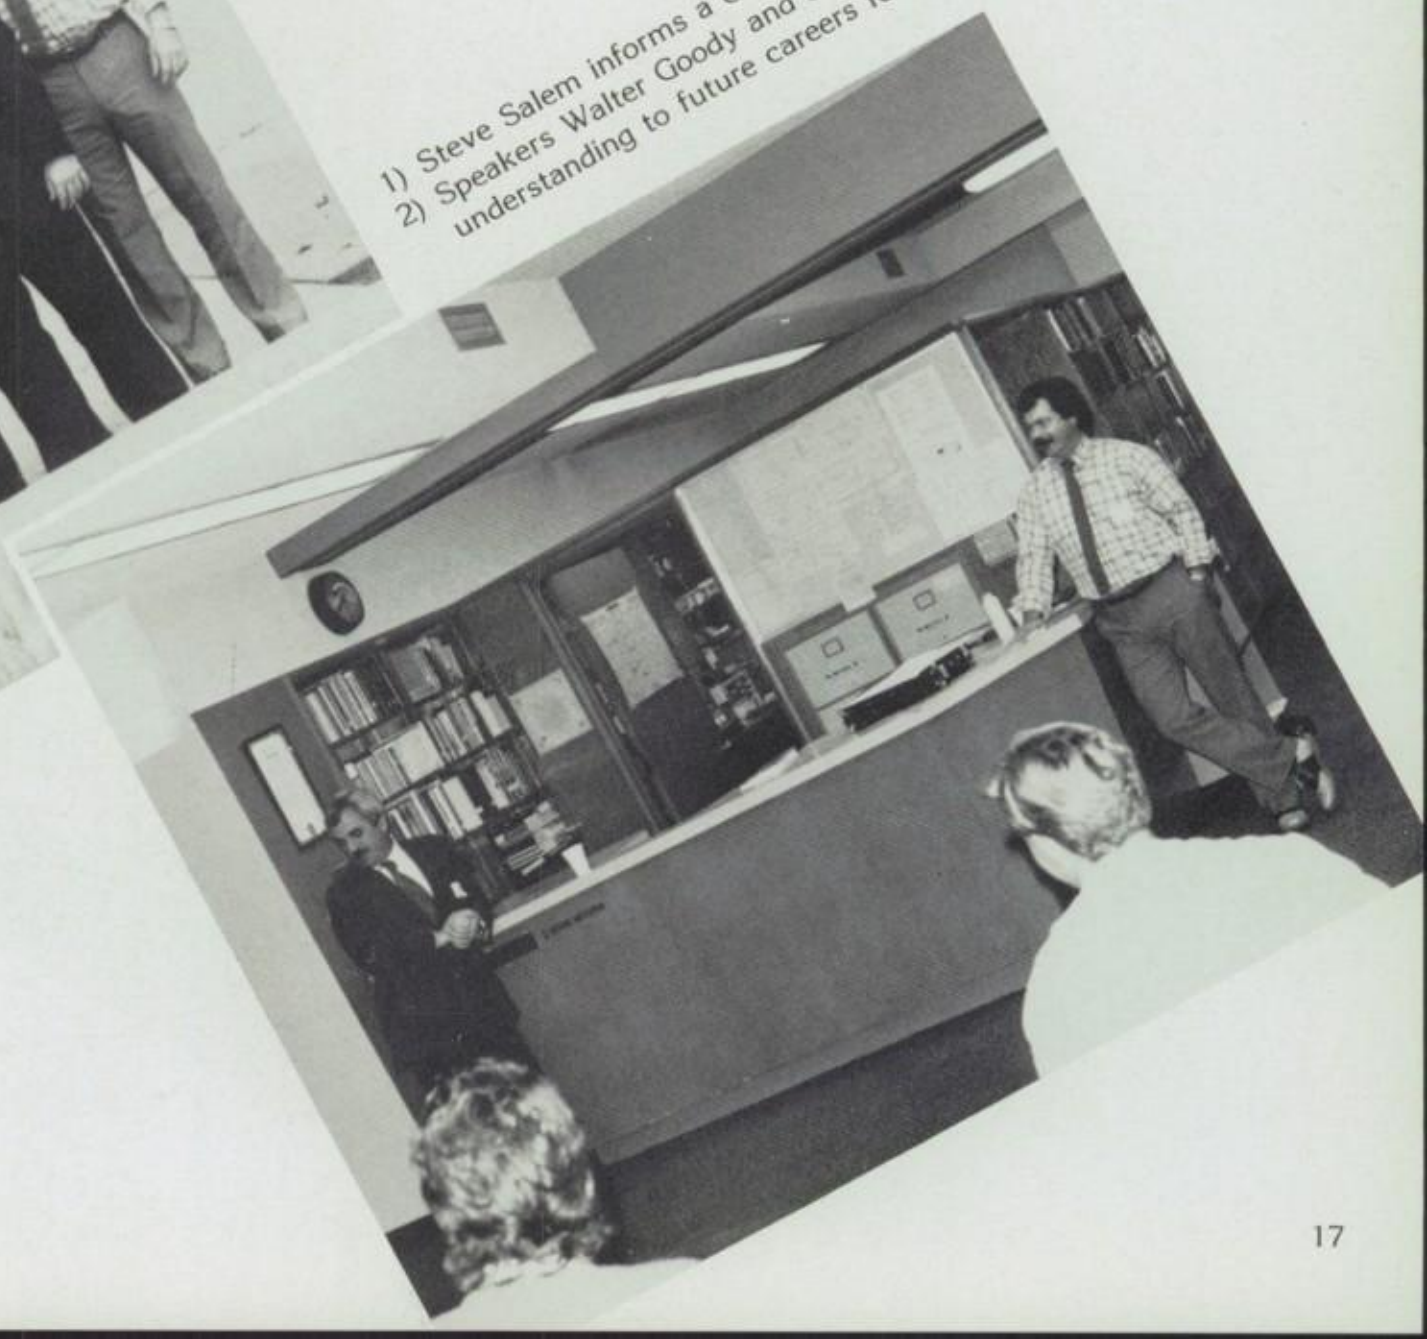

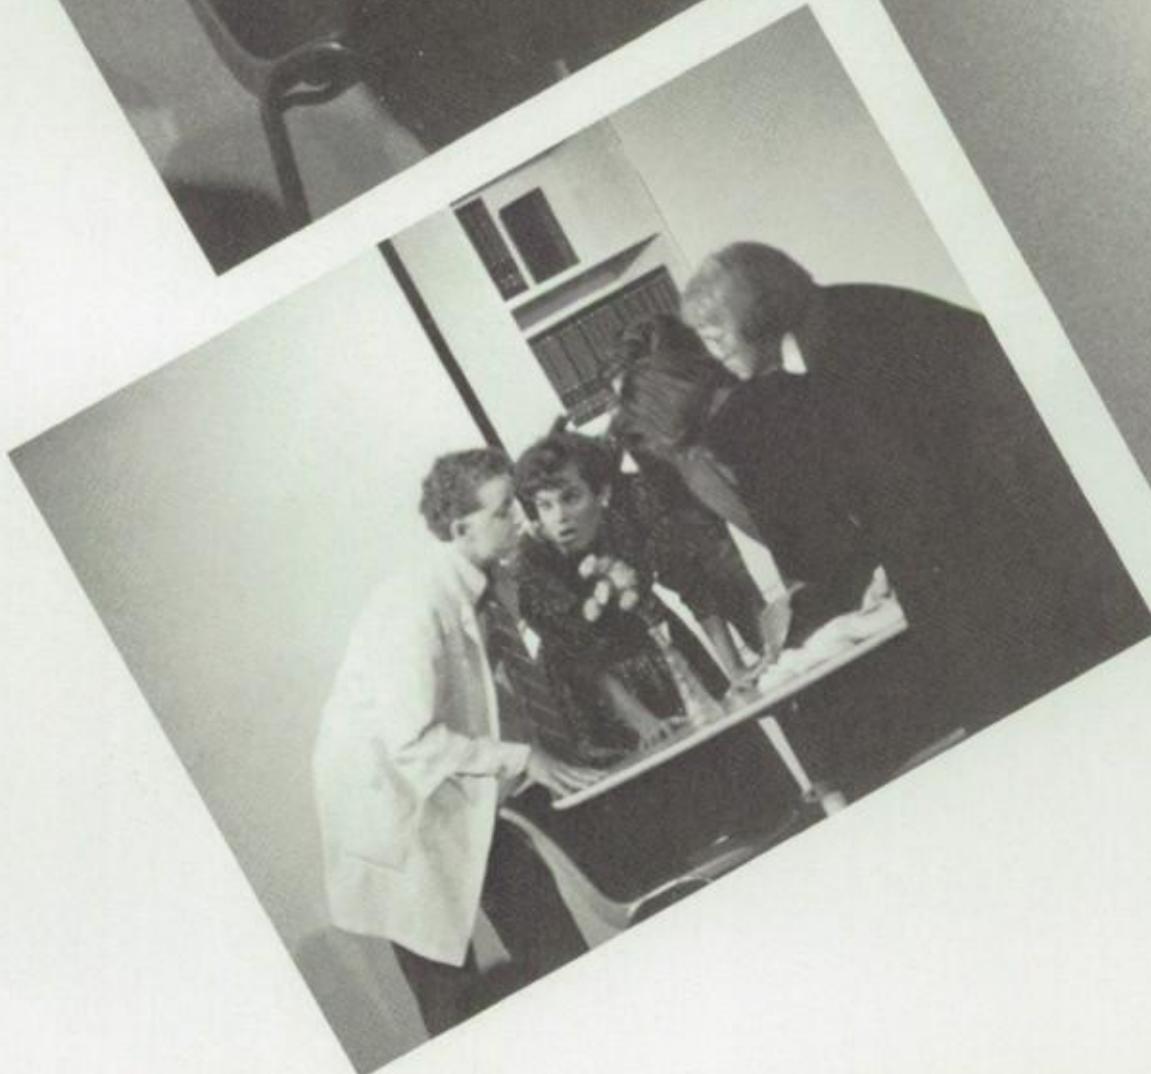

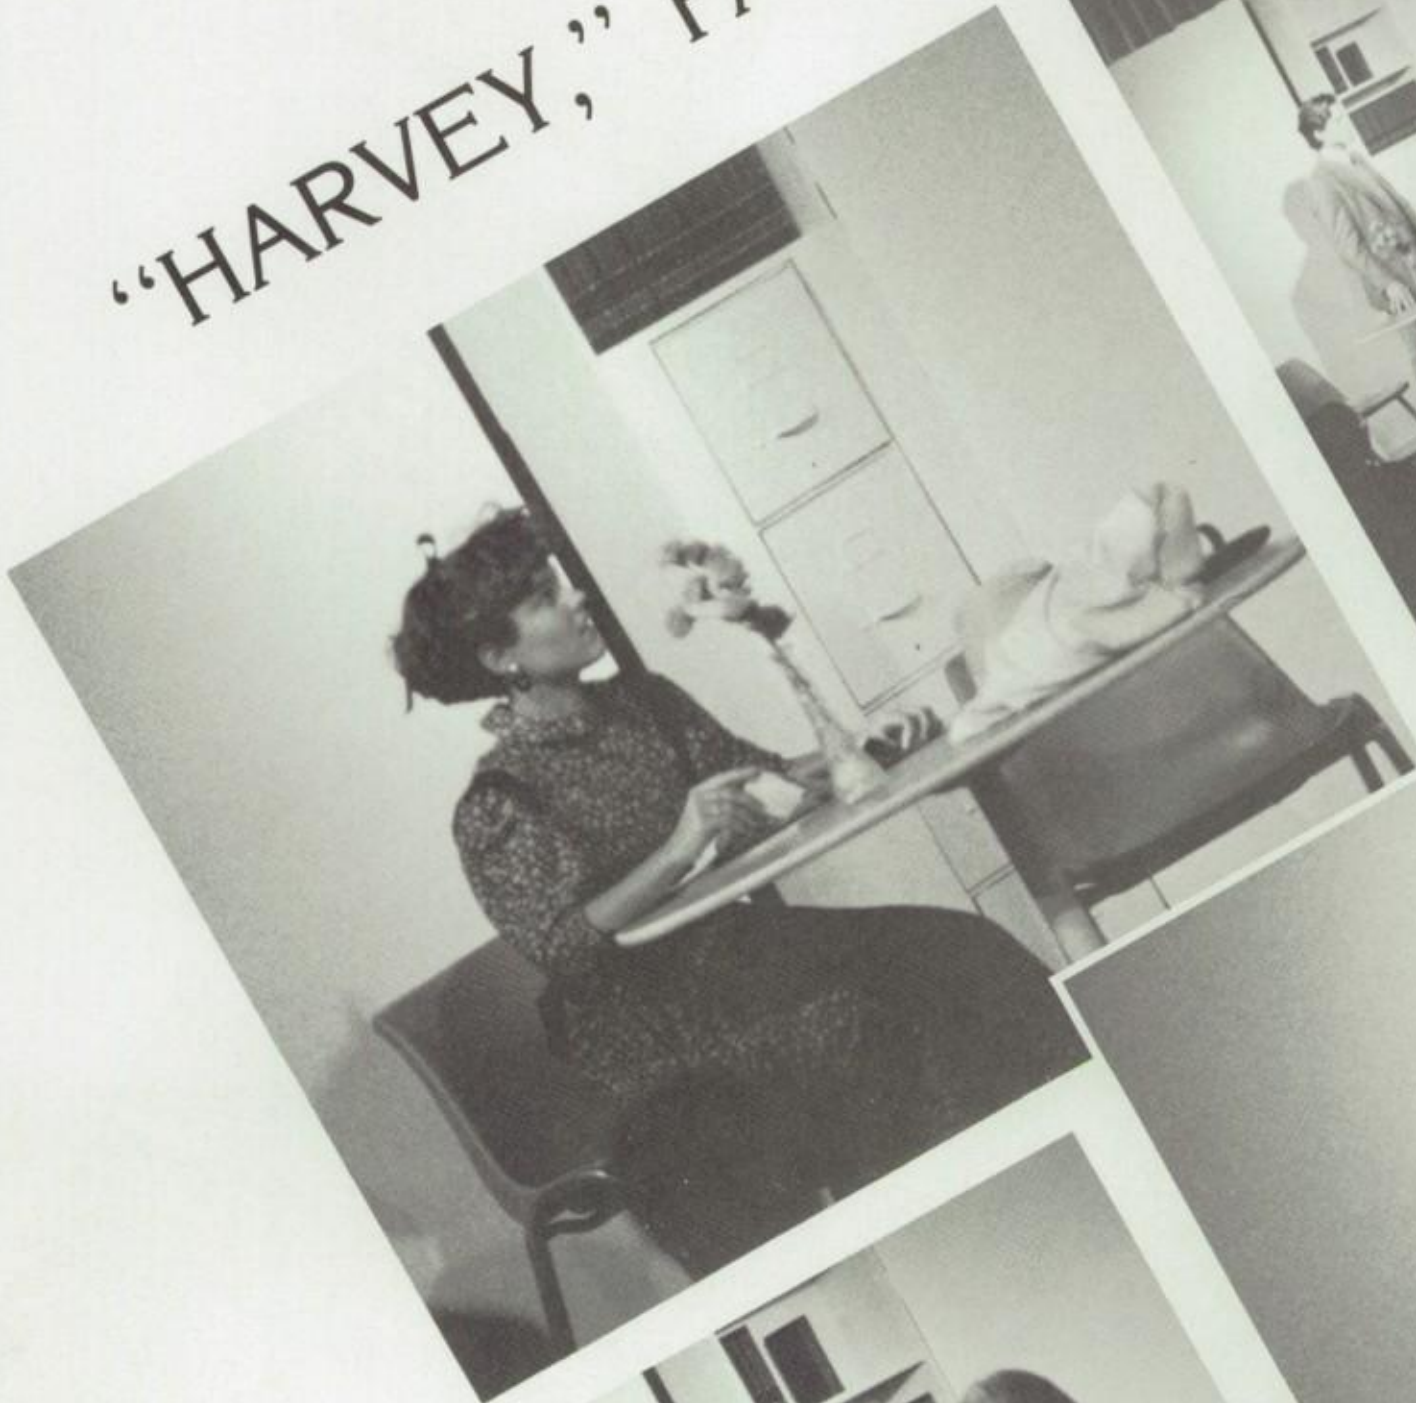

Juniors and seniors have an opportunity to seriously consider college choices and various careers, in order to choose a major, by attending the Career Day presentations. The half-day program enables each upper classman to choose 3 sessions to attend. Presentations include alumni and college representatives who talk to the students about the college application process, how to apply and interview for a job, and what the requirements are in such fields as law, law enforcement, medicine, business management, and banking.

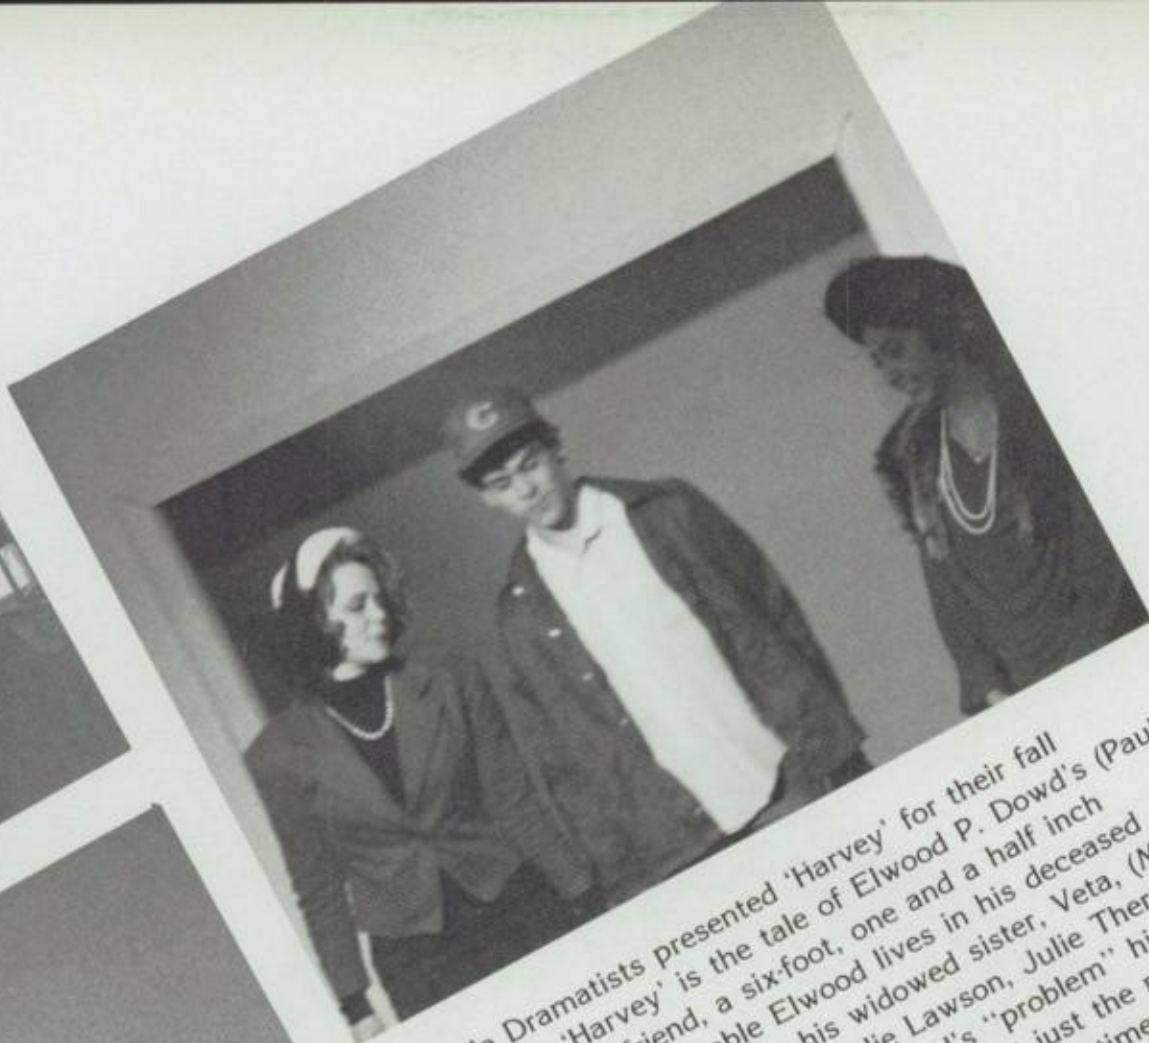

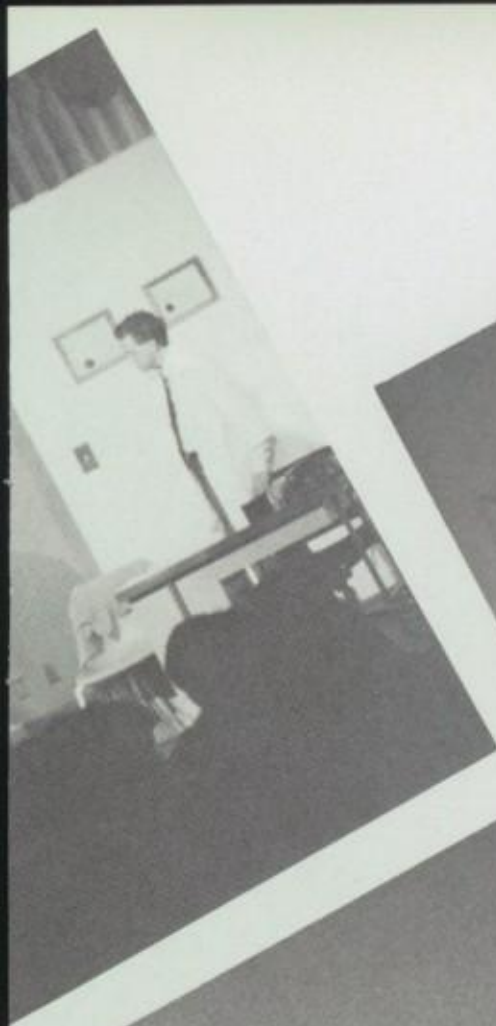

- 1) Steve Salem informs a class of Juniors and Seniors.
- 2) Speakers Walter Goody and John Blackstock give more understanding to future careers for students.

"HARVEY," FALL PLAY

La Salle Dramatists presented 'Harvey' for their fall production. 'Harvey' is the tale of Elwood P. Dowd's (Paul Saunders) best friend, a six-foot, one and a half inch invisible rabbit. Loveable Elwood lives in his deceased mother's large home with his widowed sister, Veta, (Mary Tomlin) and niece, Myrtle, (Julie Lawson, Julie Therman), who try to keep dear Uncle Elwood's "problem" hidden from friends as Myrtle is trying to meet just the right young man. Mrs. Beverly Bishop directed this well-timed production. — The Dowd drawing room and the sanitarium, Chumley's Rest. Cast members included Sam de Castillo, Peter Chittum, Brian Klotz, Robbie Lindauer, Sara Kelsey, Melissa Magdaleno, Melissa Hall, Sonia Marquez, Heidi Altshular, Dan Laserna, and Robbie Lindauer.

SHARING A FAMILY MEAL

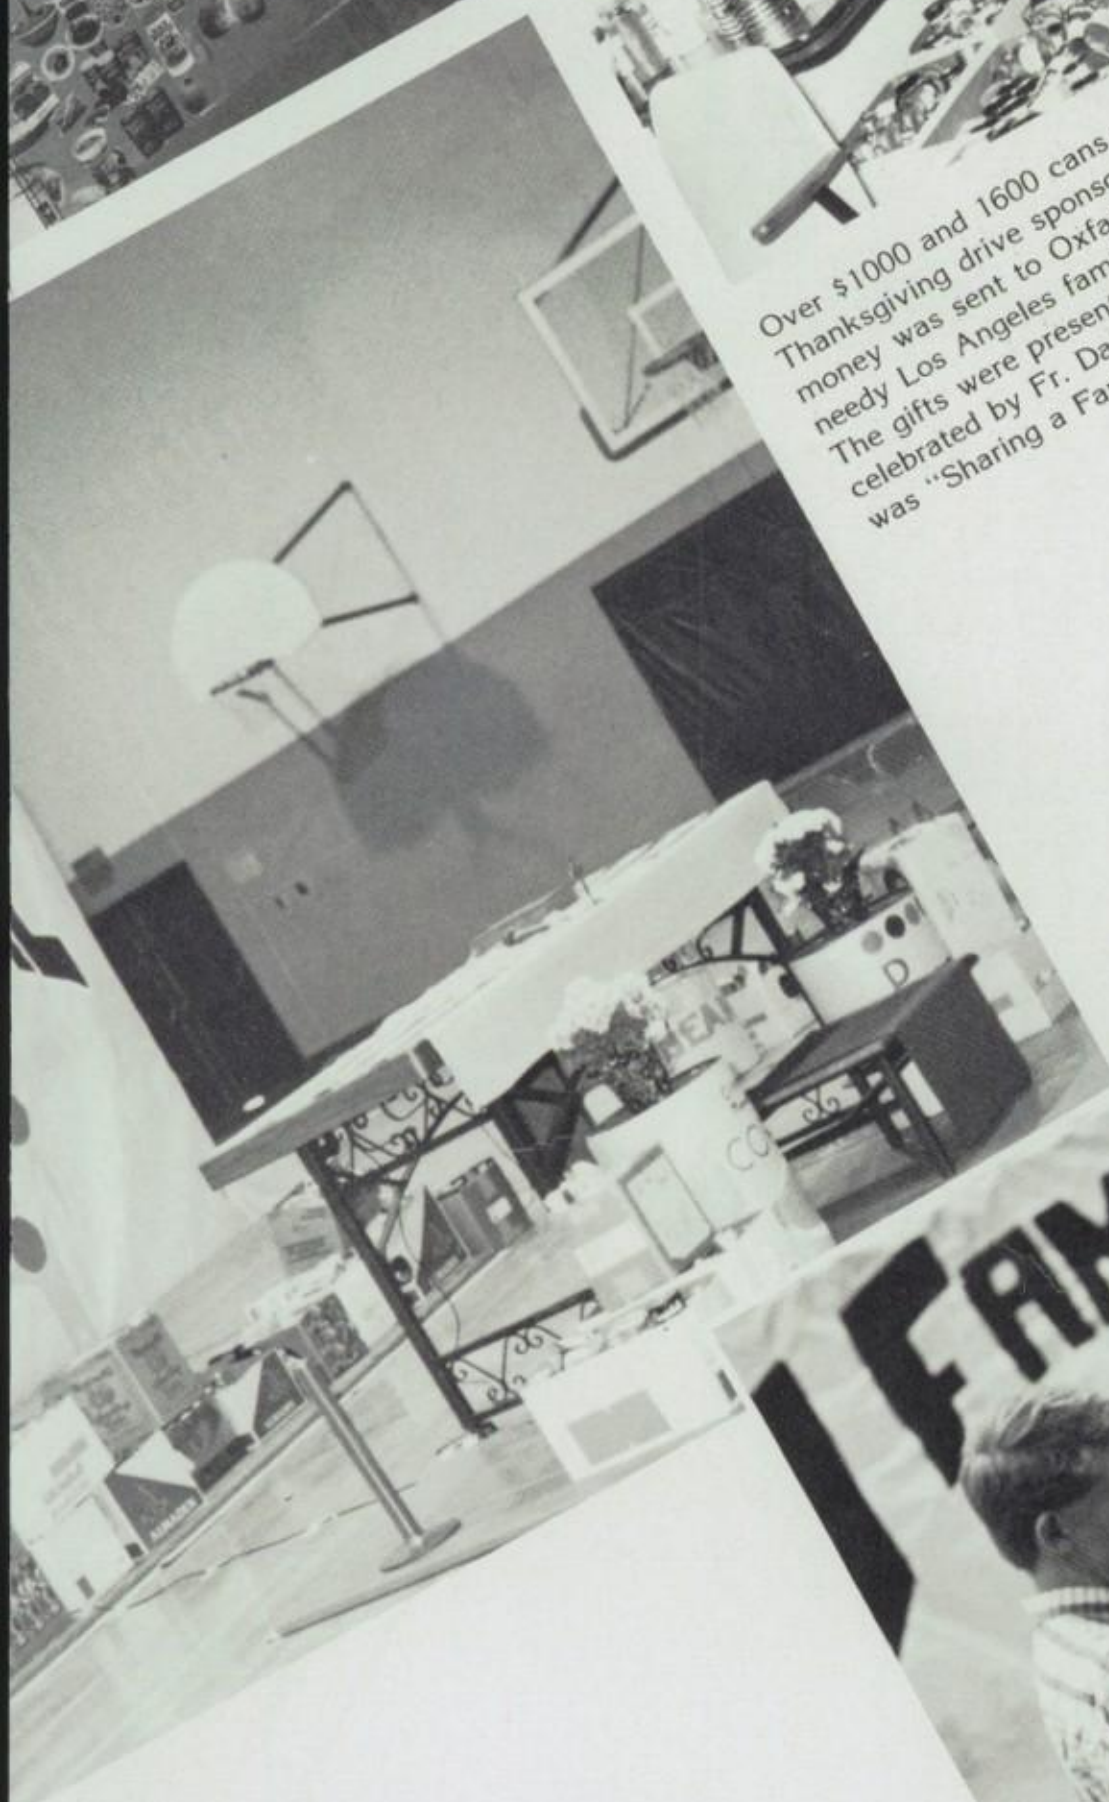

1) Musicians, an integral part of all La Sallian masses, prepare to lead the student body in the opening hymn. 2) Junior Arthur Przebinda prepared the Library display that kept track of the contributions of cans and money donated by B period classes. 3) The theme of the Thanksgiving mass "Sharing a Family Meal" symbolized the sharing students did in bringing food to help those less fortunate. 4) Werner, brother Ed Garciano and Andrew Argonza work to pack up all the food for distribution. 5) Ron Evans, Werner Garciano and Arthur Przebinda participated in the planning of the service.

Over $1000 and 1600 cans were collected in the Thanksgiving drive sponsored by the Campus Ministry. The money was sent to Oxfam and the food was distributed to needy Los Angeles families by Campus Ministry helpers. The gifts were presented at a special Thanksgiving mass celebrated by Fr. Dan McSweeney. The theme of the mass was "Sharing a Family Meal".

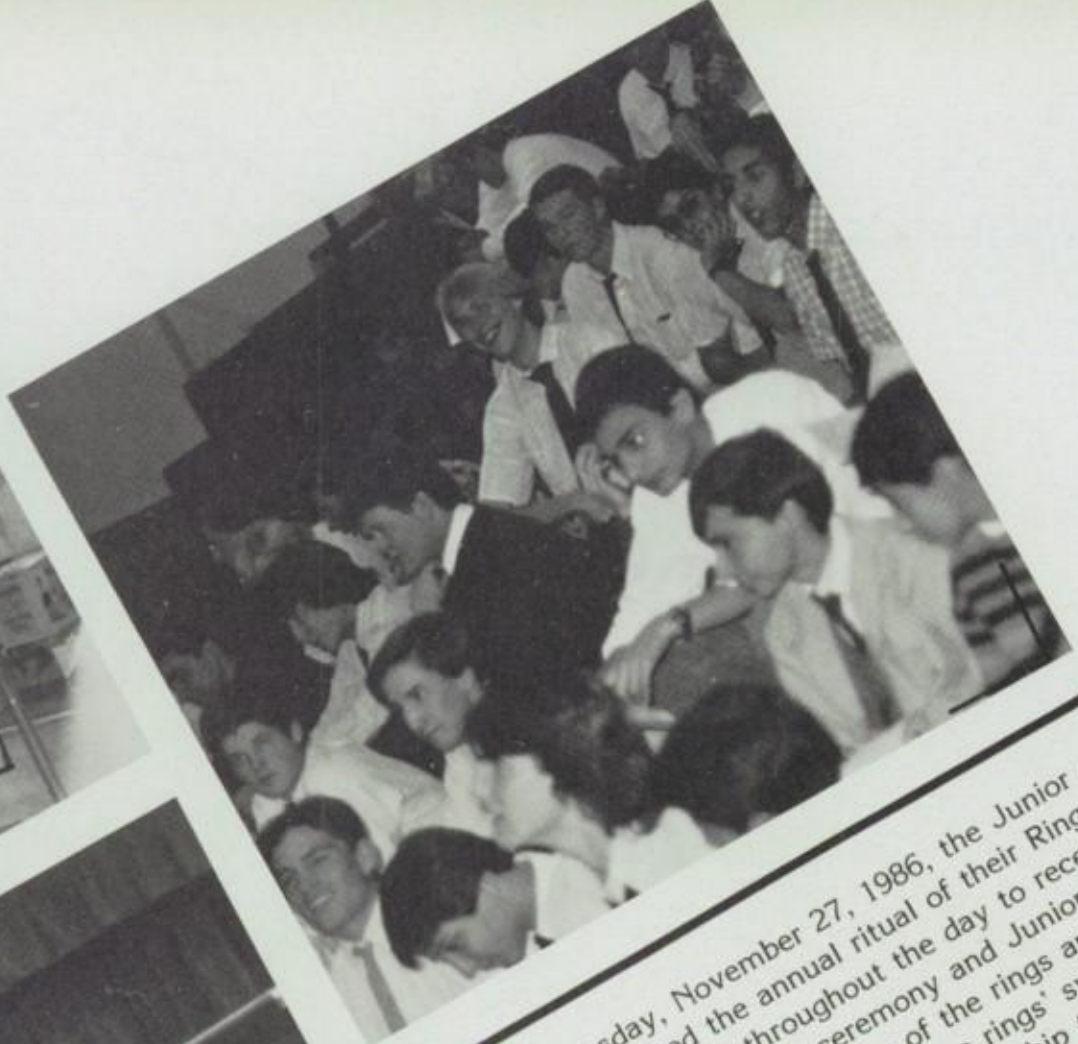

RINGS OF UNITY

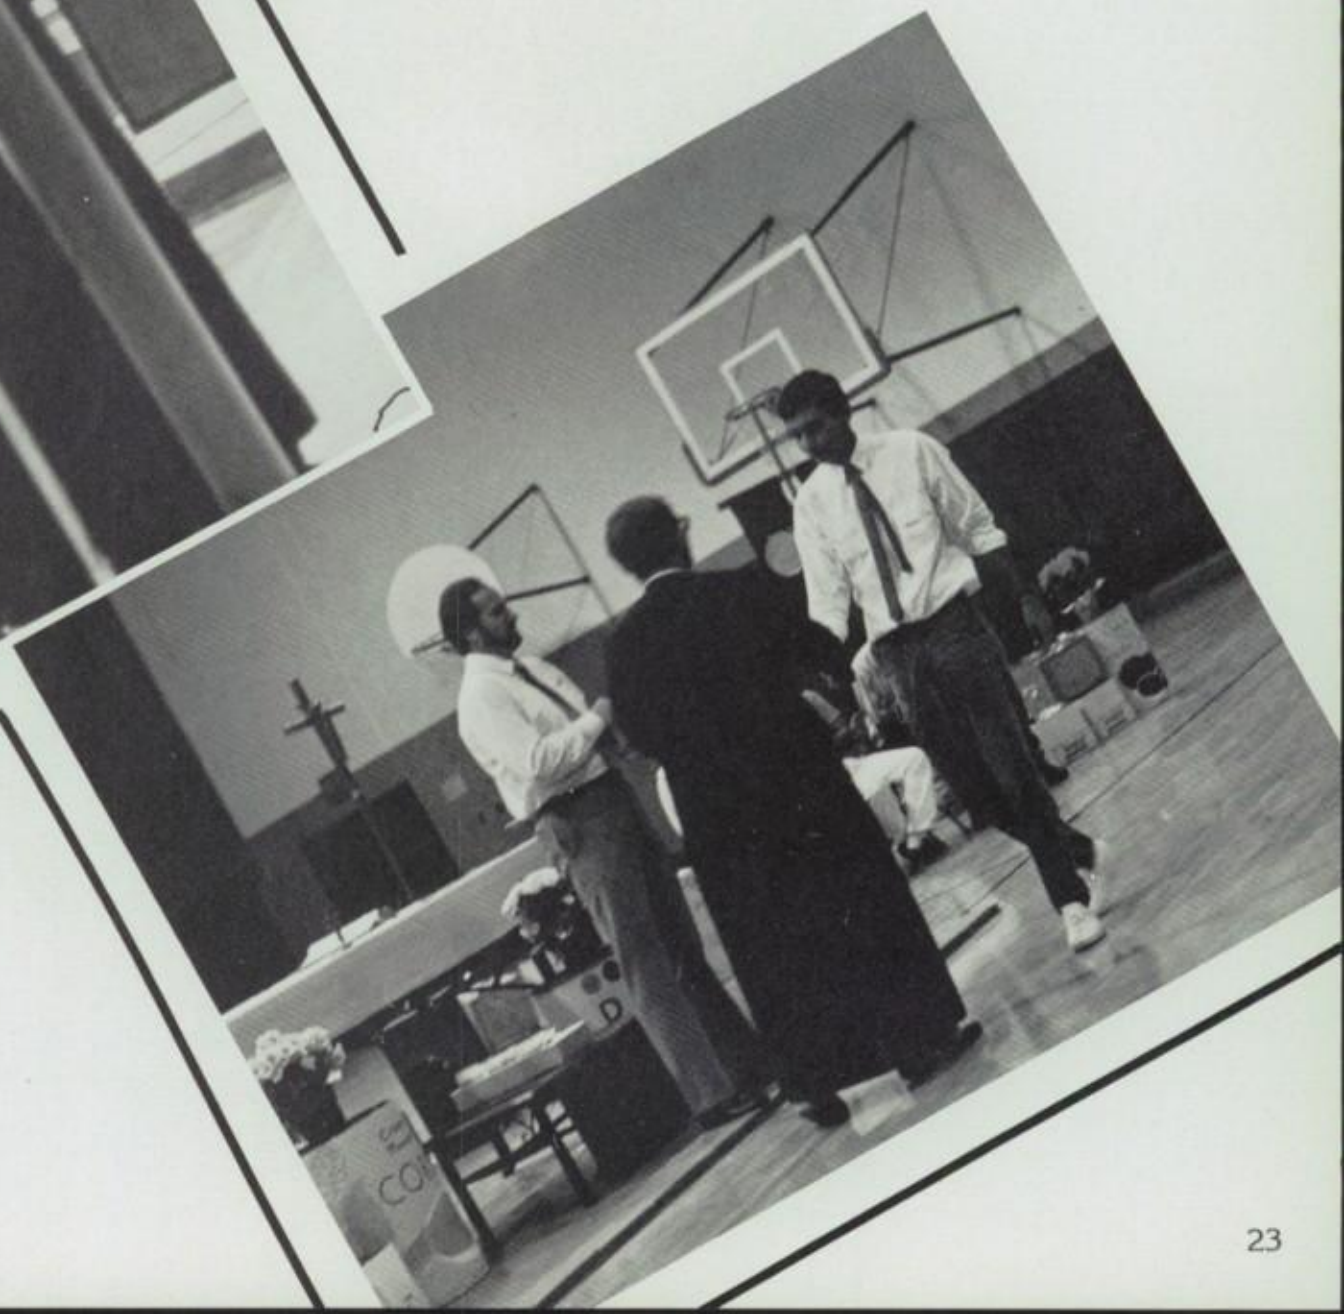

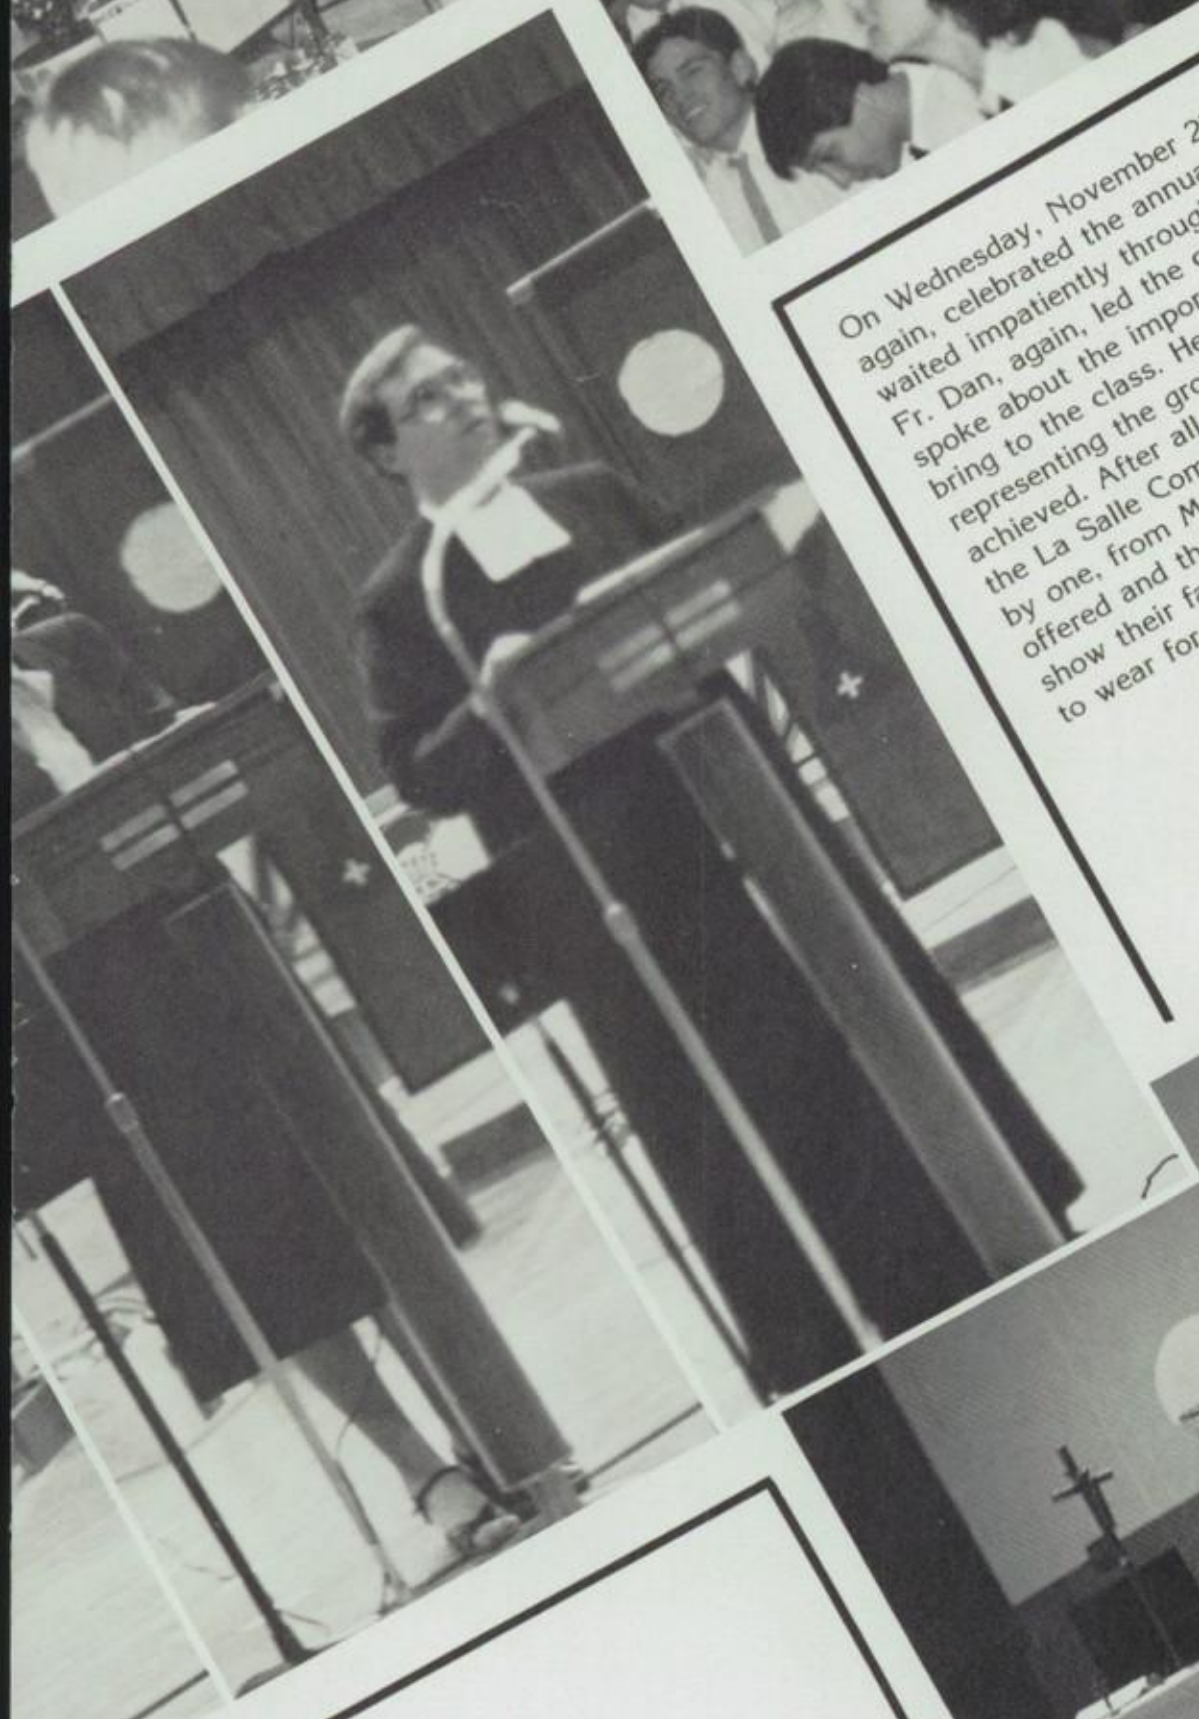

Juniors admire and share their new acquisitions, while others await their turn to receive their rings. Ed Malicdem and Brother Robert explained the significance and symbolism of the La Salle ring. Mrs. Schumacher, class moderator, read the list of students who received rings. Brother Robert and Mr. Bonacci assist in handing out the rings which Father Dan has blessed.

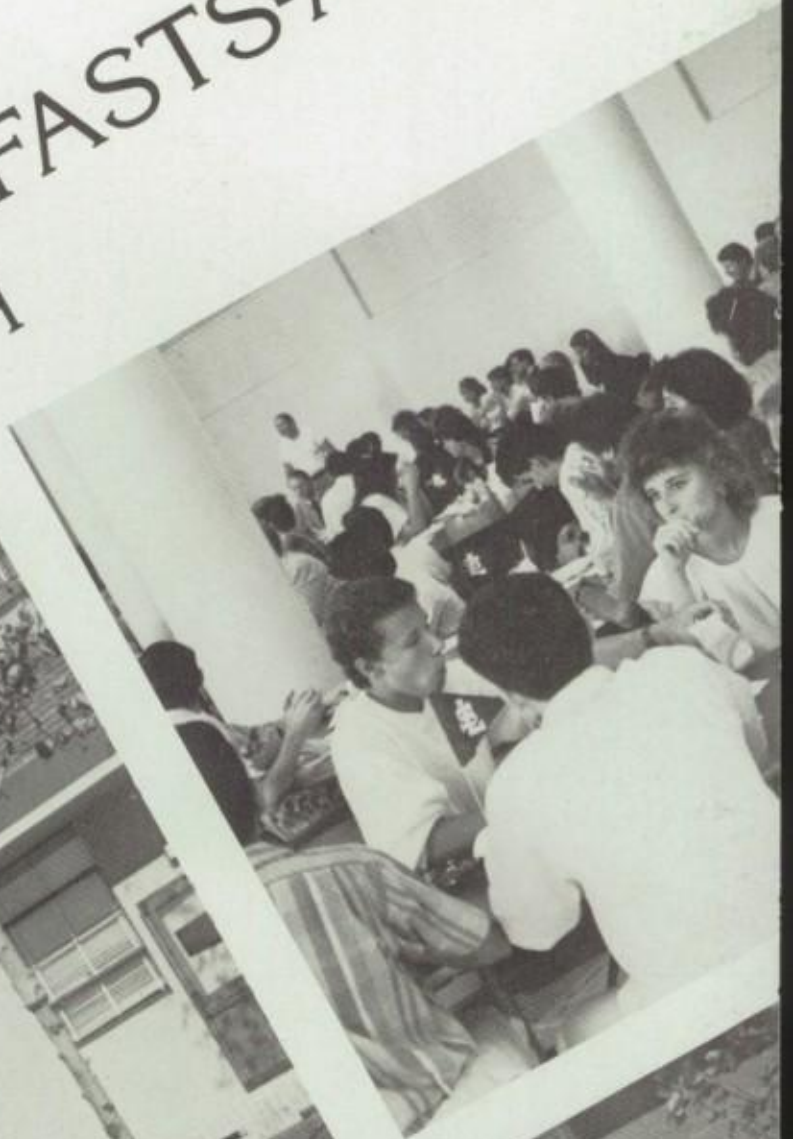

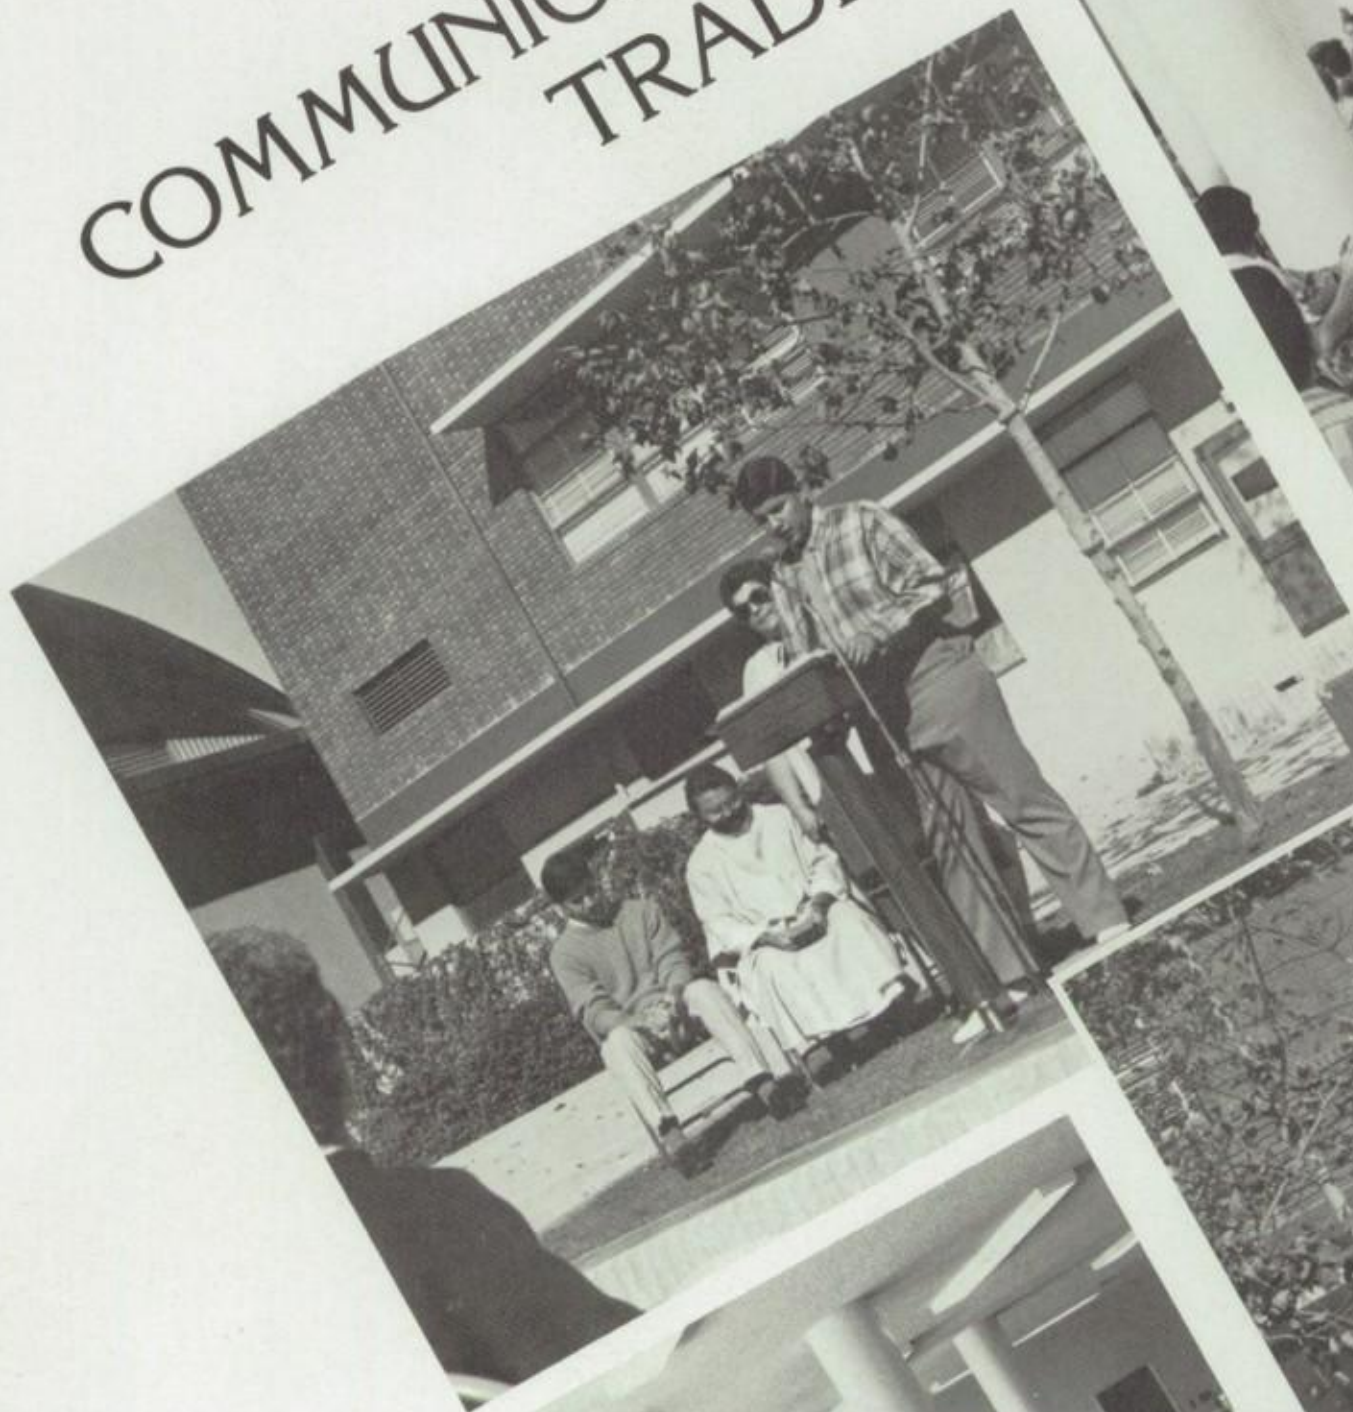

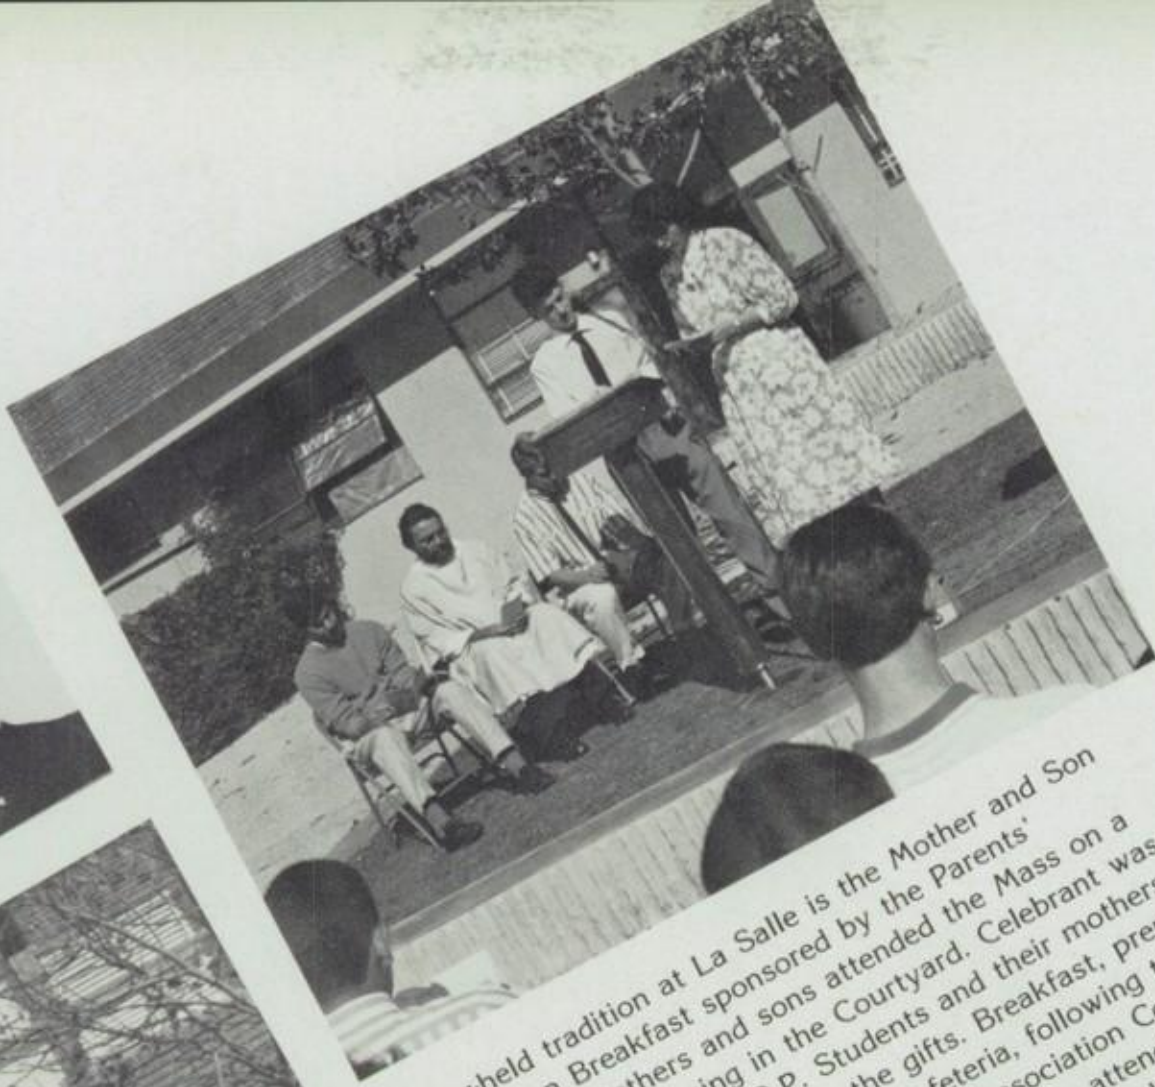

On Wednesday, November 27, 1986, the Junior class, once again, celebrated the annual ritual of their Ring Mass. They waited impatiently throughout the day to receive their rings. Fr. Dan, again, led the ceremony and Junior, Ed Malicdem spoke about the importance of the rings and the unity they bring to the class. He told of the rings' symbolism, representing the growth and leadership the Junior Class had achieved. After all the lectures about the rings' significance in the La Salle Community, the Juniors received their rings, one by one, from Mr. Bonacci and Br. Robert. After the gifts were offered and the eucharist received, the Juniors went home to show their family and friends the new ring that they were sure to wear for the rest of their high school years.

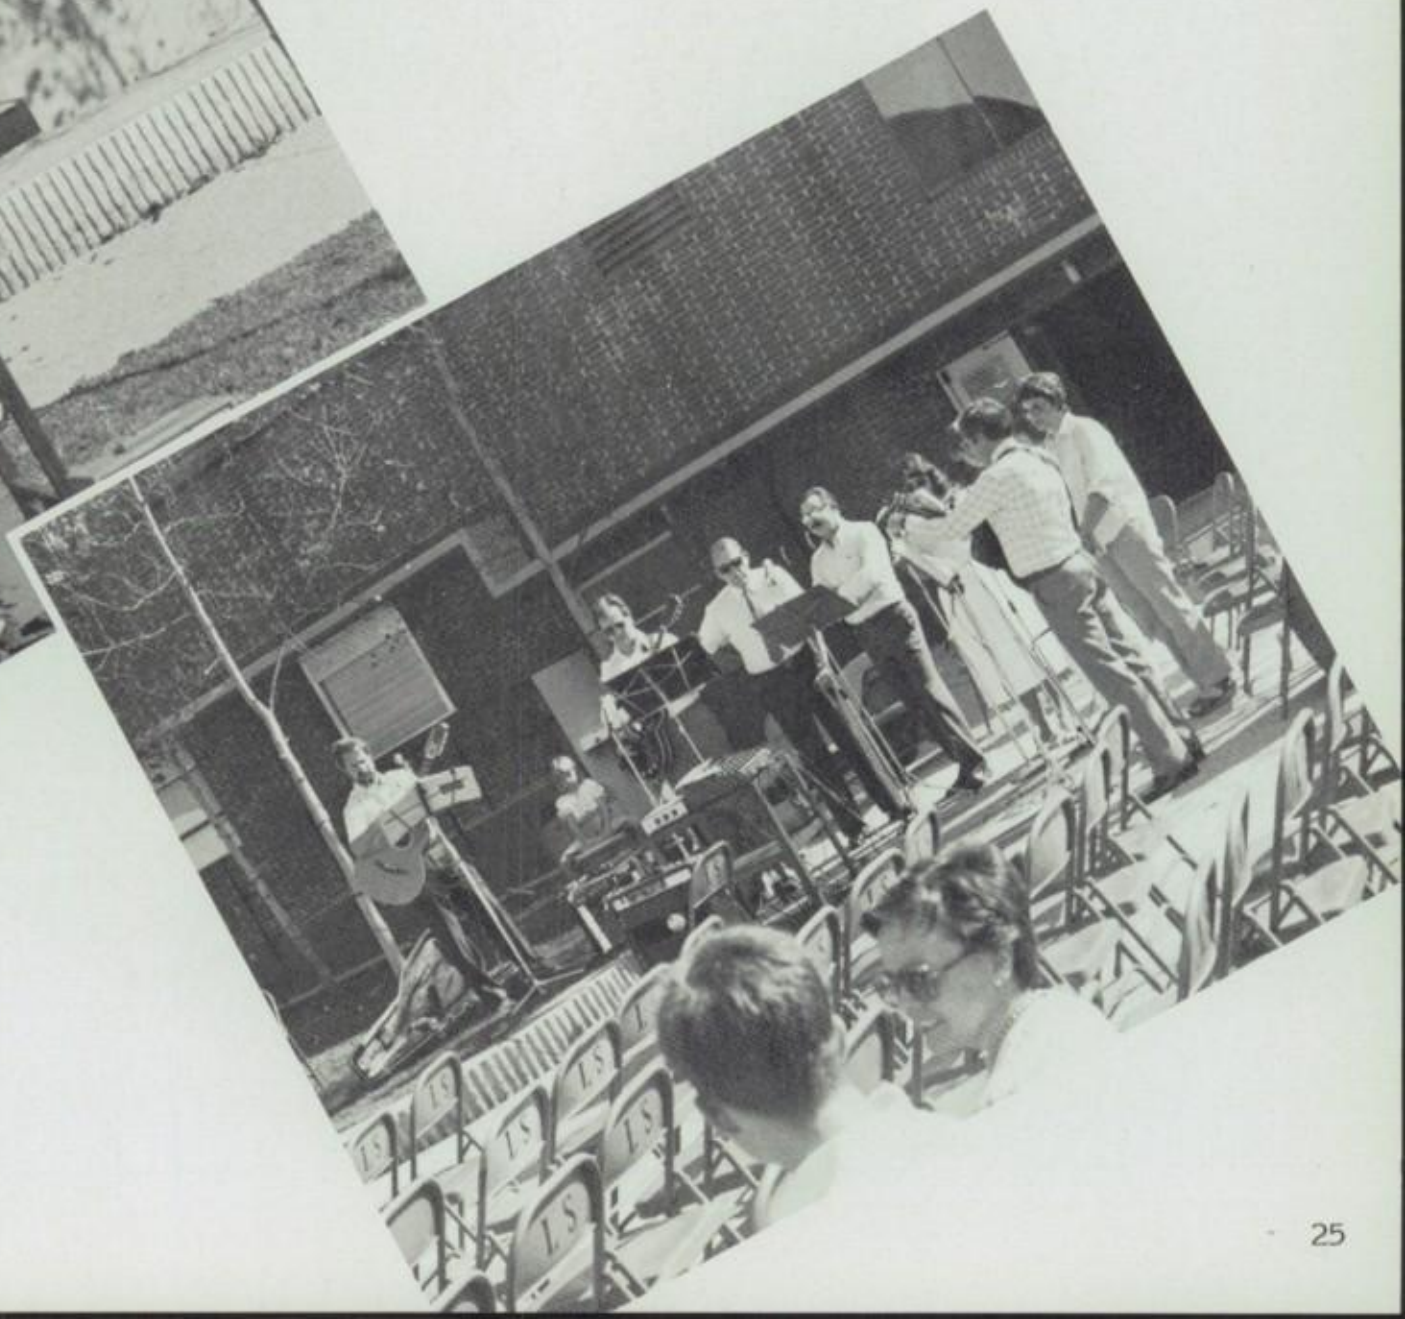

COMMUNION BREAKFASTS-A TRADITION

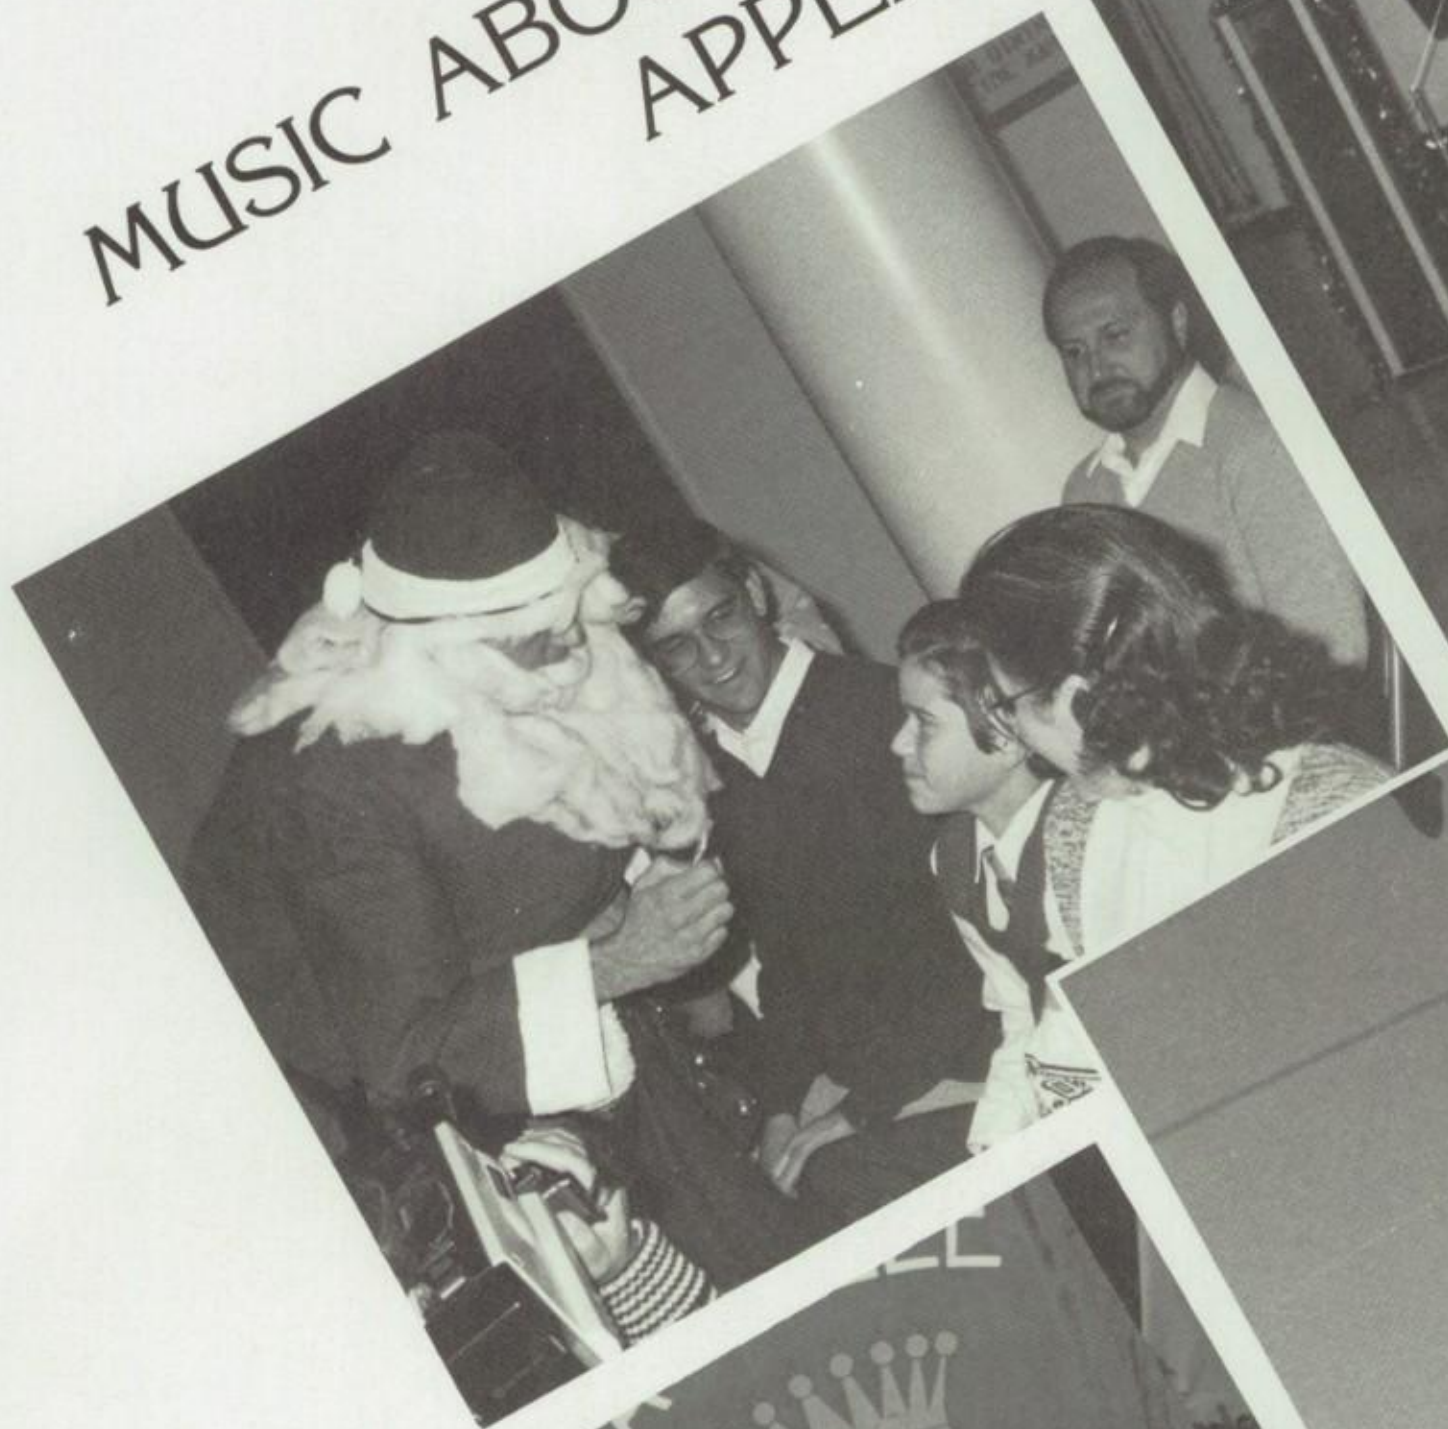

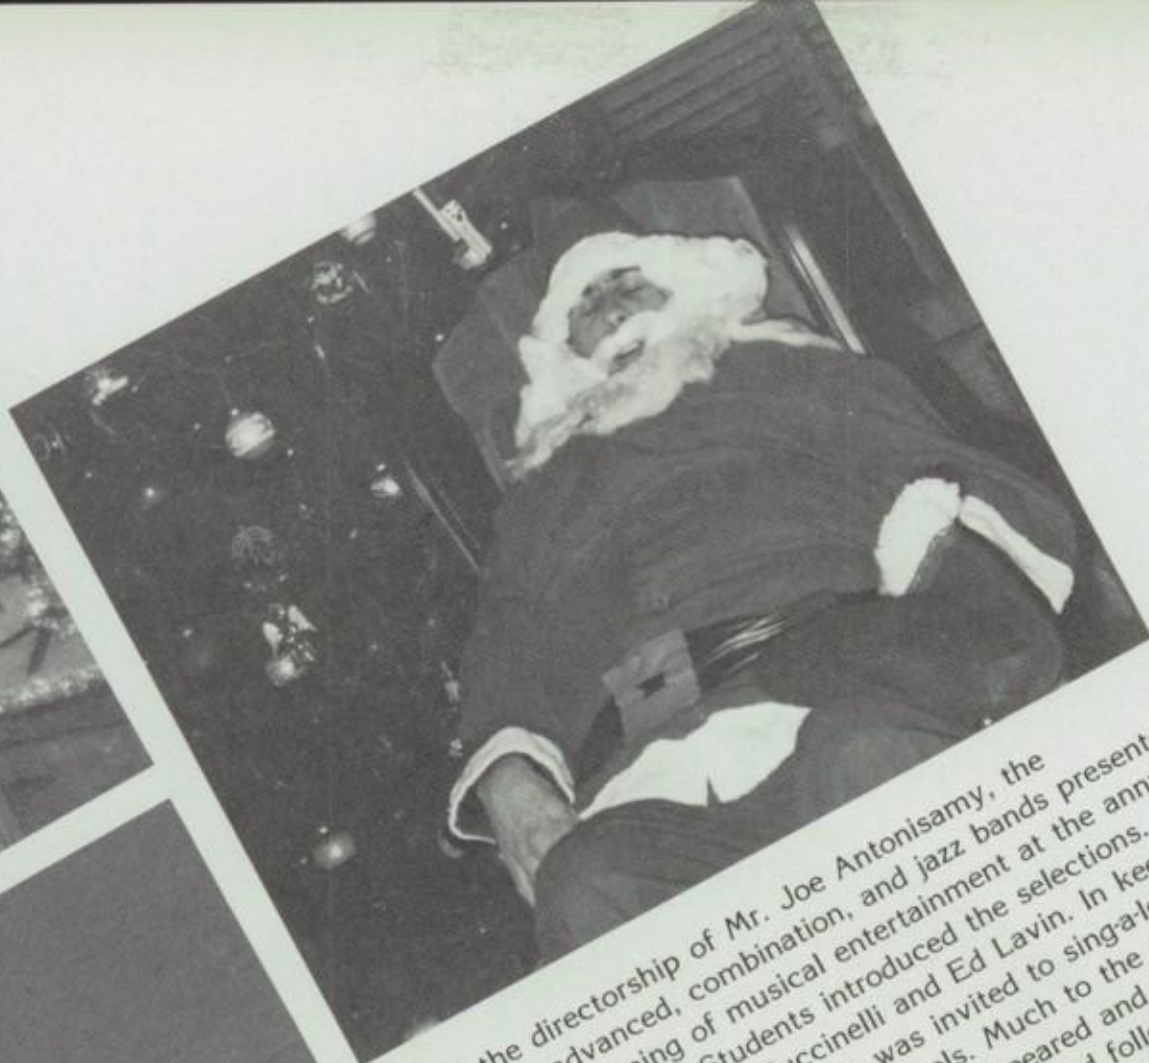

A long-held tradition at La Salle is the Mother and Son Communion Breakfast sponsored by the Parents' Association. Mothers and sons attended the Mass on a balmy Sunday morning in the Courtyard. Celebrant was Father Greg Alvorsen, O.P. Students and their mothers gave the readings and brought up the gifts. Breakfast, prepared by the dads, was served in the cafeteria, following the Mass. Mrs. Gloria Delaney, Parents' Association Co-President with Mr. John Delaney, welcomed those in attendance. The Father and Son Communion Breakfast, where the moms take over in the kitchen to serve the fathers and their sons, was held in February.

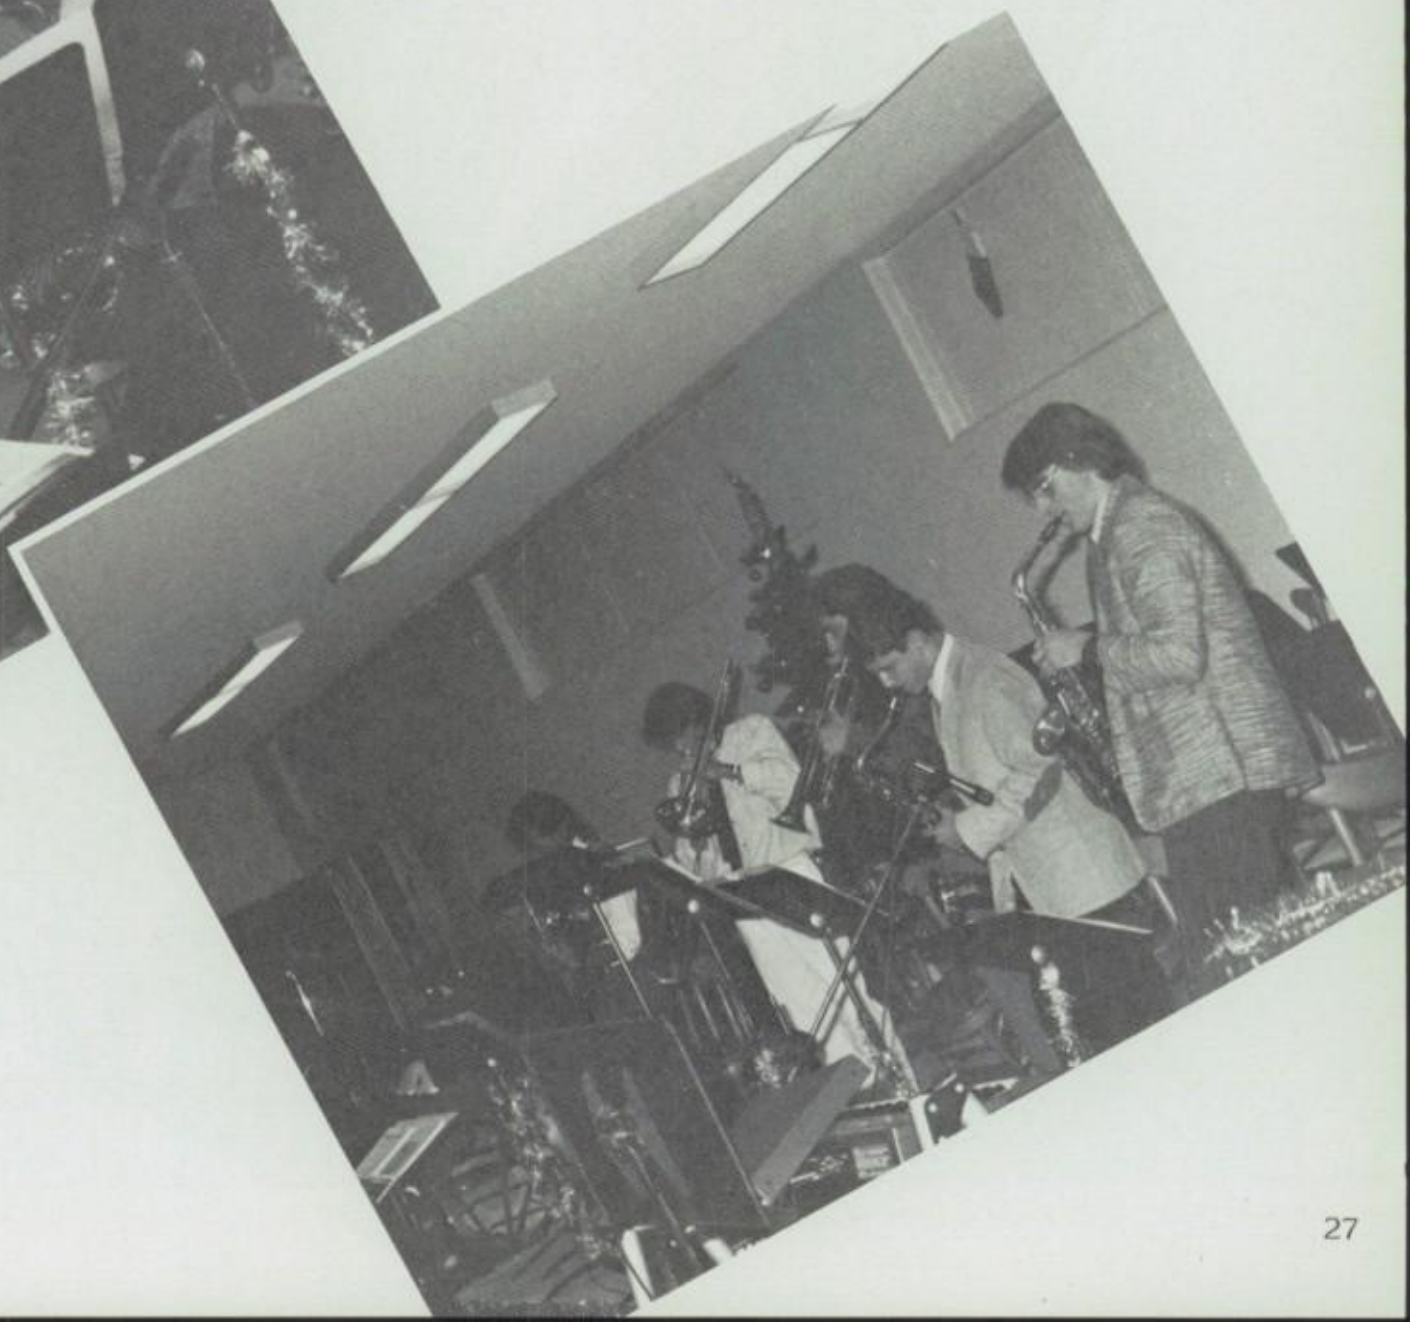

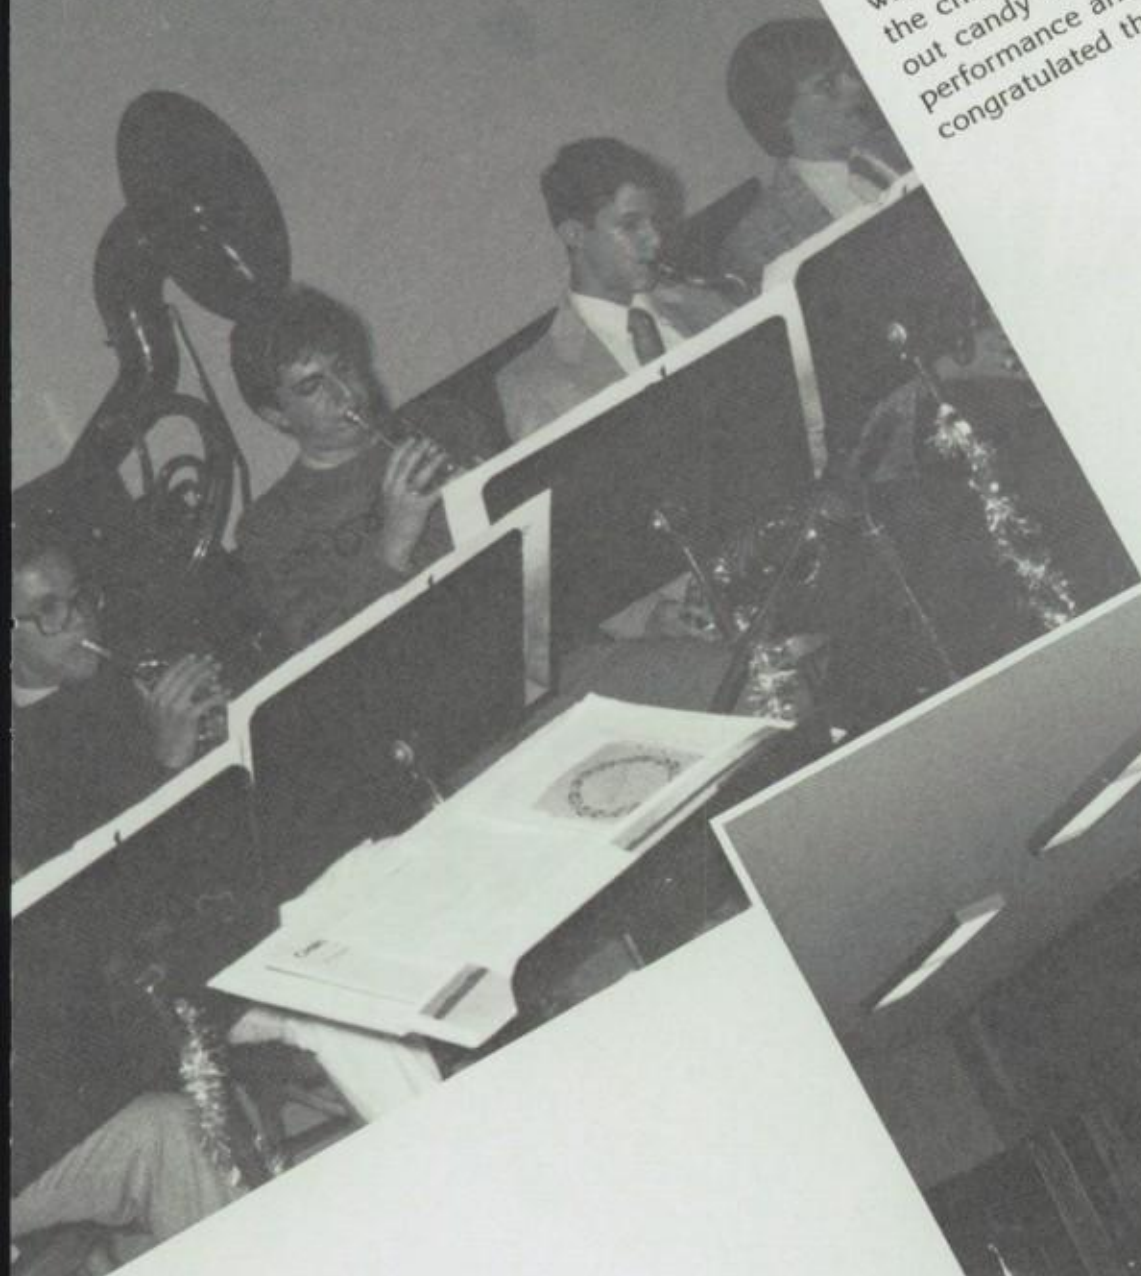

MUSIC ABOUNDS AND SANTA APPEARS

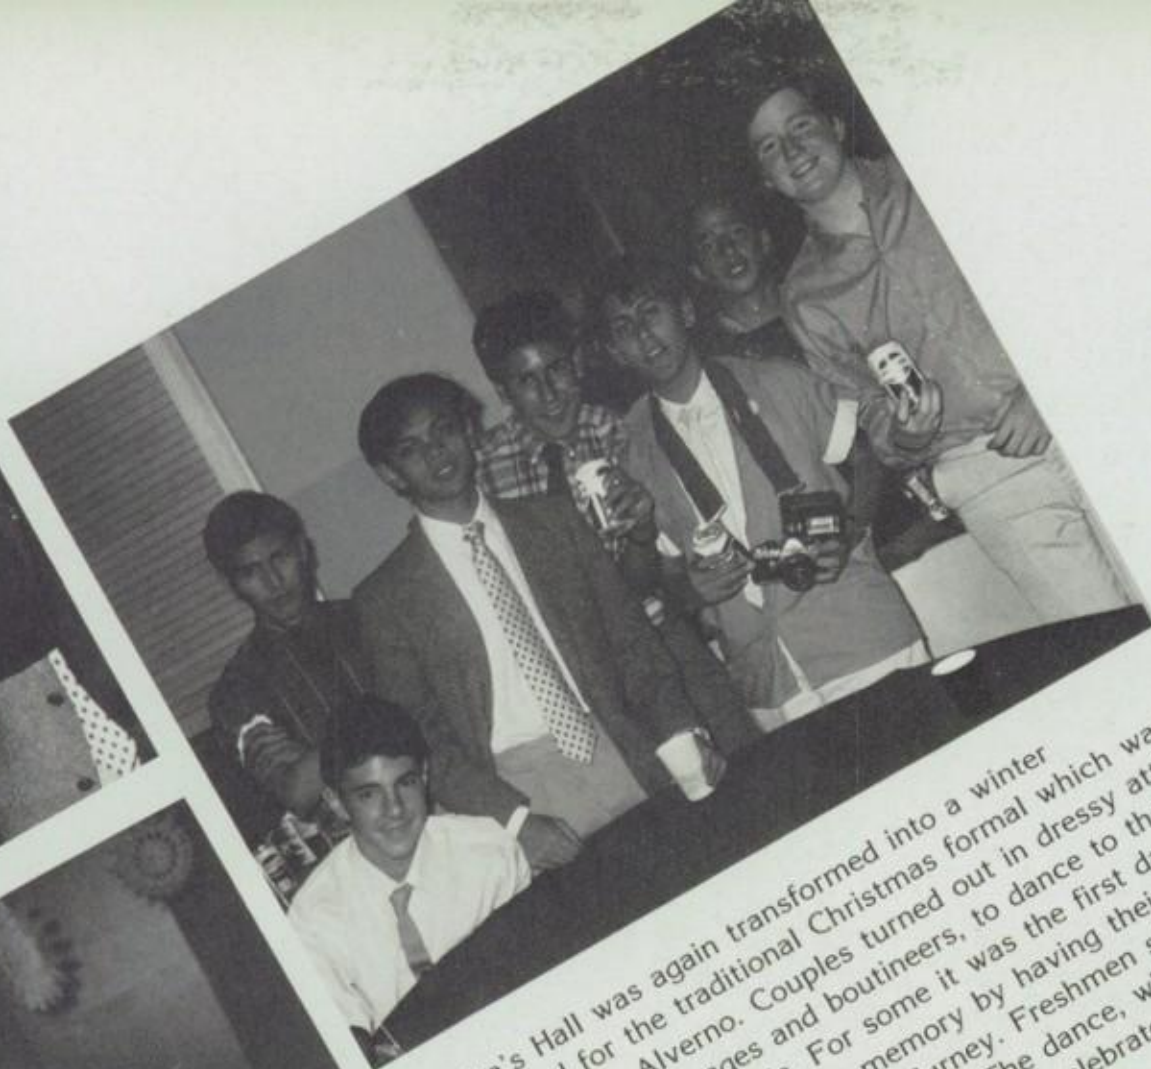

Under the directorship of Mr. Joe Antonisamy, the beginning, advanced, combination, and jazz bands presented a delightful evening of musical entertainment at the annual Christmas Concert. Students introduced the selections. Sololists included Paul Puccinelli and Ed Lavin. In keeping with the season, the audience was invited to sing-a-long with the traditional Christmas carols. Much to the delight of the children in the audience, Santa appeared and handed out candy canes. Refreshments were served following the performance and proud parents, grandparents, and friends congratulated the musicians on a job well done.

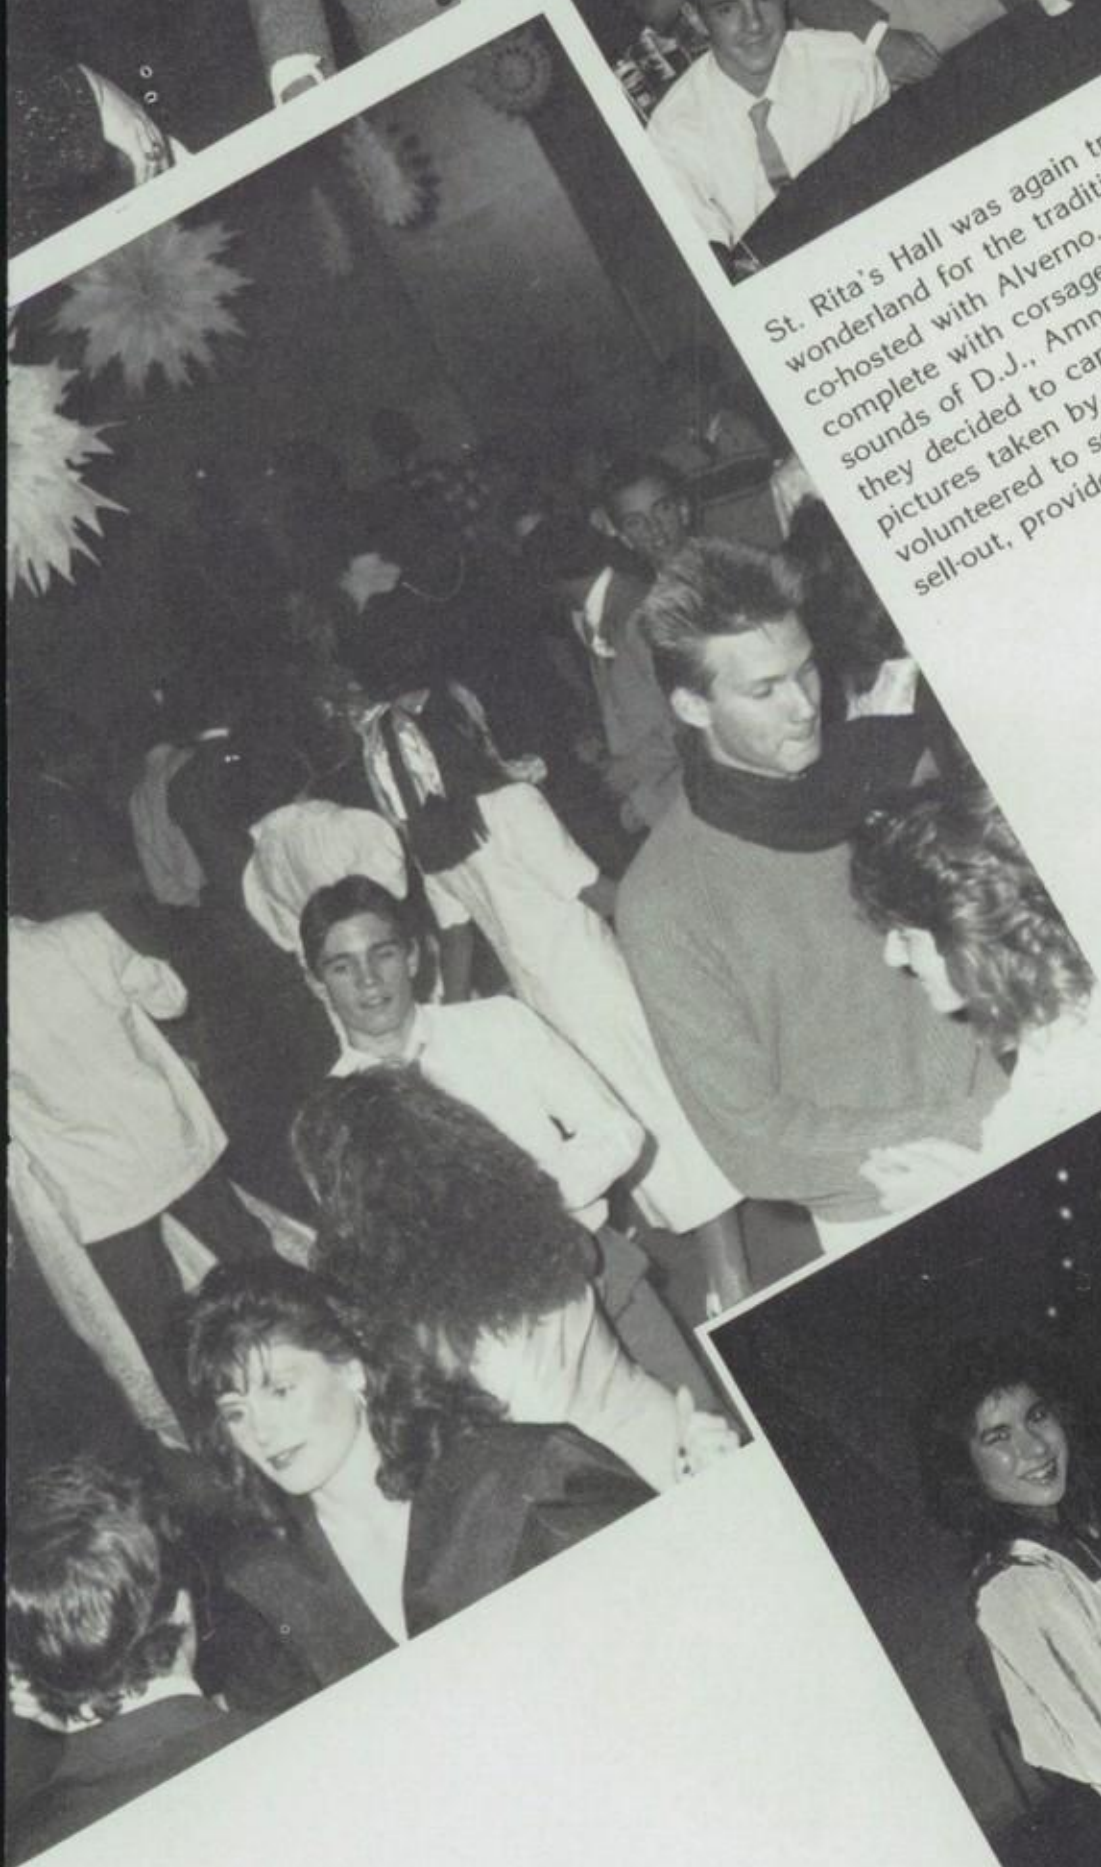

SNOWBALL '86

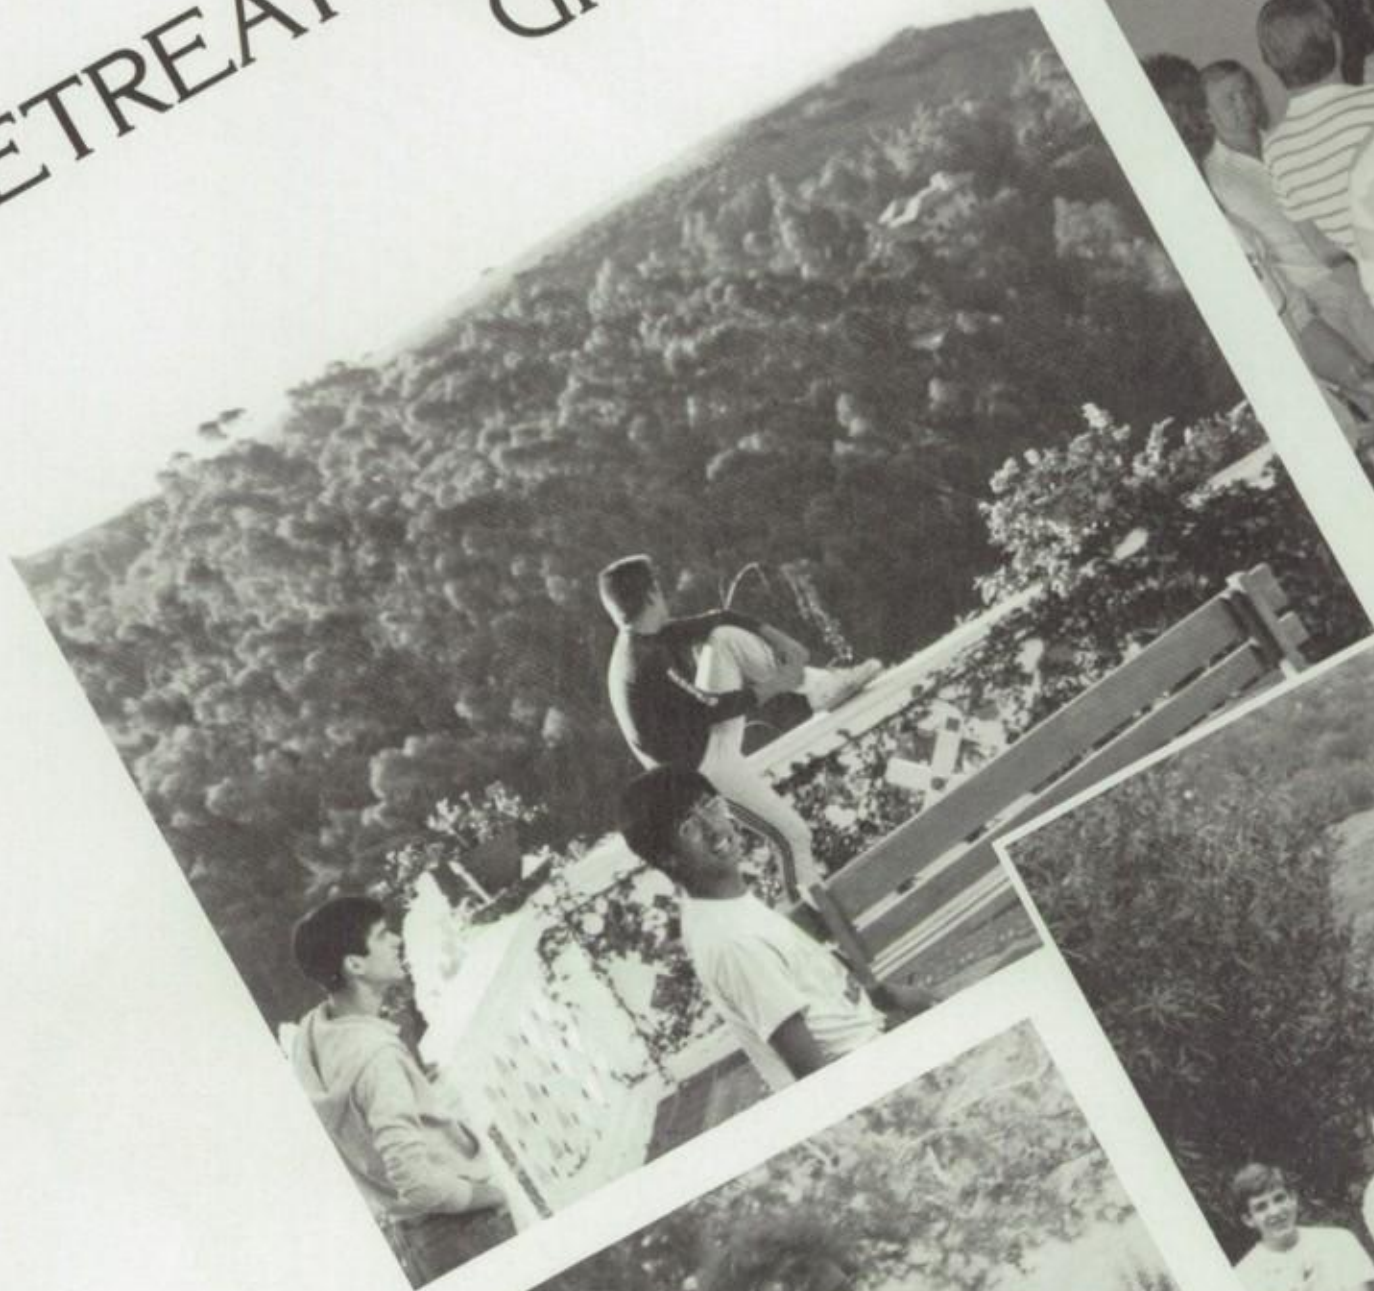

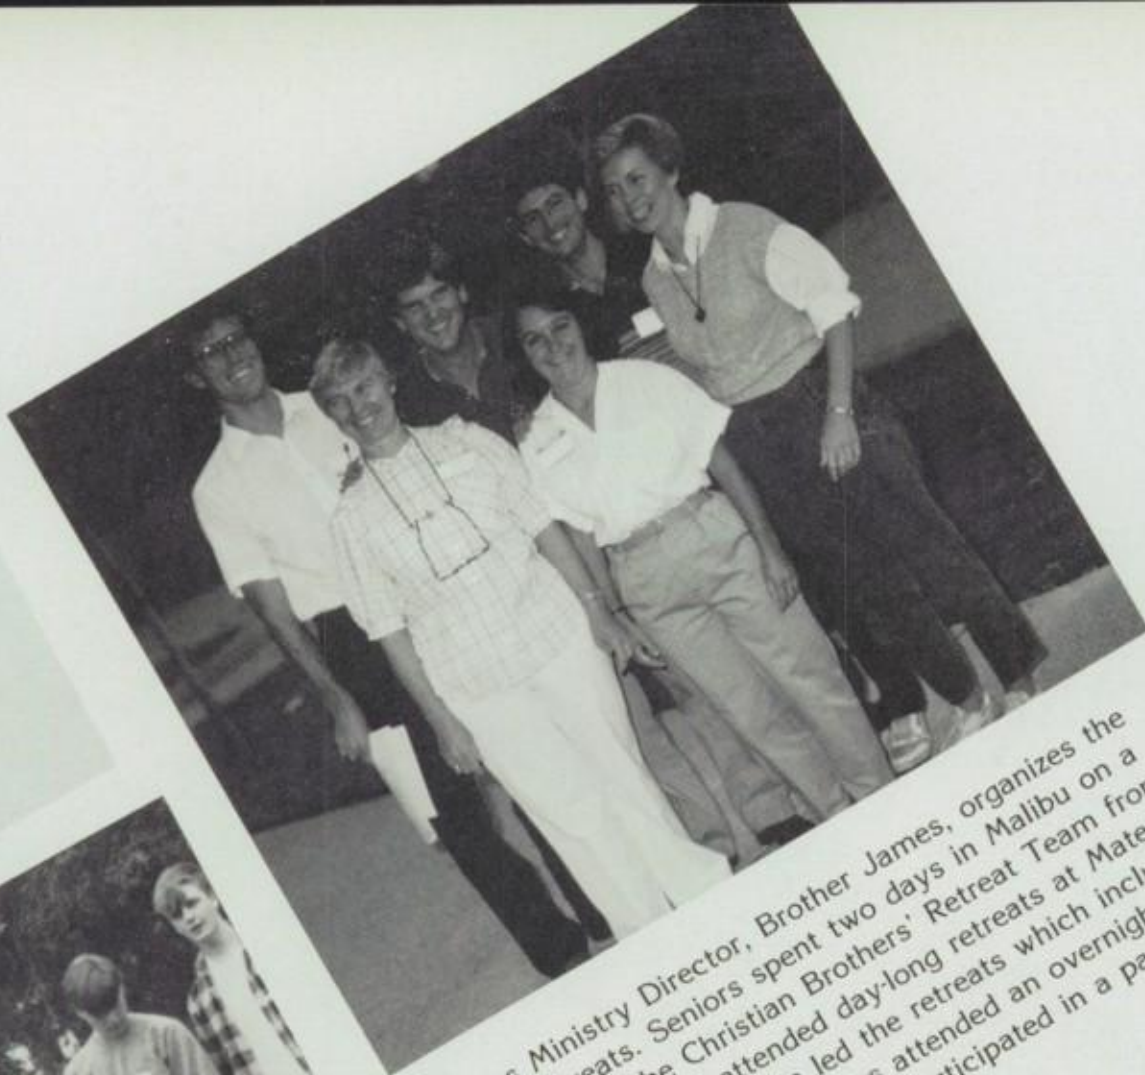

St. Rita's Hall was again transformed into a winter wonderland for the traditional Christmas formal which was co-hosted with Alverno. Couples turned out in dressy attire, complete with corsages and boutineers, to dance to the sounds of D.J., Amnesia. For some it was the first date and they decided to capture the memory by having their pictures taken by Dunlap and Turney. Freshmen students volunteered to serve refreshments. The dance, which was a sell-out, provided a fun, festive way to celebrate the season.

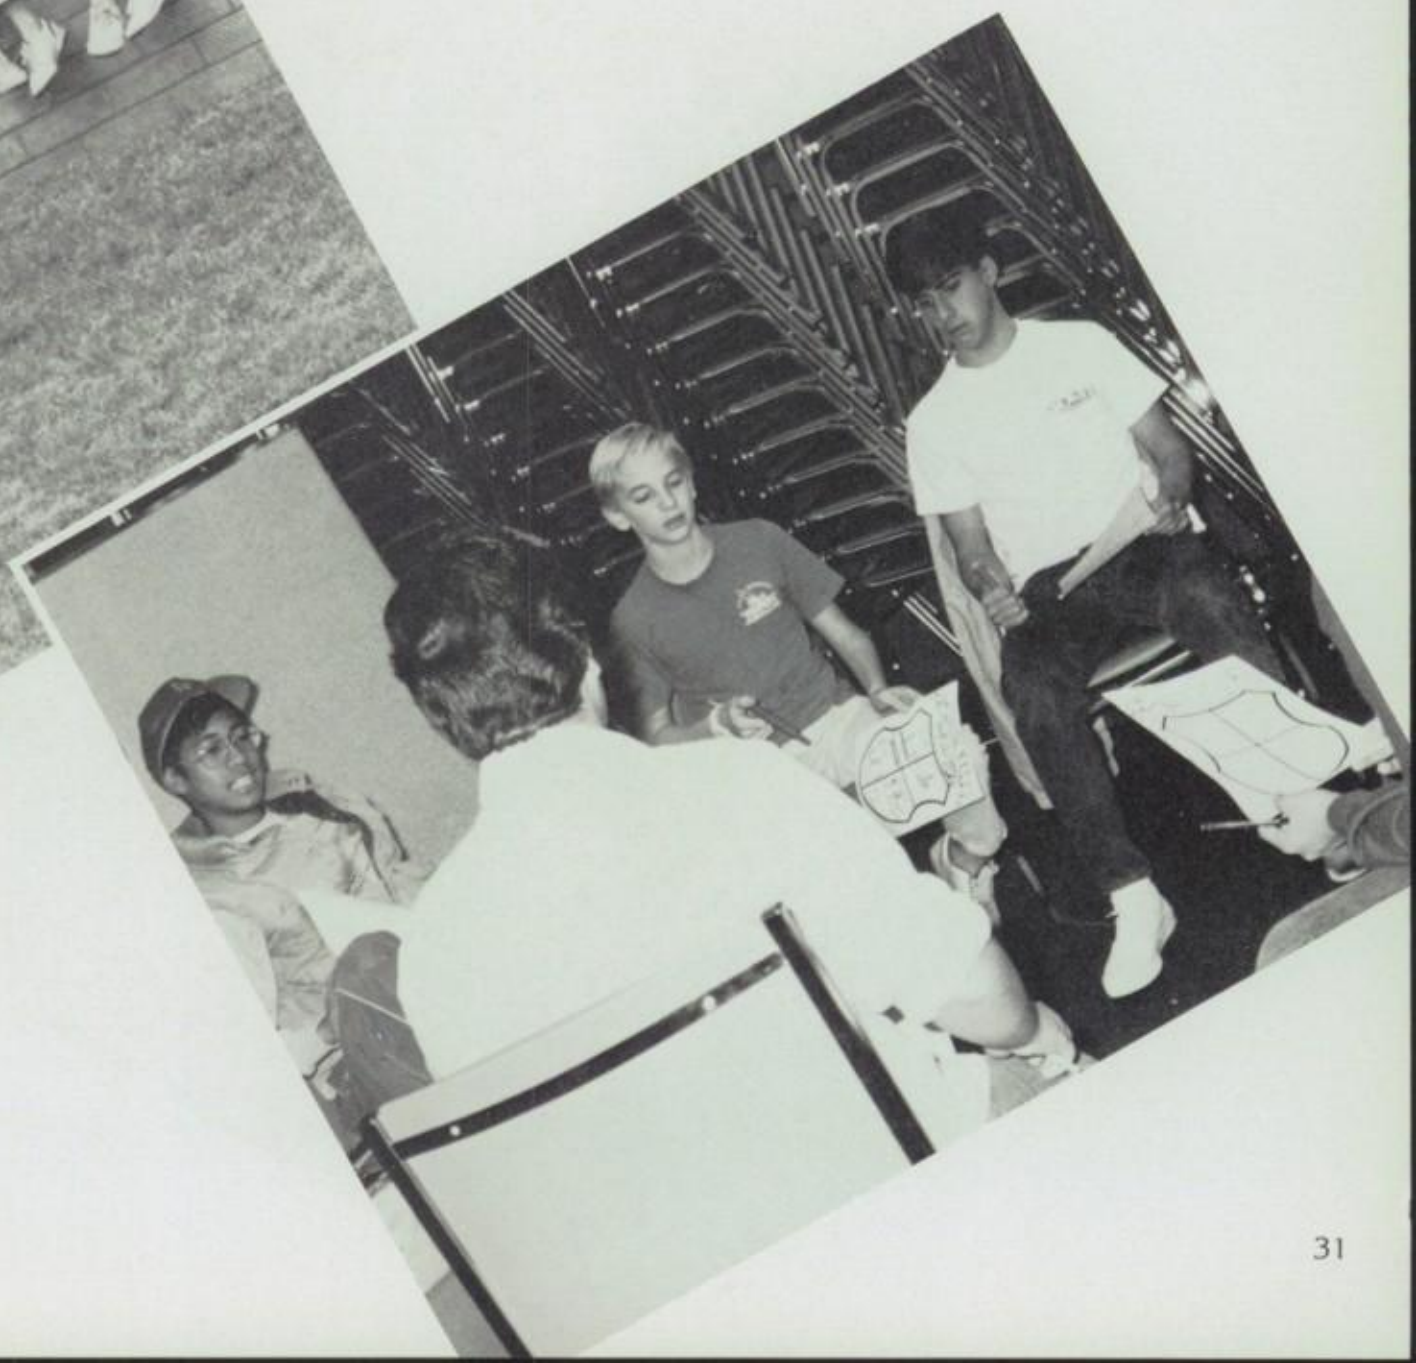

RETREATS BRING FELLOWSHIP. GROWTH

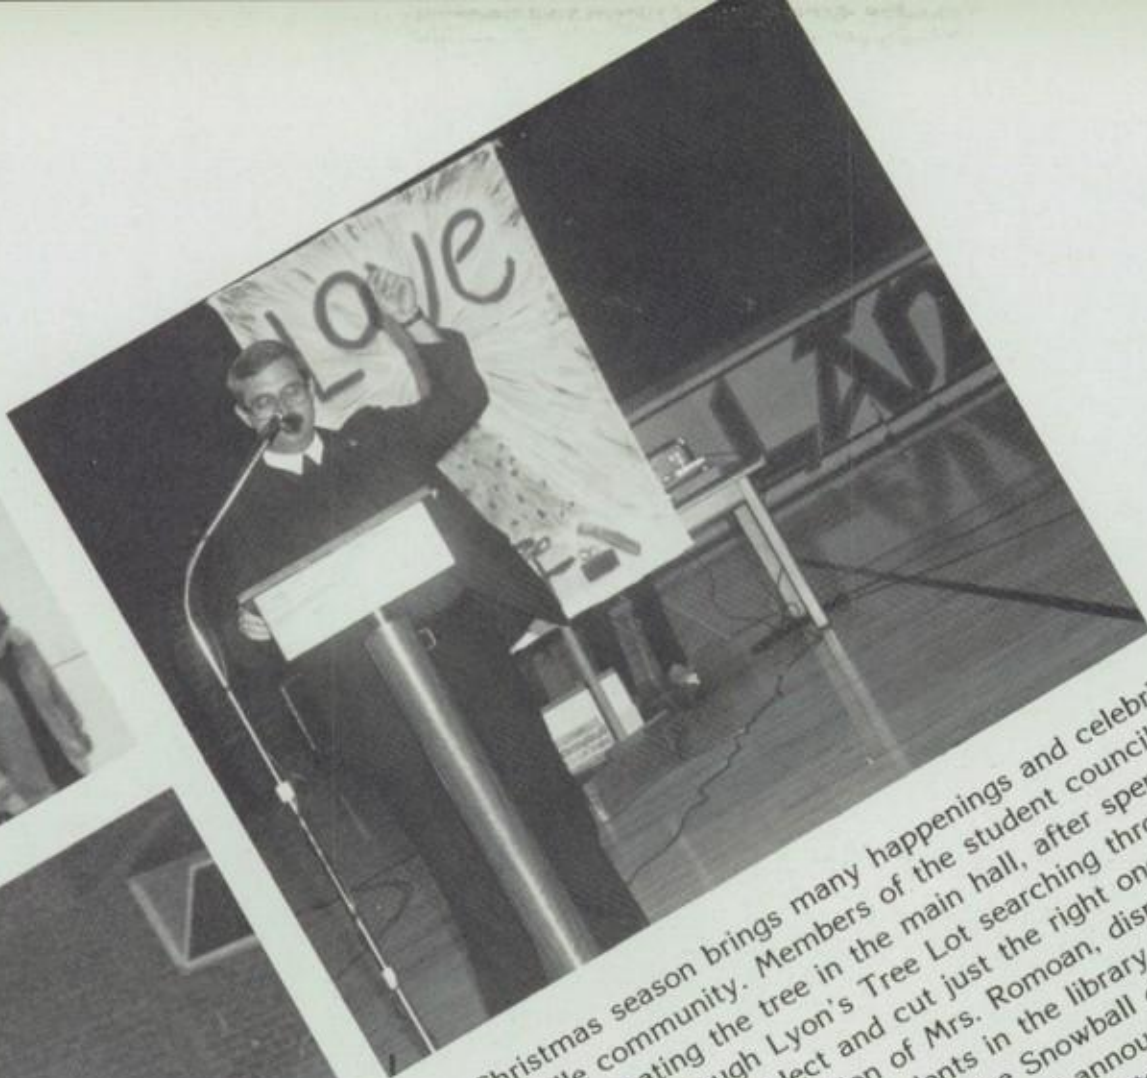

Campus Ministry Director, Brother James, organizes the student retreats. Seniors spent two days in Malibu on a retreat led by the Christian Brothers' Retreat Team from Napa. Sophomores attended day-long retreats at Mater Dolorosa. Upper classmen led the retreats which included a reconciliation service. Juniors attended an overnight retreat in the Spring. Some students participated in a parent/son retreat.

'TIS THE SEASON

The Christmas season brings many happenings and celebrities to the La Salle community. Members of the student council set the stage by decorating the tree in the main hall, after spending hours tramping through Lyon's Tree Lot searching through hundreds of trees to select and cut just the right one. Faculty members, under the direction of Mrs. Romoan, display their Christmas greetings to the students in the library. Student begin to worry about getting a date for the Snowball dance, spurred on by the ASB officers during the morning announcements. Before the big night arrives, La Salle has been treated to the musical presentations of the bands and has celebrated the Mass, which was planned by the Sophomores. Theme of this year's mass was "Sharing Unique Gifts."

From the first measure of the Star-Spangled Banner to the last strains of the Alma Mater this group is a definite spirit generator. They also perform at assemblies.

LANCE WORD SMITHS

The Lance Staff, under the editorship of Joe Gonzalez and Moderator Jim Amendola, published a bi-monthly edition of the Lance with a spiffy new tabloid format. Timely articles, catchy headlines, and well-written material characterized the 1986-87 newspaper.

ANNUAL WORK FORCE

The Yearbook Staff grinds out another year

The task of compiling a year's worth of events and putting them all together in one book is never easy. Once again, though, the job was successfully completed by the 1986-87 Centurion Yearbook Staff. Although deadlines were hastily met, and creative clashes did occur, the staff made it "through the grind" to produce a special and unique book. With the theme of "Excelebration" constantly in the minds of each member, layouts were designed, and pictures were taken that expressed the overall feeling. At the head of the staff was Senior, Joe Lopez, who, with three years of previous experience, worked with a relatively new staff. From Freshman Orientation to Graduation, the entire group worked long, extra hours to make sure that all activities were covered, all organizations were listed, and all people were shown. Finally, after all deadlines were completed, and all proofs were checked, the Centurion Staff took a long sigh of relief and sat back to read the '86-'87 yearbook.

Seniors

1. Senior Class Officers (L to R): Vice-President Francis Badzey, President Werner Garciano, Secretary/Treasurer Kenny Ayala. (Kneeling L to R) Class Representatives: Joe Gonzalez, Luis Marquez, Paul Madarieta (Not shown)
2. Senior Class Moderators: Mrs. Rosalie Lopez and Mr. John Ring

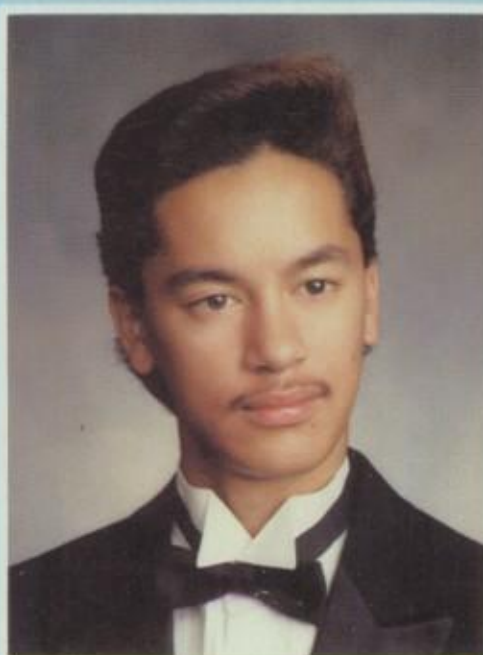

Celebrating their final year at La Salle, the Class of '87 spent most of the year anticipating that final day; Graduation. Being a Senior holds many responsibilities, and the entire class knew it. From the very beginning, at the Freshman Orientation, Seniors had to organize the school year. In addition to extracurricular activities, school work was just as hectic and difficult as it had been for the past three years. College was also on the minds of most of the class. Where to go? When to apply? What tests to take? All of these pressures were on the Seniors throughout their last year here. But despite the worries and anxieties that plagued the class, it can be said that the '86-'87 school year was, indeed, successful. It can also be assumed that the Senior Class of 1987 will look back at the year as one of excellence and celebration!

CAMPUS

CASUALS

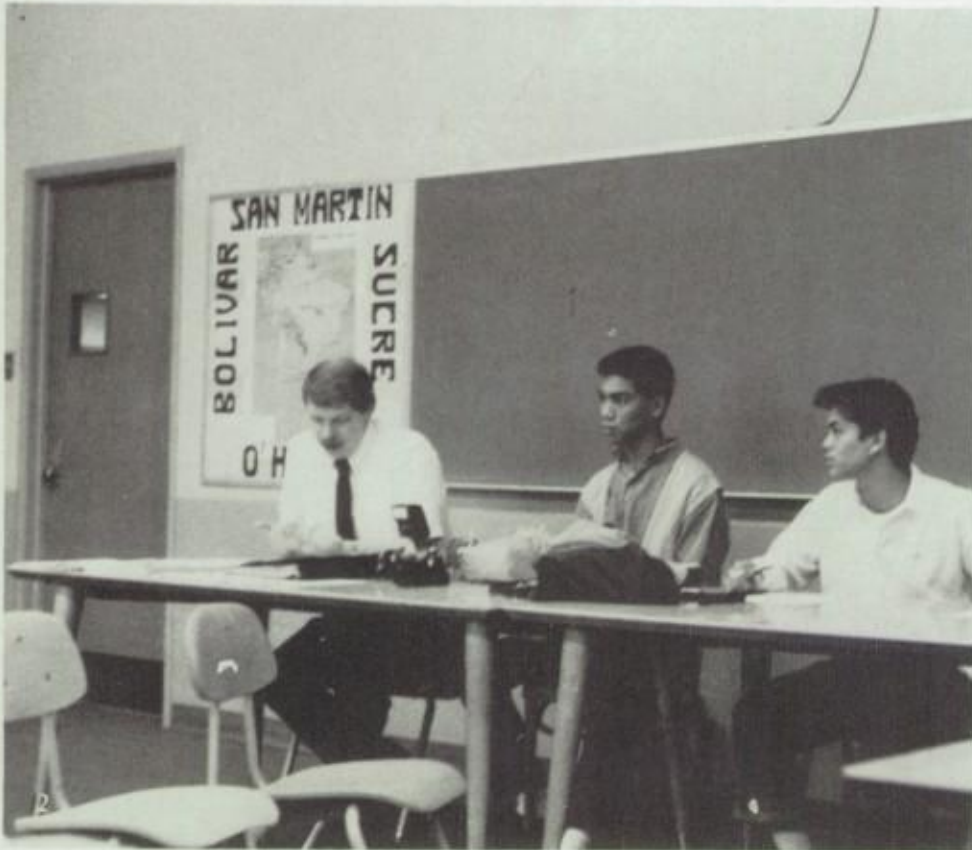

Juniors

The Juniors, led by President Peter Raulli enjoyed the status of upper-classmen. Traditional highlights of this status include the receiving of class rings in November and the Prom. Juniors also find time in their schedules for some elective classes and participate in career day. Now they are anticipating being the "top men" on campus.

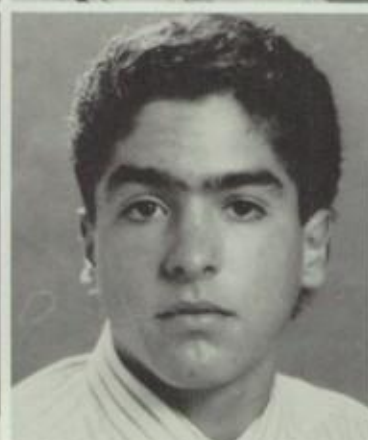

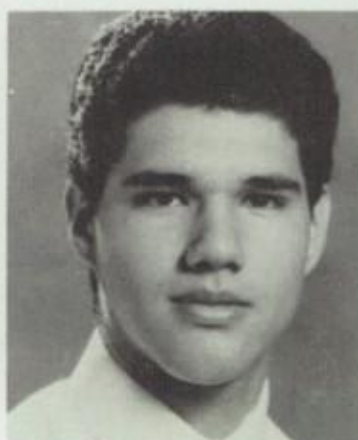

1) Juniors Pietro D' Ingillo, Kevin Windisch and Jay Martinez join in a rousing chorus of "L-L-L-A-N." 2) ASB officers Ed Malicdem, Jay Martinez and Director of Student Activities Br. Patrick spend many of their lunch hours in meetings, deciding what we as a student body will be doing in the future. 3) Sophomore Vince Garciano has hired his own personal carrying service.

Freshmen

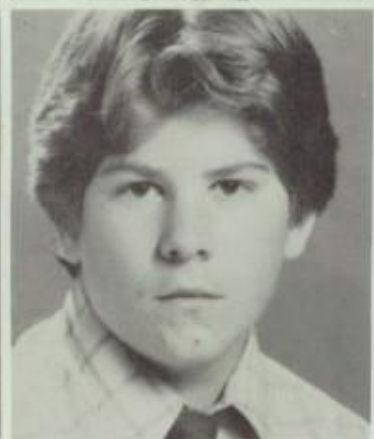

'New', 'Uncertain', 'Nervous', 'Excited' are words that characterized the Freshmen in September. However, soon they were feeling like full-fledged members of the La Salle community. With President David Guido at the helm, they held several fund-raising events including bake sales and noon-time movies. Rumor has it that moderators, Ms. Ahl and Br. Steven, have a killer cookie recipe that helped to bring in revenue for the class of '90.

ACADEMICS

La Salle is celebrating 30 years of continuing excellence in Education.

Religion Department:

The Religion Department is committed to establishing a Christian community where Catholic values are communicated, where belief in God is seen as the principle of life, where Jesus Christ — the Revelation of the Father — is seen as personal Savior, and where the Holy Spirit is the active presence of God among us. The Department seeks to provide a program geared to an intellectual approach in an academic pursuit of Christian principles whose historical origins exist in the Roman Catholic tradition, yet sensitive to truth in the freedom of the Spirit. Through academic, service, worship and prayer, the department seeks to provide opportunities to experience and develop personal relationships with the risen Christ. The 4-year program includes Old and New Testament studies, Catholic Faith, Morality, Sacraments, Peace and Justice and Church History.

Science Department:

The science curriculum is primarily designed to help the student in developing an ability to think logically and creatively. The science teachers work to stimulate the spirit of inquiry, acquisition of knowledge, and understanding of scientific principles. Scientific knowledge is best gained through the scientific method of controlled experimentation which encompasses both perceptive observation and rational interpretation of the data which posits a casual explanation for the physical phenomenon observed. Major goals include that every student have an introduction to man and his environment including the study of science by the inquiry method and the study of the history of discoveries and concepts in science, and that all have a basic foundation in scientific literacy. Offerings include physical science, biology, physics, chemistry, ecology, and lab assisting.

Social Studies Department:

The social studies department works to develop the attitudes in students that will encourage them to become responsible and active participants in a viable democratic society. Students are encouraged to participate in all aspects of society, from supporting the status quo to following the lawful means open to them to bring about constructive change in implementing their beliefs and goals while promoting the welfare of our society as a whole. The educational experience that takes place is instigated within the framework of a Christian value system which encourages love and respect for all men and of accepting responsibility for one's own actions. The program includes ancient history, European history, U.S. history, civics, and economics.

Foreign Language Department:

The learning of any second language is an education experience that opens to the mind a new area of verbalization by providing the opportunity to learn another culture in one of its most fundamental aspects — the language of its people. Language is a key to profound, in depth understanding of ideas, traditions and cultures of our neighbors who speak another tongue. Four levels of Spanish are offered both for native and non-native speakers. Four years of French are also offered.

Mathematics Department:

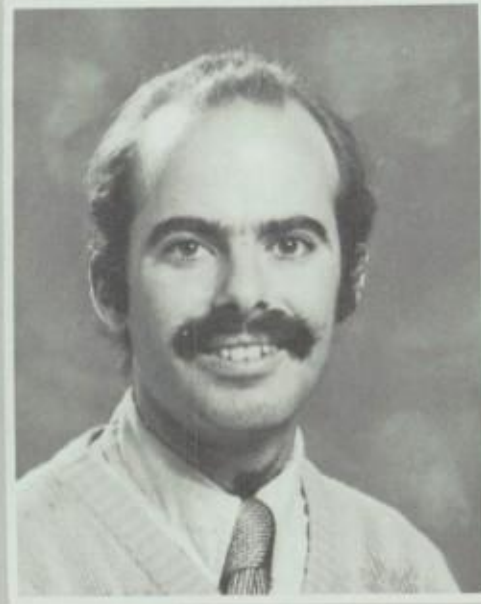

In keeping with the stated philosophy of La Salle, the Math Department manifests a balanced program designed to develop the learning skills and creative abilities of each student. The program enables to student to practice the disciplined approach required in the study of math and to develop the reasoning processes of abstract, axiomatic and deductive. A logically sequential program is offered including pre-algebra, algebra, geometry, intermediate algebra and geometry, algebra II, trigonometry, pre-calculus, and calculus.

The department strives to provide a rich variety of academic courses to give students opportunities to acquire business related skills and processes which are equally applicable to personal and professional career use. It also introduces information which will enable them to function as knowledgeable employees and consumers and provide them with opportunities to explore career alternatives. Courses offered include accounting, computers, basic programming, typing, and principles of business.

Physical Education Department:

It is the concern of the P.E. Department that each unique individual be given the opportunity for total growth especially in relation to his physical potentials. The department also stresses cardiovascular pulmonary fitness and positive health as a means of maintaining one's physical potential throughout life. Enjoyable yet pertinent activities are provided. One semester of P.E. is required of both freshmen and sophomores. In addition electives in weight training, basketball, and baseball are offered.

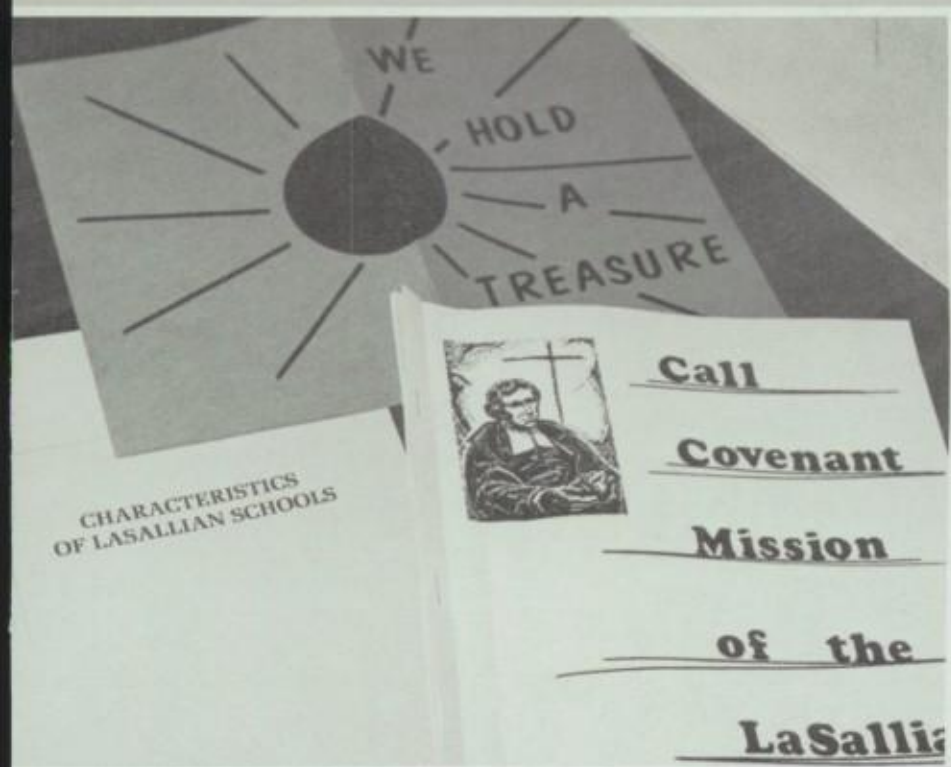

Mr. Deni Uejima

Mrs. Maria Werner
English

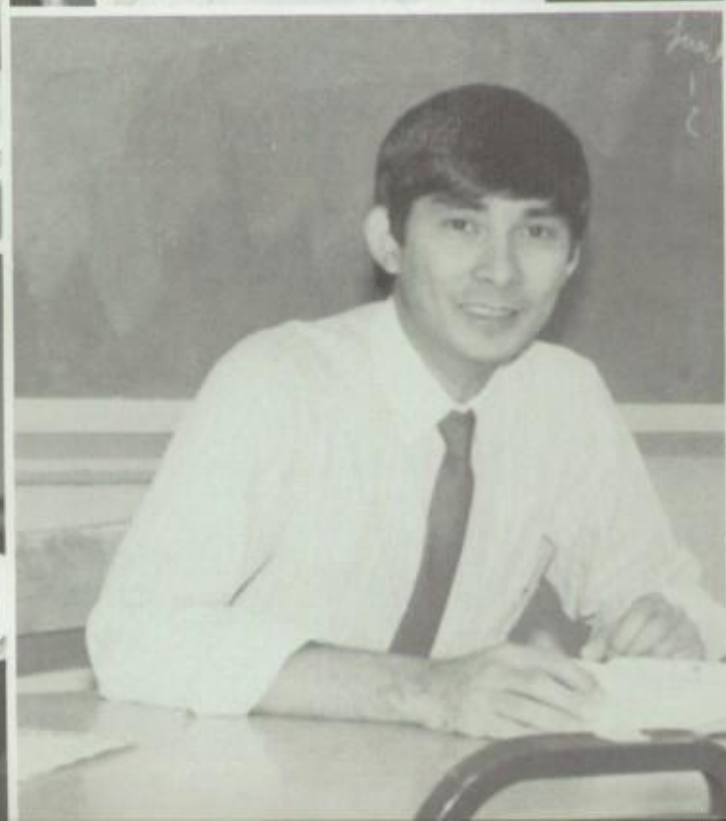

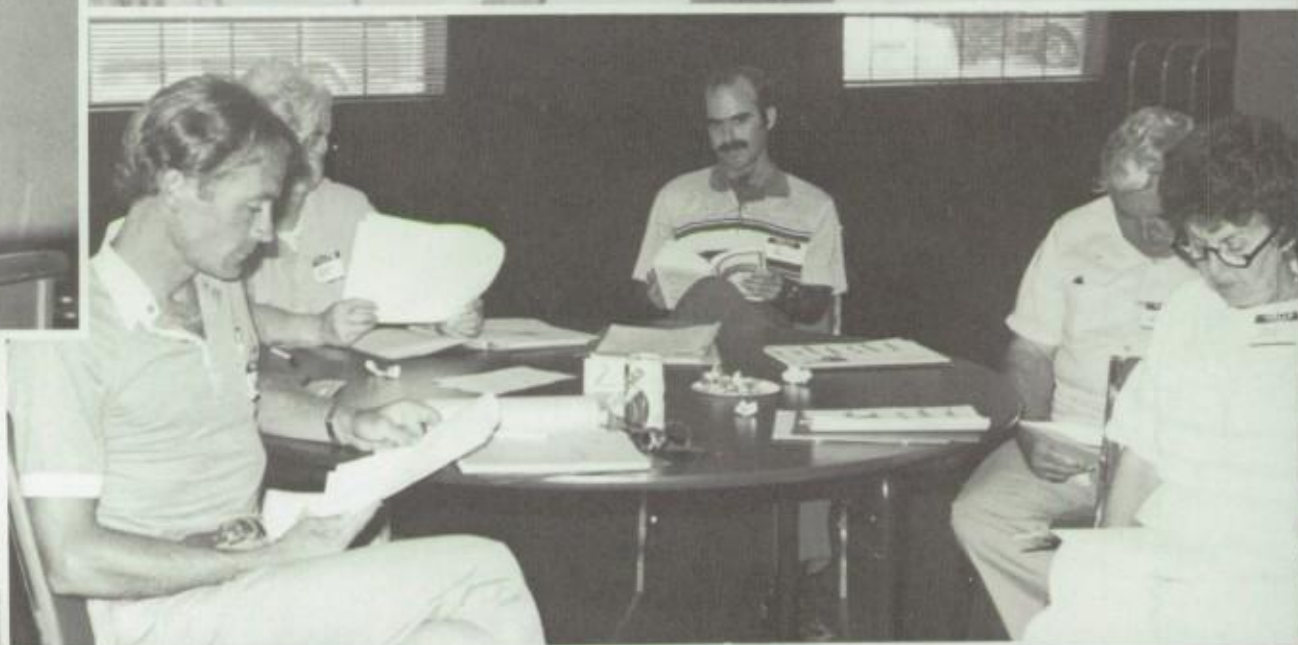

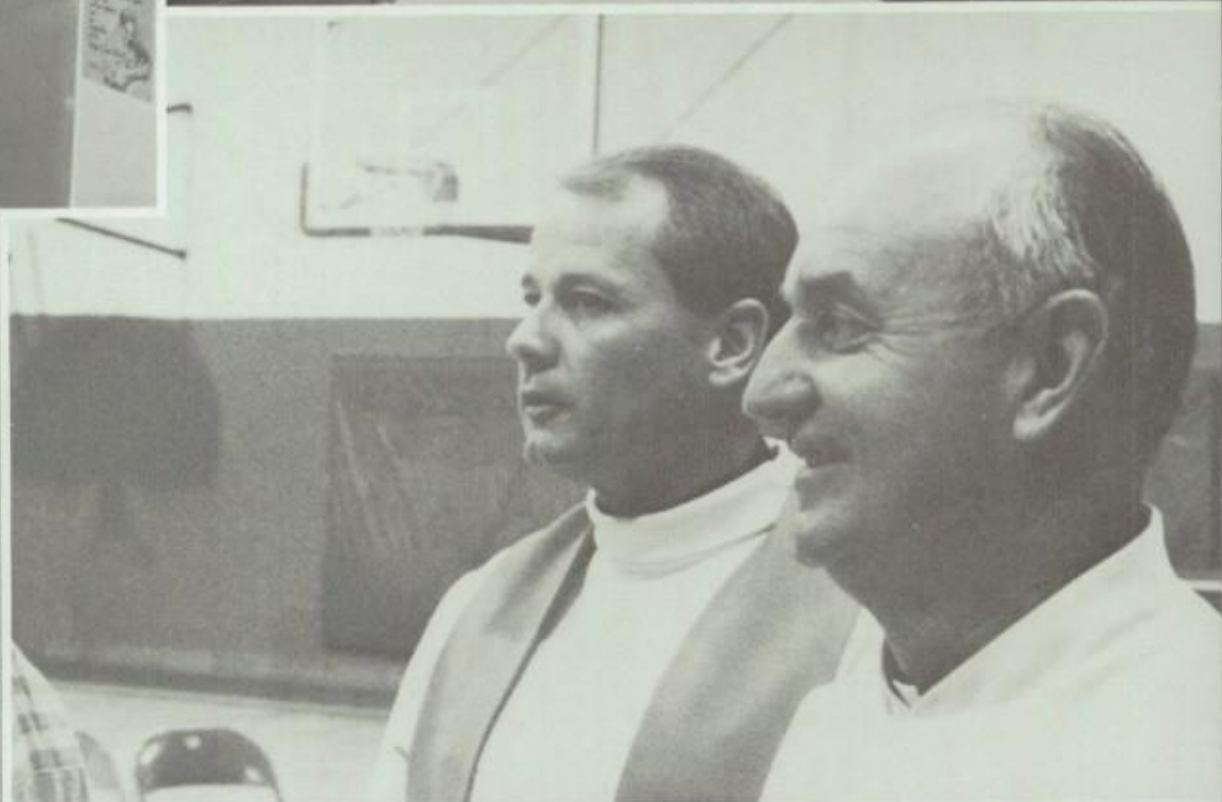

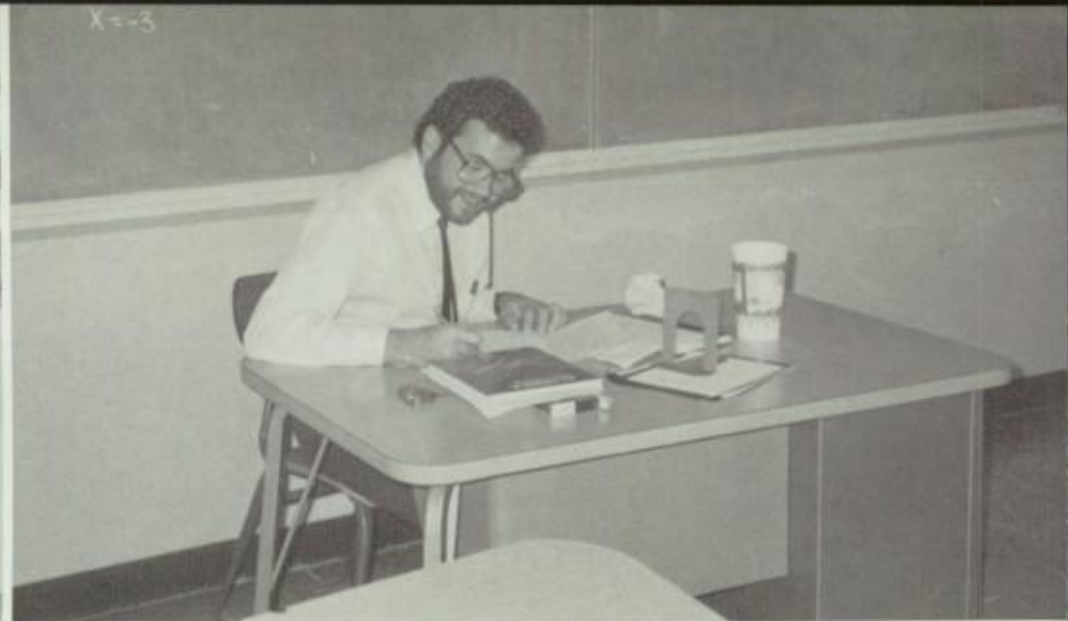

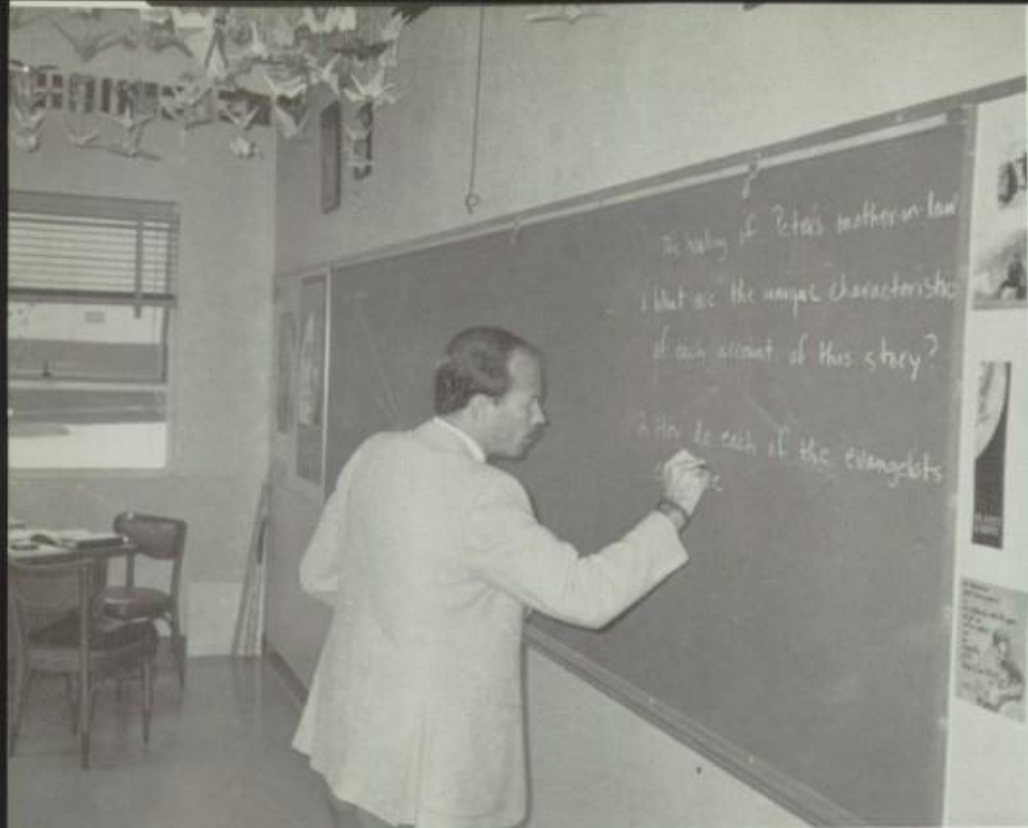

Fine Arts Department:

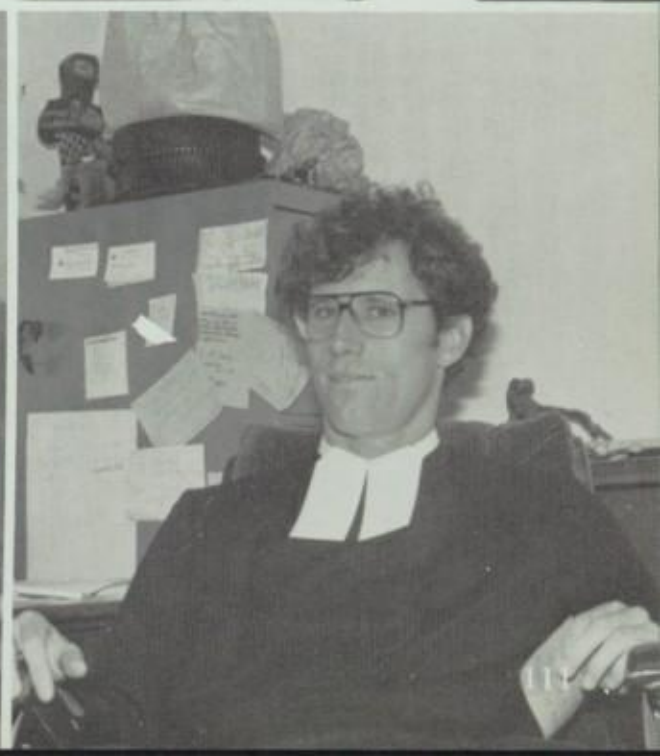

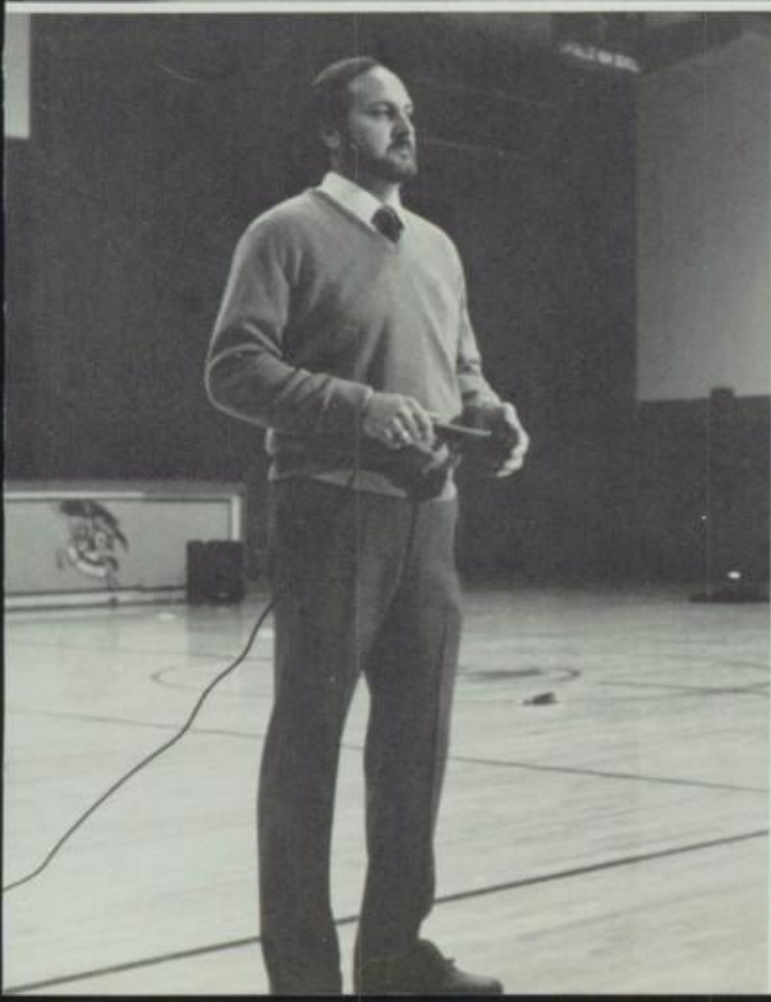

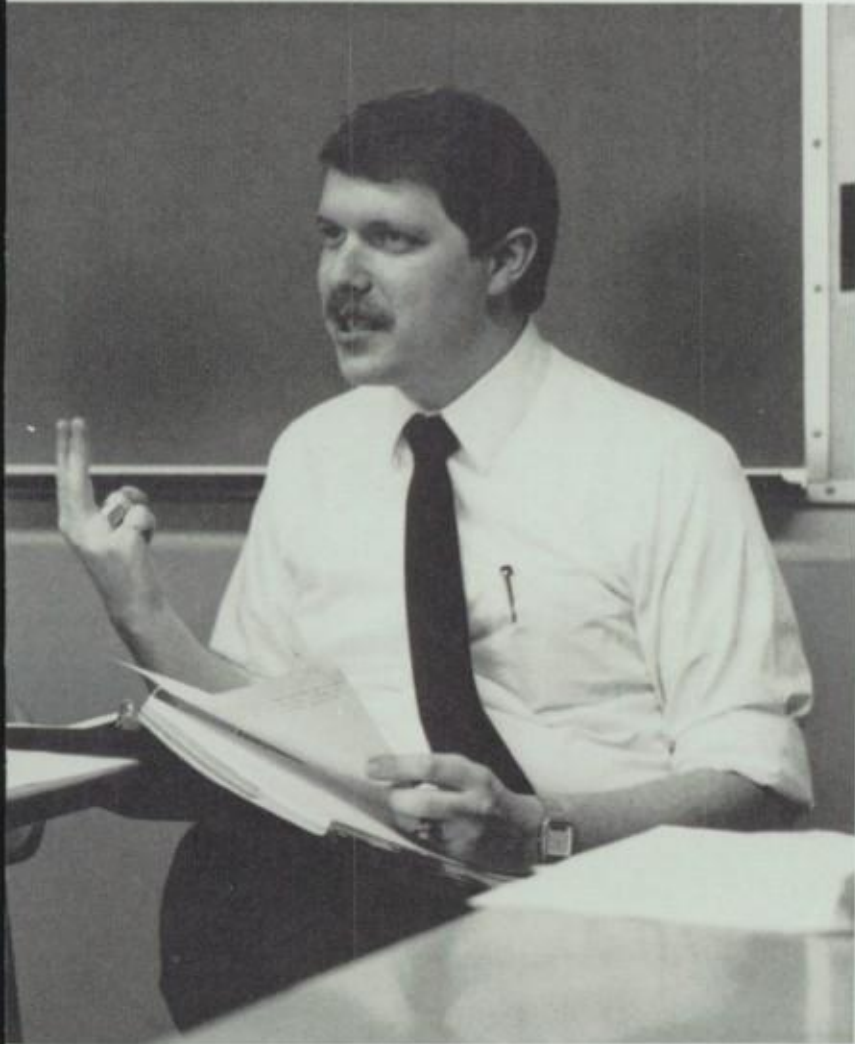

The department seeks to give students opportunities to receive cultural balance that is necessary for a complete educational experience. An art program is offered to develop individual skills. Art/Music Appreciation is a freshman required course. The band program enables students to not only learn an instrument but to perform in concert as well. A drafting, design, calligraphy program gives students the opportunity to learn basic techniques and to be oriented to the process of visualization. The Theater Arts program functions as an extra curricular activity this year.

English Department:

With the principle that English as a discipline of communication and appreciation holds an indispensable position in the formation of the liberally educated person, the English program seeks to provide a firm foundation in reading, writing, listening, speaking and the art of appreciation of great literature as well as personal expression. In addition to grade level core programs that introduce students to all genres of literature through inductive study and help the student perfect the use of language as a tool in communicating ideas; upper division students are offered electives in creative writing and novels.

Although the Varsity Basketball Team set their sights on the CIF playoffs early in the season, their lack of experience apparently was responsible for a less than great showing. The team was quick and aggressive, but not able to score wins in the well-matched Santa Fe league. Coach John Matheus utilized the talents of all 13 players. The Lancers looked sharp in their new uniforms and snappy pregame warmups; but could not maintain their momentum through the closing buzzer. To the credit of the coach and individual players, they showed a great team effort.

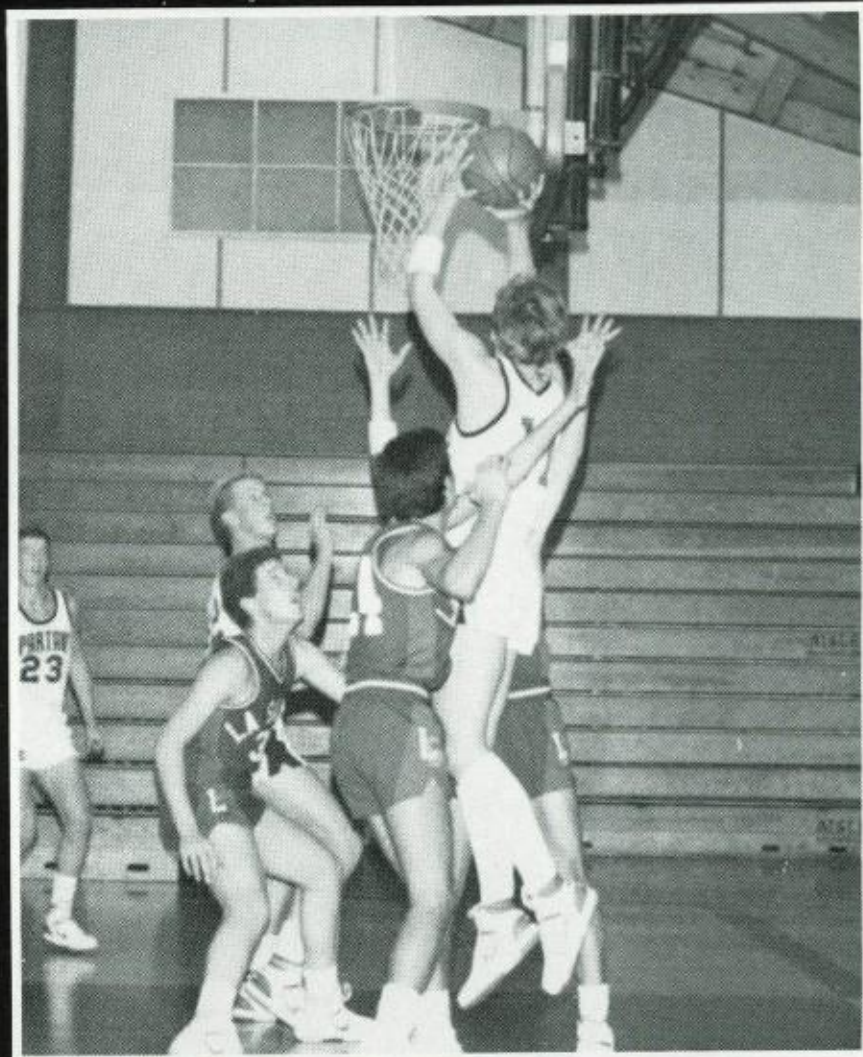

LANCER BASKETBALL

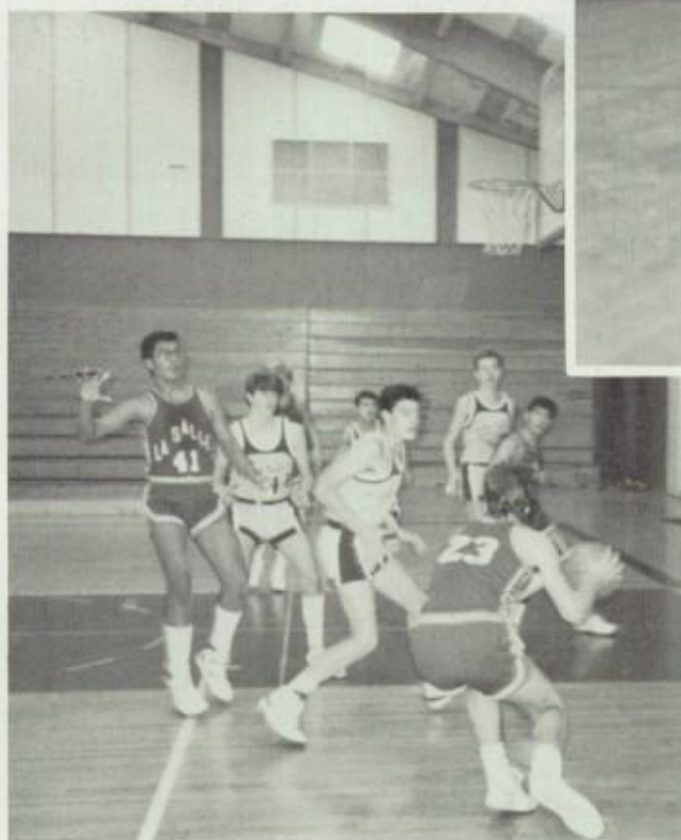

Varsity Players are: Hazim Rabadi, Robert Brack, Mike O'Brien, Dann Hill, Paul Madarieta, Steve Gilbreth, James Zinter, Tom Murphy, Adam Konrad, Greg Rolf, Chris Schnaider, Baves Patel. Mgrs — David Nelson, Kevin Coffin, Rich Mabry.

Brother Steven coached the Junior Varsity Lancers Ed Malicdem, Mark Gilbreth, Stan Oliai, Alex Abanes, Kevin Blake, Brian Rysdon, Yani Aghili, Henry Garcia, Steve Smith, John Busarello-Pfost, and Francisco Rivas. Paul Trevino and Marcus Silvo were managers. With only two returning players, Brother Steven had to recruit players and form a team to face the tough preseason play. Although they did not place in League play, the team showed well defensively.

J.V. BASKETBALL

New students sporting new uniforms playing for a new alma mater with team members they did not know, didn't deter Coach Bill Fleckenstein from organizing a team that had excellent depth. Freshmen Team members are Dindo Valencia, Giancarlo Castagneto, Max de los Santos, Albert Rapista, Brian Esquivel, Mike Allen, Francis Unson, Manager — Jose Rennard, Mark Sanderl, Richard Gawlik, Dan Talley, Hiromichi Toyonaga, Tom Rochester, and Jerry Lu.

FROSH BASKETBALL

Coach George Taylor again lead the La Salle Varsity Soccer Team to its ninth consecutive League Championship. This seasoned team effortlessly won all its matches.

VARSITY SOCCER

The La Sallian Ambassadors

WHAT IS AN AMBASSADOR?

- a person who believes strongly in La Salle High School
- a spokesman who tells the community about the fine educational work of the Christian Brothers and La Salle High School
- a worker who enjoys helping La Salle and the Ambassadors, with special events and other projects

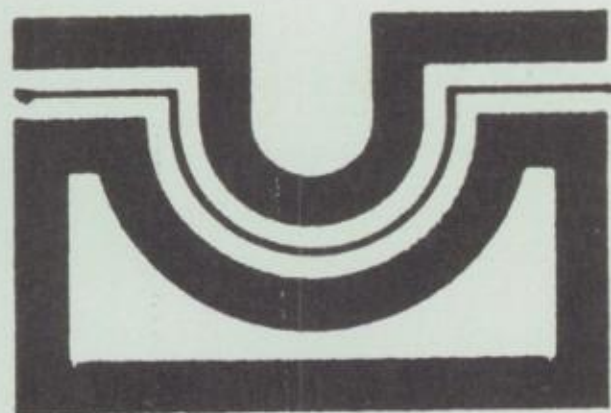

A La Sallian Ambassador represents La Salle High School to the greater community seeking to spread the word about the educational excellence of La Salle and to gain financial support for the school.

A La Sallian Ambassador understands the mission of the Christian Brothers, believes in the philosophy of La Salle High School, and is a viable instrument in promoting quality, Catholic college-preparatory education for the young men of La Salle.

WHO ARE AMBASSADORS?

The Ambassadors are one of the major support groups of La Salle High School, comprised of alumni, alumni parents, parents, and friends. Anyone who subscribes to the philosophy and objectives of the Ambassadors and La Salle High School is eligible for membership.
